GRIEVANCES AGAINST MEN

In the May American Magazine, Ida M. Tarbell publishes a piece of documentary evidence showing that the organized movement for woman's rights as we have it in this country was founded on the idea that man is a conscious tyrant. Following is a document, a List of Grievances which was adopted with a Declaration of Sentiments at the first convention called in this country to consider the rights of woman.

"The history of mankind is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations on the part of man towards woman, having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over her.

"He has never permitted her to elective franchise.

"He has compelled her to submit to laws in the formation of which she exercises her inalienable right to the has no voice.

"He has withheld from her rights which are given to the most ignorant and degraded men.

"He has made her, if married, in the eye of the law civilly dead.

"He has taken from her all right in property, even to the wages she earns.

"He has so framed the laws of divorce as to what shall be the proper causes, and in case of separation, to whom the guardianship of the children shall be given, as to be wholly regardless of the happiness of the woman.

"After depriving her of all her rights as a married woman, if single, and the owner of property, he has taxed her to support a government which recognizes her only when her property can be made profitable to it.

"He has denied her the facilities for obtaining a thorough education, all colleges being closed against her.

"He has created a false public sentiment by giving to the world a different code of morals for men and women, by which moral delinquencies which exclude women from society are not only tolerated but deemed of little account in man.

"He has usurped the prerogative of Jehovah himself, claiming it as his right to assign for her a sphere of action, when that belongs to her conscience to her God.

"He has endeavored in every way that he could, to destroy her confidence in her own powers, to lessen her self-respect, and to make her willing to lead a dependent and abject life."

Mr. William McKay, who has held the position of superintendent of roads and streets for many years, has been dismissed from office and Ald. H. C. Jewett has been appointed to the vacancy. Mr. McKay was in many respects a good official, and if experience is any teacher he should know more about road-making than any other man in the city. Judging by the criticism his work provoked, however, this was not the case. He undoubtedly had difficulties to contend with—difficulties which the public know little about and considering the system which prevails, he has no reason to be ashamed of his record. His successor, Ald. Jewett, who is a young man of great energy, will no doubt encounter the same difficulties and in order to overcome them he will need the hearty co-operation of the council and citizens. We believe that the city engineer should be given absolute control of all work on the roads and streets, and that the so-called road commissioner should serve under him in the capacity of foreman. Until some such plan as this is adopted there will always be cause for complaint.

The hack organ refers to "Mr. Gould's denial of over his signature" as if it were a complete vindication of its own position and a crushing blow to the opposition press. It was to give an emphatic denial to certain allegations made against his company by the hack organ that Mr. Gould invoked the aid of the newspapers. A plain and business like statement which he voluntarily gave to this journal of the home soon brought things to head.

The City Council fulfilled a pre-election promise last evening by increasing the pay of the officers and members of the fire department. Their action was nothing more than a simple measure of justice to a body of men who render the city most efficient service. We have a good fire department and there is no reason why the men who compose it should not be decently paid for their services.

The great Tory purists who a few months ago were preaching the doctrine of "no truck with the Yankees" recently dismissed the Liberal harbor master at Yarmouth, N. S. and appointed as his successor the captain of a Gloucester schooner who found it necessary to take out naturalization papers before entering upon his duties.

It is up to the Local Government to say whether or not the steamer Hampsstead will be placed on the Fredericton-Gagetown route this season. Fredericton merchants who have found this boat a business puller in former years should get into communication with Premier Flemming.

All will be glad to know that construction work on the St. John Valley Railway is to start in earnest in the course of a day or two. The turning of the first sod in the vicinity of Fredericton should be the occasion of some sort of a celebration.

There are already numerous applicants for the vacant positions of jailer and deputy sheriff. A resident of Stanley who was turned down on several previous occasions, seem to have the inside track at present.

What sort of a steamship service are we going to have this season on the St. John River? The question ought to be of sufficient importance to engage the attention of the City Council and the Board of Trade.

The local government will meet this week to make some appointment and incidentally to get things in shape for the approaching election.

McVAY BROTHERS TRIAL

Pine Bluff, Ark., April 30.—The case of Ed. and Cullen McVay, charged with first degree murder in connection with the death of J. W. Etheridge was shot down in court while he was being tried for the assassination two years ago of Albert McVay. John, Ed and Cullen McVay, brothers of Albert McVay, were arrested after the shooting of Etheridge and charged with murder in the first degree as was Perry Walker, who is said to have been with the McVays shortly before the shooting. Walker was later released. John McVay was tried last February and convicted and sentenced to death. An appeal has served to stay the sentence.

MONTANA SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Great Falls, Mont., April 30.—Many delegates and visitors came to Great Falls today for the annual convention of the Montana State Sunday School Association. The programme for the gathering covers three days and provides for numerous interesting and instructive features. The local church societies are entertaining the visitors.

RIO JANEIRO STOCK THE FEATURE OF THE MARKET

(By direct private wires to J. C. 122. Mackintosh & Co., 601 Queen Street, Fredericton, N.B.)

New York, N.Y., April 30.—The market opening was quiet, with stocks generally showing fractional declines. The traders were still bullish, looking upon reactions only as opportunities to buy stocks. Stocks, however, appeared to be supplied from some quarters. There was an initial loss of 1 in U.S. Steel, that stock opening at 71½. The first sale of reading was at a decline of 1 and the stock later sold at 176½. Lehigh Valley showed overnight a gain of 1. A supply of Reading appeared to be coming in. The only noticeable advance seen anywhere was that of 1 in Baltimore and Ohio, which opened at 110 in response to Reading's recent rise.
