

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. Topics of the Day.

(Hot weather or not, I hope you all still like to alugh. You'll find these at your favorite movie.)

"Does your cook give you any impertinence?"

"No. She charges me $10 a week for it."

"Does you cook try to make food go as far as possible?"

"Yes; some of it goes all the way from our house to hers."

Of all the tough problems that come to the property department of a motion-picture studio these days the toughest is the job of providing gambling and drinking layouts for an Alaskan saloon and dance hall. The story of "The Idol of the North," Dorothy Dalton's latest picture, called for the fitting out of the Aurora Borealis saloon and dance hall after the approved Canadian Northwest style of 1897—the days when miners could lose their dust by one whirl of the little ivory ball and then could drown their misfortune at the bar.

Betty Blythe, having worked her will with King Solomon in "The Queen of Sheba," will now see what she can do with Nero—a task that is expected to be far easier. She is to sail in a week or so from Rome, where she will appear, with several other American principals, under the direction of J. Gordon Edwards in the picture in which William Fox is burning up the ancient city without insurance. It is being made under the working title of "Nero," but that may be changed to "The Fall of Rome," so that no one will fancy it is a dog story.

Miss Clara Baranger, one of the foremost scenario writers, has arrived at Hollywood and will spend three months at the Lasky Studio there. Her first work will be the preparation of an original story, "Exit the Vamp," which, according to present plans, will reach the screen with Miss Ethel Cayton as the star.

E. Phillips Oppenheim, writer of mystery and adventure stories, several of whose tales have been on the screen as Paramount pictures, was a recent visitor to the Paramount Studio in London, where, with Mrs. Oppenheim, he watched the filming of screens for his original photoplay, "Twice Wed," now being produced under the direction of Paul Powell.

Tom Mix, who stars in Western photoplays for William Fox, was at one time a cowboy for the 101 Ranch show. Now the circus folk are trying to get him back under the big top, and have offered to him $100,000—so 'tis said—for a season of twenty-six weeks. He sends word that he will continue making pictures for Fox.

Marshall Neilan deserted the directorial chair last week and for the first time in years put on the grease paint and appeared before the camera in "Bits of Life," his new First National production. In this picture Neilan appear as himself in a novel handling of a story. This marks his first appearance before the camera since "Daddy Long Legs," which he directed and acted in with Mary Pickford.

Sessue Hayakawa, Japanese film star, and his wife, known to screen patrons as Tsuru Aoki, will arrive in New York next Friday. He is coming East to see the Dempsey-Carpentier fight with R. S. Cole and other R-C officials.

LOTUS LAND.

These things the tropics mean to me: A moonlit night, a silver sea, Cape jasmine heavy on the air, A throbbing stillness everywhere, Bamboo, a mass of feathered bloom, The scarlet of hibiscus bloom— And you.

Without you all its beauty dies The moon rides wanly in the skies, The jasmine stifles, and the sea Serves but to sever you from me, While every mocking scarlet flower Speaks of your lips and love's brief hour

Anew.

BEATRICE BARRY.

There's no use in a girl committing suicide just because shes' homely. Let her cultivate a good disposition. Lots of men prefer happy wives to sulky beauties.

Advice isn't coolin'. Nevertheless the best method of getting through the hot spell is to grin and bear it.
