McGILL AND TORONTO LIKELY TO TIE FOR 'BIG THREE' HONORS

Argonauts Defeated Ottawa in Inter-provincial League—R. M. C. Played Good Game With Toronto Varsity

Kingston, Nov. 2—McGill defeated Queens at Rugby football here today by a score of 14-3 and thus kept in the running for the intercollegiate Rugby title. McGill has now completed its schedule but Toronto Varsity must play its final game here next week. Should Toronto win, as seems likely they will tie with McGill for the championship but a victory for Queens would give McGill the title without more games.

TIGERS WON

Montreal, Nov. 2—Hamilton Tigers outplayed the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association's Rugby football today and won by 29-12. This puts the local team in last place in the Inter-provincial League.

ROUGH RIDERS BEATEN

Ottawa, Nov. 2—The Ottawa Rough Riders met their first defeat today when the Toronto Argonauts, last year's champions in the Inter-provincial, defeated them by 12 to 6. This puts the Toronto right in line for another championship and makes a hot encounter next Saturday when the same teams met in Toronto a certainty.

R. M. C. LOST

Toronto, Nov. 2—No faster game of football has been played in Toronto this season than that in which the Toronto University fourteen defeated the team from the Royal Military College at Kingston by a score of 35 to 20 on Saturday afternoon at Varsity stadium. The Toronto team won because its line was heavier and the backs more experienced.

"Wizard" Cribbs, well known Athlete Killed in St. John

Fell Down Elevator Shaft of Opera House—Prominent Long-Distance Runner, Baseball Player and Hockeyist—Native of Chatham but had Lived Some Years in St. John

St. John, Nov. 4—Bernard Cribbs, aged 21 years and an employee in The Standard, stereotyping department, was killed shortly after midnight Saturday by falling down the elevator well in the Opera House building, Union street.

Cribbs was a young man of good habits and Saturday evening being the only one that he has away from work during the week, he is supposed to have gone to the Opera House building in which are the rooms where the Typographical Union, the Pressmen's Union and other labor bodies meet. There were a couple of meetings in the building Saturday night and it was quite late when the business was finished.

It is thought that Cribbs remained in the building after the others had left and, as the hallway leading to the side door of the building on Union Alley is always dark when there is no performance on at the Opera House, and the entrance to the elevator well is near this side door, it is presumed that, coming down the stairs from the union rooms and leaving the landing at the bottom, he was groping his way to the side door, walked into the well and fell to the bottom, a distance of about fifteen feet, to his death.

FOUND IN ELEVATOR WELL.

H. M. DeMille, who conducts a clothing store on the ground floor of the Opera House, with the entrance on Union street, happened to remain in his store after closing hour Saturday night and was working on his books. Two friends, Messrs. Wilson and Ferguson, were with him at the time. It was shortly after midnight when Mr. DeMille heard something falling in the elevator well and he remarked the fact to his companions. They went to the rear of the store and, looking into the elevator well, they found the body of a man lying there cut and bleeding. Mr. DeMille immediately telephoned to Dr. W. A. Christie on Waterloo street and was told by the physician to procure the ambulance and convey the injured man to the General Public Hospital.

Mr. DeMille and his companions lost no time in calling the ambulance and the unconscious form was placed in the ambulance and taken to the hospital.

After being admitted to the hospital it was found that Cribbs had received three or four bad cuts on the head, that there was a depression on the brain and that there was every indication of a fracture at the base of the skull. Everything that the hospital doctors could do was done but no hopes were held out for the man's recovery. He never regained consciousness and died at 4.50 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Bernard Cribbs was the son of Peter Cribbs of Chatham, N.B., and is survived by his parents and four younger brothers.

The deceased's father is unable to come here and the deceased's cousin, a Mr. Fleming, will arrive in the city today for the purpose of taking the remains back to Chatham for interment.

Coroner D. E. Berryman has been notified of the fatality and will view the remains at the hospital morgue this morning, and it is very likely that the official will hold an inquest and find if there is any blame to be attached to any person for the death of the young man.

Bernard Cribbs had been residing in this city for the past three or four years. He was engaged in The Standard as assistant pressman and stereotyper. He was exceedingly well liked by his fellow employees, was of a happy disposition and was a great favorite with all who knew him. As an athlete he was well known all over the provinces, having for years been identified with baseball teams and hockey clubs. He was also noted as a long distance runner and has proved a winner in many events.

Since he has been in this city, he played as a fielder with the St. Johns and the Marathons and during the past season had been a valued member of a team in the East End League and also played with a team in the inter-society league. He will be greatly missed in athletic circles.

As a hockey player, his position was mostly that of goal tender, and last season he played in this position for the A. Co. team of this city, and was taken to Boston to play for the college team from Antigonish.

PUNTS AND DROPS

The U.N.B. is to get into shape in the next few days for that game here Friday with Acadia. Of course Acadia is the strong favorite but so was U.N.B. for last Friday's game at Sackville.

Several U.N.B. men bear marks of conflict the result of the U.N.B.—Mount A. match. Veniot, "Lefty" McFadden and Harry Pasker all sport black eyes. McFadden received his from Barter of the Mr. Allison XV, who in his turn came in for some attention from the U.N.B.

That Intercollegiate rule making a touch-down for safety count in case of a draw or tie has its very serious drawbacks. Under it a team might win championship and cup by two safeties and the only team of the league to win a match in decisive fashion might be only in second place.

Acadia forwards are reported to be slow but heavy. A proper interpretation of Rugby rules does not give a scrim of that class any advantage in fast places it at a disadvantage. The choice of referee will be an important feature of next Friday's game.

U.N.B. has never beaten Mt. Allison* in Sackville although at various times she has beaten teams that have the rabbit's foot when it comes to tackling U.N.B. on the Mount A. Campus.

The admission of King's College to the Intercollegiate Rugby League and the playing of home-and-home games each season in that organization have advocates who steadily are growing more numerous.

Acadia is now a pretty strong favorite among those of the betting fraternity.

According to English Rugby rules a touch-down for safety, putting the ball into touch-in-goal and putting in the ambulance and taken to the hospital.
