DO AMERICAN WOMAN MAKE GOOD HOUSEWIVES

In an article on The American Girl in the May Woman's Home Companion, J. Nilsen Laurvik says:

"Despite the many American women who are model housekeepers—and nowhere in the world are there to be found more delightful hostesses than the American woman of the older generation—who still maintain throughout the country the best traditions of the home, nevertheless an increasingly large number of the younger generation of matrons look upon the work of keeping house as a kind of necessary evil that is to be gotten through with as quickly as possible. They are neither to be manner born nor to the manner bred. Seldom if ever does the young matron enjoy her home as a field of domestic activity in which she finds an opportunity for the full expression of her best efforts. Only occasionally do you find among the women of the younger generation one in whom the love of home and all its duties approaches an instinctive inclination. And, if you inquire into the matter, you will find in nine cases out of ten that she is foreign born or of foreign parentage and that her inclination has been fostered and encouraged by some sort of home training. But even those, however numerous they may be, do not constitute a sufficiently large number to affect materially the anti-domestic feeling that is rapidly growing more and more general. That this tendency to regard with distaste all forms of housework is not confined to the very rich, is quite evident from the readiness of the average American girl to seek employment in office, store or factory rather than take up the duties of a home."

SHE FAINTED WITH THE AGONY

"Fruit-a-lives" Cured Her Kidneys

MISS MAGGIE JANNACK

MOUNTAIN, ONT., DEC. 14th, 1910
 "I desire to let the world know the great debt I owe 'Fruit-a-lives' which saved my life when I had given up hope of ever being well again."

For six years, I suffered from dreadful Kidney Disease. My legs and lower part of my body were fearfully swollen. The pain in my side and legs would be so bad that I would faint with the agony.

Five different doctors attended me and all said it was Kidney Disease and gave me no hope of getting well.

A kind neighbor visited me and mentioned the case of Mrs. Fenwick who had been cured of a sickness like mine. I took 'Fruit-a-lives' and in a short time, I began to feel better—the swelling went down—the pains were easier—and soon I was well.

I have gained over 30 pounds since taking 'Fruit-a-lives'—and my friends look upon my recovery as a miracle."

(Miss) MAGGIE JANNACK.
 "Fruit-a-lives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c.—or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.
