I Am Willing To Prove I Can Cure You

To That End I Am Giving Away $10,000
Worth of Medicine

In order to show beyond all doubt that I am in possession of a medicine that will cure kidney trouble, bladder trouble or rheumatism, I will this year give away ten thousand dollars' worth of this medicine, and anyone suffering from these diseases can get a box of it absolutely free. All that is necessary is to send me your address.

I don't mean that you are to use a part of it or all of it and pay me if cured. I mean that I will send you a box of this medicine absolutely free of charge, a gift from me to the Uric Acid sufferers of the world, so I can show them where and how they may be cured. I will not expect payment for this free medicine, nor would I accept it now or later if you sent it. It is free in the real meaning of the word.

For twenty-five years—a quarter of a century—I have been trying to convince the public that I have something genuine, something better than others have for the cure of stone, chronic rheumatism, for torturing kidney backache, for annoying calls to urinate. But it is hard to convince people—they try a few things unsuccessfully and give up all hope and refuse to listen to anyone thereafter. Happily, I am in a position now to demonstrate to sufferers of my own expense that I have a medicine that cures these diseases. I don't ask them to spend any money to find out; I don't ask them to believe me, nor even to take the word of reliable people, but all I ask is that they allow me to send them the medicine at my own cost. That is surely fair.

To this end I have set aside ten thousand dollars, which will be used to compound my medicine. Much of it is ready now to be sent out, all of it fresh and standard. There will be enough for all sufferers, though there be thousands of them. And anyone who needs it can get some at free. But in order that I shall know that you have a disease for which this medicine is intended, I ask you to send me some of your leading symptoms. If you have any of the symptoms in the list printed here you need my medicine and if you will write me I will gladly send you a box of it free with full directions for you to use. Look the symptoms over, see which symptoms you have, then write me about as follows: "Dear Dr., I notice symptoms number—here put down the numbers, give your age, full address, and send it to me. My address is Dr. T. Frank Lynott, 881 Franklin Building, Toronto, Can."

The ten thousand dollars I am spending for the compounding of my medicine is only a part of the money I am devoting to this cause, for the package of medicine I send you will be fully prepaid at my expense. From any standpoint you view it, YOU incur no expense or obligation. Just tell others who you know are suffering who send you the medicine that cured you.

I am promising to give away ten thousand dollars' worth of medicine, and I will do that; I am promising to send any sufferer who writes me a box of this medicine and full directions free of charge, and I will do that.

DR. T. FRANK LYNOTT who is giving away $10,000 worth of medicine.

I can say further that this medicine has been vouched for according to law as complying in every detail with all requirements. It will stop rheumatism, it will stop pain and backache, it will stop too frequent desire to urinate; it will heal, soothe and strengthen. You will be better in every way for having taken it. There is not an ingredient that can injure; not one but will benefit. All that I ask is that you use it yourself so that you may be personally convinced.

Owing to the large number of requests, I have had ten thousand more copies of my medical book printed. This book is new and up to date and contains complete descriptions, symptoms, causes, effects and cures of kidney, bladder and rheumatic diseases. All who write for the free medicine will be sent a copy of this grand illustrated medical book—the largest ever written on these diseases for free and general distribution.

If you need medicine such as I have, if you are anxious to be cured and don't want to spend any money LOOKING for cures, write me. Read the symptoms over and let me hear from you today.

he is always young, the youth of a child, full of petulance and vanity. I saw him recently and I noticed his hair was becoming grey. 'What a pity,' I thought, 'that wisdom does not come with his grey hairs.'

"He attacks me, he, the man who has never had a generous thought or an idea of high political construction. I am going through Quebec and Ontario at the present time to make known the duplicity, the fourberie, and the demagoguery of those who defeated me.

SETTLE OLD QUESTIONS FIRST.

"Bourassa says that last Saturday I discussed nothing new. True, I am too old a fox to be caught with that gross bait. We will discuss the old questions first. When they are settled it will be time enough to discuss new ones.

"We are a young people, a new people. We are making tremendous progress. The government must be always meeting problems that are new, that are not understood. The government of Cartier had to deal with the question of railways. The government of Cartier had to deal with the question of militia. Sir John Macdonald had to deal with the question of the C.P.R.

FROM FRYING-PAN INTO FIRE.

"All of us thus had to meet with problems new and unsolved. The question of the marine is not settled; it is still before the government. Those friends who voted against us for fear of the marine will regret it, for they are going to find that they are jumping from the frying-pan into the fire.

ONE LANGUAGE EVERYWHERE.

"Mr. Bourassa says I do not use the same language as I did in 1910. That is untrue. God be thanked, I have only one language, whether in Quebec or in Ontario, whether in 1910 or 1912. I am ready at all times to say what I think. Bourassa says that Laurier signed a secret agreement in London. What is my response? It is that when he says that he says something in which there is not the slightest shadow of truth.

"I was four times at London. I never signed anything secret. Everything that I signed came before parliament. He has a talent for this sort of mis-statement. It was he who said that there was an imperialistic conspiracy between myself, Borden and Lord Grey, an absurd charge.

"If I did sign a secret agreement it must be at London. Then I will withdraw the secret. Let him ask Borden to send for it, or, better still let Hon. Sam Hughes get it while he is over there.

READY TO BE JUDGED BY ACTS

"Is it possible that in this country political discussion has reached such a base level? My acts are there for good or ill, and I am ready to be judged by them. Everyone who voted against us thought the marine would be abolished. It is still in full force. Why has it not been recalled, because the Conservative party find themselves on the horns of a dilemma. They have raised the prejudices of the people. They have preached two policies. Some propose a money contribution. Others propose building warships which will be a part of the British navy. Instead of which, we proposed building a navy which, while ready to help England in time of need, would be always at the disposal of the Canadian people.

"Sam Hughes and his party and Monk and his party don't agree, and that is why they consult and consult, and still consult, and never arrive at a decision.

HIS POLICY BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

"I am going to take my position before the people without waiting to hear the decision of Mr. Borden as to what his ultimate policy will be. Our policy is before you. It remains before you. I only reserve the right to discuss the Borden policy on its merits when it is put before the House.

FUND AN EQUIVALENT.

Turning to the question of reciprocity, Sir Wilfrid pointed to a sign across the street, which read "Larger Markets."

"That," he said, "is the root of the problem. Canada cannot begin to consume what she produces. She must have a trade outlet. The Liberal government had occupied itself with the problem. It wanted to give the people the American market which is right at its door. This was rejected. It is now the duty of the Conservative government to find an equivalent," said Sir Wilfrid. "They cannot leave the west in the position it is in."

READY TO BATTLE TILL DEATH.

He was defending himself, he said. When it pleased his friends to hand the reins of leadership to a younger man he would gladly step down to the position of simple lieutenant.

"But at present," he said, "it is the Old Chief who is at the head of affairs, and as long as heaven guards his strength he will fight.

"I cannot count on tomorrow; it may be that tomorrow will be the end. But whatever the hour, death will find me still in the forefront of the battle, calling upon you to work for a country united and happy as it was in the days when we were in power. And when I am in the tomb even my enemies will be forced to say, 'There rests a man who never had a thought other than for the prosperity and happiness of his country.'"

It was while the ovation following the conclusion of his speech was in progress that the incident occurred which resulted in his short speech in English.

SOME AGE TO OLD BOSTON TOWN

Boston, Mass., Sept. 17—Two hundred and eighty-two years old and a National or American league championship pennant, counting the flag already in sight of McAleer's team of Red Sox, for every twenty-two years of his career. This calculation by an enthusiastic baseball fan and the hoisting of a flag on the city hall marked the only observance of Boston's 282nd birthday anniversary today.

While it was in July, 1630, that the colonists brought by John Winthrop to Salem established themselves at Charlestown, it was not until September 17 of that year when the greater part of Winthrop's company moved to Trimontaine. Then the place was renamed Boston, after the Lincolnshire town from which many of the colonists had come.

AMERICAN GIRL WED IN LONDON

London, Sept. 18—At St. George's Church, Hanover Square, this afternoon, Miss Edith Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brooks of New York, was married to the Hon. Arthur R. Nutting, youngest son of Sir John and Lady Nutting of Dublin. The wedding ceremony, which was attended by many persons of social prominence, was followed by a breakfast at Claridge's.

JOHN T. GROWBRIDGE IS 65

Growbridge, known to several generations of readers through his "Dais Green and His Flying Machine" and other stories and poems, quietly observed his sixty-fifth birthday anniversary today at his home in Arlington. Mr. Growbridge is the last survivor of New England's famous group of authors and poets, which Whittier, Emerson, Longfellow, Holmes, and Lowell.
