PALMER-McLELLAN CO. GETS CONCESSIONS

names down for very small amounts.
"If the Council sees fit to vote for the amendment, I tell those who vote for it they are doing that which is not in the best interests of the city and that they will regret their action," said Ald. Calder in conclusion.

ALD. GUTHRIE'S OPINION.

Ald. Guthrie favored the amendment and was not favorable to the report of the committee which he did not think gave the new company a fair show. It had been argued that the York street lot would be available as the St. John & Quebec Railway would use it. He had been informed however, that the Valley Railway tracks would run considerably to the south of it. The lot on Argyle street proposed as a site in the committee's report, had been examined by Mr. H.
M. Clarke, a competent builder, and found to contain water within twenty inches of the surface. To build a factory there would entail an extra cost of $2,000. The York street lot could be given without any cost to the city.
Ald. Guthrie stated that the new company would compete with the existing industry no more in Fredericton than in St. Mary's or elsewhere.
The city was after new industries.
Here was an excellent chance to get ons. He was strongly in favor of the amendment.

Ald. Kitchen favored the amendment except that he wanted the site free only for twenty-one years and not for ever.

Ald. Burchill thought it remarkable that the site on Argyle street now was not desirable although the same men for the John Palmer Company last year had chosen a site right next to it.

ALD. CALDER COMES BACK.

Ald. Calder congratulated Ald. H.
Guthrie on the manner in which he had presented the case for the company with which he was associated—the Palmer-McLellan Company. However, he thought it a most questionable thing that any man would use his public position to get something he wanted.

Ald. Burchill's remarks concerning the Argyle street site were perfectly correct. The attempt was evidently to get possession of the city's land on York street. Ald. Guthrie said the lot was growing up in weeds. He well knew that land values in Fredericton had risen to such an extent that the lot could not be bought for $7,000.
The alderman had been elected to do their best for the citizens and vote in their interests. The committee's report dealt generously with the new company.

ALD. GUTHRIE'S REPLY.

Ald. Guthrie took Ald. Calder's remarks to himself. He explained that as a citizen he had subscribed one hundred dollars in stock in the Palmer-McLellan Company. When he saw that this fact was to be used against him he had, with the consent of the trustees of the new company, receded from it.

Ald. Calder said that in view of the explanation of Ald. Guthrie he would withdraw his statement. He would say, however, that no alderman should use his position at the board to advance his own interests.

On the motion of Ald. Ryan it was decided to give the company a free site for a term of twenty-one years.

Ald. Wilkinson suggested making the other concessions for a term of ten years. Twenty-one years was too long a term but the suggestion was not followed.

The amendment was carried on the following vote:

Yea—Ryan, Cruikshank, Guthrie,
Moore, Kitchen.
Nay—Calder, Burchill, Wilkinson.

THE EVOLUTION OF TRAVEL

New York, May 23—To demonstrate the evolution of transportation methods, especially in the United States and Canada, is the object of the Travel and Vacation Exhibition which was opened in the Grand Central Palace today under the auspices of the Transportation Club of New York.
The exhibition which is the first of its kind ever held in this country, will continue for one week. Many historical relics originals and models lent by the Navy Department, the Smithsonian Institution and numerous steamship and railroad companies are included in the display.
The sledges used by Peary in his trip to the North pole are to be seen among the exhibits referring to exploration. Another section is devoted to the exhibition of appliances for minimizing accidents in railway and steamship travel.

DEATH AT ST. MARY'S

The parents, four sisters and one brother survive. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at ing the service. Interment will be

LABORERS ARRIVE

A party of eighteen Bulgarians and Polacks arrived here last night from on that line are finding English labor less and finding English labor unsatisfactory.

TORY LAWYERS WHO FED AT PUBLIC TROUGH

Some of the government supporters and newspapers are fond of referring to the fact that years ago legal gentlemen belonging to the Liberal party did some work for the local government of that day and received payment for the same. At that time they were in opposition and were equally anxious then to declaim against the usefulness of the solicitor general.

They could not see why the criminal business of the province should not all be handled by the attorney general himself, whom the wanted, in addition, to look after the collecting of the succession duties without receiving any additional remuneration. In fact, they thought that all legal work with the government should be done by the attorney general in consideration of the amount he received in connection with that portfolio.

Their memories have as usual proved to be very short. A reference to the Public Accounts of 1910 and 1911 will show that the Hazen-Flemming government were very generous indeed to the lawyers who supported them.
In the amounts paid for the administration of justice in 1910 there are two separate sums, one of $961.65 and the other of $120.75 paid out in criminal prosecution outside altogether of the work done by the attorney general, and, it should be added, by the solicitor general; for no sooner was the Hazen government in power than the premier forgot all about his famous platform and filled the office of solicitor general just the same as his predecessors had done.

Under the heading of "Criminal Prosecutions," in 1910 it will be noted that Fowler & Jonah, of Kings; W. F. Kertson and T. J. Carter, of Victoria County; J. B. M. Baxter, of St. John; H. H. James, of Kent; T.
W. Butler, of Northumberland; J. S.
Harquail, of Restigouche; R. B. Hanson of York; J. C. Hartley of Carleton; A. J. Legere, of Westmorland; W. A. Mott, of Restigouche; all had a share in the plums that were handed out.

Mr. Baxter, of St. John, under another heading is paid the comfortable sum of $1,000 for "Services re Judic-ature Act;" and E. C. Weyman, of Kings county, for preparing the index, gets $192.

Then there is a grist of legal expenses in connection with the fish, forest and game protection in which many smaller favorites figure. The solicitor general himself, in addition to the attorney general, received $1,200 and $525 additional for expenses, while the Hon. Mr. Hazen, the attorney general, had $675 in addition to his $2,100 as attorney general and $600 in round numbers as a member.

MANY TORY LAWYERS HIRED

In 1911 the sum of $1,294.50 was paid to several legal gentlemen who are known as good Conservatives and supporters of the government. These included J. J. Harrington, of Gloucester; C. Lionel Harrington, in Westmorland County; A. A. Wilson, of St.
John; the late W. Albert Mott, of Restigouche; John B. M. Baxter of St. John; C. J. Coster and H. A.
Powell, of the same city; T. J. Carter, of Victoria, and now a government candidate in that county, H. H.
James, of Kent; J. C. Hartley, of Carleton; A. A. Davidson of Northumberland; Fowler & Jonah, Kings; George Gilbert, of Gloucester; R. B.
Hanson of York; and E. C. Weyman, of Kings.

The legal expenses this year for fish, forest and game was $311.15, all of which was outside the attorney general's department. Hon. Mr. Hazen, in addition to his salary in 1911, had $412 for travelling expenses, $500 for a special stenographer at St.
John; $2,500 for a trip to Europe in connection with the coronation ceremonies; $48.66 for a stenographer in London, etc., etc., while under the heading of succession duties, he was paid the sum of $277.56.

The solicitor general in the same year received, in addition to his salary of $1,200, $515 for travelling expenses and $171.69 for contingencies.

All of the above goes to show that the members of the Hazen-Flemming government did not live up to the professions that they made in opposition. They were always harping upon the expenditures of the then attorney general, Dr. Pugsley, and one of their favorite campaign speeches consisted of additions of the amounts that he had received for a good many years previously in order that the people might be convinced that the government of which he was a member, was lavish in its distribution of favors. No sooner, however, had Mr. Hazen gotten into power than he placed his friend, H. A. Powell in a position to charge the province over $2,000 for his services in connection with the useless Central Railway investigation, and various other persons, including a judge of the supreme court, received over $5,000 more in connection with the same inquiry.
