STRAY TOPICS FROM
LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

New York, July 20—Everywhere throughout the country the people are thoroughly aroused by the economic problems presented by the high cost of living and legislators, be they members of Congress or merely aldermen, are beginning to realize that they must make at least a pretense of trying to solve the problem if they wish to retain the good will and support of their constituents. Nowhere is the tension due to the high cost of living greater than in New York with its millions of people belonging to the poor or middle classes. It is quite clear to every one that something must be done and done soon, to remedy the existing conditions, but concerning the proper remedy or remedies opinions are widely divergent. However, any proposition which promises ever so vaguely to help toward reducing the cost of living, is sure of public support. So far but little has been done in New York City in a general way to grapple with the great problem of the time. It is true, a few individuals and organizations made an attempt to remedy the situation by co-operative efforts, but these sporadic and unsystematic attempts were too narrowly circumscribed and too trifling to accomplish much good except for a paltry few.

Many suggestions have been made during the last few months, but the most promising of them all seems to be the latest plan of removing the restrictions placed upon the peddling of victuals in pushcarts. To the poor residents of the lower east side and of other congested districts of the city the pushcart men have always been a great boon. The peddlers buy their stock at the lowest possible price and as they have no rent to pay and require no store fixtures, etc., they can afford to undersell the regular store keepers who buy in larger quantities but often suffer considerable loss by the spoiling of meats, vegetables and fruit left on their hands when business is slack. The peddlars are not only able to sell their goods below the price charged in the stores, but they do sell them cheaper and the poor people, buying in small quantities, benefit by it.

NOT ENTIRELY A BLESSING.
 It cannot be said, however, that the pushcart peddlars are an unmitigated blessing. Some of them are not particularly scrupulous concerning the quality of their goods and the correctness of their scales and measures. An equally objectionable feature is that they obstruct the street traffic and that they materially add to the unsanitary condition of the streets in the congested parts of the city. For these reasons the health authorities and the police have held the pushcart men under rather severe restrictions. Many times the Board of Aldermen has been petitioned to remove some of the restrictions, but the board never showed any inclination to grant these requests. Now, however, there is so strong a sentiment in favor of the pushcart peddlars that the Board of Aldermen is seriously considering a plan for setting aside convenient market places for the use of the pushcart peddlars and for removing at least some of the restrictions heretofore in force.

VACATION SCHOOLS.

The vacation schools in this city have been opened with an enrollment of 26,637 pupils, an increase over last summer of fully 25 per cent.
 These vacation schools, which include one high school in Manhattan and one in Brooklyn, are of great value and are becoming more popular every year. The subjects of instruction in the vacation schools are of a practical nature and include Venetian iron work, bench work, chair making, cooking and housekeeping, knitting and crochet work, nursing, advanced sewing and dressmaking, elementary sewing, millinery, embroidery, kindergarten and advanced kindergarten work.

BLACK HAND AGAIN

How thoroughly the members of the Black Hand terrorize the Italians in this part of the country is clearly shown by a case which came to the notice of the authorities the other day. An Italian living in Plainfield, N.J., some time ago received a letter from the Black Hand threatening him with death should he fail to pay a ransom of $500.
 Upon the advice of his friends the recipient of the letter informed the police. A decoy letter was posted and the man who called for the letter was promptly arrested. When the prisoner was confronted with the informant, the latter identified him.
 But after the prisoner had made a secret sign to the informant, the latter immediately made a complete change of front. He stated most emphatically that the prisoner was his friend and he did not believe him to be guilty of evil intentions.
 As there was not other evidence against the prisoner the police authorities were forced to let him go.

HONDINI'S DEMONSTRATION

The other day Houdini, the man of mystery, who laughs at prison-cells, barred doors and manacles, gave a sensational exhibition of his powers. Doubly handcuffed and with irons on his feet, he allowed himself to be placed in a wooden box the cover of which was securely nailed down. Then the box containing the shackled wizard was thrown into the water of the harbor from a tugboat. Scarcely a minute later Houdini appeared upon the surface of the water, puffing, but showing no in effect from his submission. Of course, he had managed to rid himself in some way of the shackles which held his arms and legs.

ESCAPED FROM TOMBS

George Witson, a bold and dangerous burglar with a long criminal record, who was imprisoned in the toms, awaiting his trial on a charge of burglary, also gave an exhibition the other day which, in some respects was even more sensational than that by Houdini, Singlehanded and without the help of any confederates on the outside Witson succeeded in escaping from the Tombs, after he had knocked down one of the guards and taken away the man's revolver. The prison authorities, believing that Witson was still hiding somewhere within the prison walls, made a fruitless search and wasted several hours before they notified the police. While the jailkeepers were searching for him, Witson, who had sealed the prison wall and gained street, made the best of his opportunity. It is believed that the darfellow has by this time put many a mile between himself and the Tombs.

SIR DONALD LOOKS FOR RECORD CROP

Toronto, July 20—Sir Donald Mann who returned from the west last night stated that while the Canadian Northern Railway tracks would be completed by the end of 1913, traffic probably would not be inaugurated until the following summer. He stated also that the Canada Northern would construct several branches in British Columbia. Sir Donald expects that all previous crop records will be broken.

RANCHMEN DISCARD PONY FOR AUTO

Dallas, Texas, July 22—The sight of scores of automobiles drawn up here today for the start of the Texas ranchmen's cross-State tour caused the spectators to predict that the day is not far distant when the cowboy's pony, like the city horse, will soon be supplanted by the motor car. The cross-State tour is confined exclusively to cars owned by ranchmen and farmers, but despite this limitation there was no lack of entries in the contest.
 Several handsome trophies and $1,000 in cash prizes will be distributed among the winners. The route is from Dallas to San Antonio and return, each touring car carrying not less than four passengers, and runabouts at least two passengers.

LOWER HAINESVILLE.

Lower Hainesville, July 18—The hot wave that prevailed here for two weeks has somewhat abated and the last few days have been cooler.
 Mr. E. N. Reynolds has been to St.
 Mary's the past week adding repairs to his store at that place.
 Mr. Strlie Brewer has purchased a new horse from Mr. Henry Hill.
 Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forzan and family spent Sunday with relatives at Burr's Corner.
 Miss Wiggins spent Wednesday with Mrs. Abraham Chute.
 Mr. Ed McKiel has gone to Woodstock Road to hay with Mr. George Palmer.

Mrs. Arleigh White spent a few days at Hartland, the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. E. Nixon.

Miss Susie Webb has gone to Queensbury to spend the summer.

Some of the farmers here have commenced haying and report crops equal to last year.

Mrs. Thomas Pound of Millinocket, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Reynolds.

Mrs. M. Barton is suffering with erysipelas in her face.
 Master Sherman Elliott has returned home.

Mr. B. R. Burr of Milville, spent Sunday here and attended church in the evening.

Misses Greta and Elsie Haines have returned from Central Hainesville, where they were visiting their aunt.

Misses Fern and Bessie Haines have also returned from Brewer's Mills.
 Strawberries, which have been very plentiful, are about gone.

Got A Pain
In Your Back?

IF YOU HAVE
 HEED THE WARNING.

You get a pain in your back, and you wonder what is the matter. When the back aches or becomes weak it is a warning that the kidneys are affected in some way.

Heed the warning; cure the weak, lame, aching back and dispose of any chances of further trouble.

If you don't do this, serious complications are very apt to arise, and the first thing you know you will be troubled with Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's Disease, the three most deadly forms of kidney trouble.

On the first sign of a pain in the back, Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken.
 They go right to the seat of the trouble, cure the backache and prevent any further complications arising.

Mr. Stewart Johnston, Richardson Mines, N.S., writes:—"For years I was troubled with my back, and I had to give up work. I tried Dr. after Dr., and was getting no better. I had almost given up hope when I began to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I took three boxes of them, and found I was completely cured.
 I feel I owe my life to Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."

POLO CHAMPIONSHIP AT THE PIER

Narragansett Pier, R. I., July 22 —Polo enthusiasts and society folk from far and near gathered here today for the beginning of the series of annual polo championships under the auspices of the National Polo Association. The competitions will continue for nearly a month and will take place as usual on the grounds of the Point Judith Country Club.

The tournament will embrace the junior, senior, and open events for the championship titles. Most interest centers in the junior championships, for which the perpetual trophy is a cup presented by Samuel D. Warren of Boston. The competitions are for teams of four whose aggregate handicaps do not exceed twenty goals, none of the players to have a higher handicap than five goals. The entry of a team of officers of the regular army has excited general interest. The other entries include teams from the Meadow brook, Rockaway, Piping and Bryn Mawr polo clubs the Kansas City Country Club and the 1st Troop, Philadelphia City Cavalry.

REVOLUTION IN PORTUGAL

Madrid, July 20—The correspondent of the Universe, a paper published at Orense, Spain, has sent a despatch to this city saying that a revolution has broken out at Lisbon and Oporto in Portugal. The news was received at Orense by way of Verin a town in Spain near the Portuguese border.

A milk diet is recommended by a writer to those suffering from insomnia.

"In the Case of MY Little Girl—"

In choosing and using a soap for your "Little Fairy" you will find no soap so mild, so neutral, so agreeable to tender skins as FAIRY SOAP.

Being made from products that you could eat, FAIRY SOAP agrees with even the tender skin of a babe.

FAIRY SOAP

is white—pure—floating. It comes in a handy oval cake. We could charge you five times the price asked for FAIRY SOAP and we could add nothing to its quality.

In higher-priced soaps you are paying for high-priced perfume and fancy wrappers—not better soap.

D-E-E-R-I-N-G

A deering Tedder is what you need to make hay quickly in catch weather. It will shake out the swaths thoroughly and let the air and sun at the grass so that it will dry in the shortest possible time.

Deering Rakes get all the hay. The hang of the teeth can be adjusted to meet any condition. They are so simple in construction that they do not get out of order. They trip so easily that a child can operate a Deering.

No trouble about getting repairs quickly if you buy Deering machines.
