ACADIA TRIMMED
KING'S COLLEGE TWO GOALS TO NOTHING

King's had Better of Territory Play
During First Half—Both Tries
Scored in Second Half

Windsor, N. S., Oct. 21—The delightful weather this afternoon brought to the King's College campus a crowd of interested spectators to witness the game of Rugby football between King's and Acadia colleges. The game was swift from start to finish, ending in favor of Acadia by 10-0. In the first half King's had the best of the territory but failed to make good in the second. All the scoring was done in the second half.

FINNISH RUNNER BROKE
THREE WORLD'S RECORDS

Newark, N. J., Oct. 21—Three world's professional running records were broken by William Kolehmainen of Finland, yesterday, when he won an international marathon race around a circular track in the stadium here. He covered twenty-six miles, 385 yards in 2:29:15, bettering the record of 2:31:21 made at Powder Hill, Scotland, in a marathon race last year by Hans Holmer, who finished second today. Kolehmainen created new twenty-five and twenty-six figures.

BADEN THE GREAT HORSE
OF THE PRESENT SEASON

Has won Twelve Races and His Winnings Foot up to $35,600—Tommy Murphy Headg List of Money—Winning Drivers, Walter Cox Second, Ed Geers Third—Grand Circuit About Ended

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 20—The campaign for all but a few of the trotters and pacers who have been seen on the Grand Circuit this season, closed here with the setting sun on Thursday.

The half mile track at Rockport, O., will draw some of the big line horses, while Joe Patchen II and half a dozen others will parade at Phoenix, Ariz., next month, but for most of the racers, it is the home training ground.

The season has been longer than usual, the Grand Circuit lasting through fifteen weeks, with the Lansing meeting making the campaign almost one of four months. The racing has been fast and hard from the first bell tap, and of the horses which started in at Lansing early in July, only three, Baden, April and Funny Crank, appeared for the world here last week.

Grand Rapids, the first meeting in the Grand Circuit, had 112 starters and of this number, 5 pacers, Joe Patchen II, Don Pronto, Knight Onwardo, Sara Ann Patch and Brannham Baughman, and trotters Baden, Esther W. Anvil, Dudie Archdale, Helen Stiles, Arona McKinney, Baron May, Amy, Derby Boy, Cheeny, Jack London, Marigold, Baron Todd, Lady Green Goods, Funny Crank, Ruth McGregor and Mary G were all that were able to perform in the Blue Grass country.

TOMMY MURPHY LEADS.

Tommy Murphy again leads the list of money winning drivers with Walter Cox second and Ed Geers third. When the final figures for the season are made up it is quite likely that the Cox stable will show the heaviest winnings. The clever Yankee reinsman has had few outside mounts to swell his total, while Murphy has driven some good horses that have not been members of his stable, such as Dave Halle, winner of the $10,000 purse at Columbus, and Anna Axme, the crack three-year-old pacer of the season.

Of the horses Murphy shipped from Poughkeepsie, only four have been inside the money the last month of the campaign.

BADEN STANDS FORTH.

The Massachusetts bred stallion, Baden, 2:05 1/4, stands out alone among the season's trotters and as a stake horse no year of the past has produced his equal. The son of Bingara has raced 16 weeks, 17 times, never passing an engagement and in any race in which he won a heat he carried off first money. He has won 12 races and once only has he failed to get some portion of the purse. His gross winnings foot up $35,000, just $2000 more than any other trotter has gathered in a single season.

Allen Winter, who has captured $30,000 of the $33,300 in the Derby at Readville, previously held the honor. R T C and Billy Buch are the ranking horses of the past, however, as they raced week after week, meeting the best the country had to offer.

Baden started three times at Lexington, winning the Transylvania and October prize handsily, but capturing the Castleton cup when apparently beaten. In his last two races he was not in the best of condition because of a cold which would have kept most horses in the stable.

What the future has in store for this six-year-old son of Bingara and Kaldah no one knows, but his owner and trainer are justified in their belief that he will trot as fast in a race as any other stallion ever has. From 2:05 1/4 to 2:02 is a long way, but Baden is a really wonderful horse. He has already accomplished something no other horse has ever equaled, and if he does not train on to ever greater things he will surprise and disappoint some capable horsemen.

PUNTS AND DROPS

How does it figure out? King's beat Mount A. K. Scitville 5 to 0. Acadia beat King's at Windsor 10 to 0. Acadia ought to beat Mount A. at Wolfville next Friday. But what's the use, anything is liable to happen in Rugby and the XV. that holds the Intercollegiate title in 1912 will have to play good football and earn its title.

The usual hard-luck stories are emanating from Sackville. Men are hurt and there are heavy losses by graduation. We have heard them before and in years when the Garnet and Gold was as strong on the gridiron as side ever was.

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 21—A challenge sent by the University of Toronto Rugby football team to the Carlisle Indians for a game at Toronto on Oct. 28 has been accepted by the Indians. It is understood here that the game will be played under American intercollegiate rules.

Frank L. Gearson of St. John has written for a match here Thanksgiving Day, Monday, 28th inst., with the U.N.B. Rugby team. His XV. are the Algonquins who are to be reorganized for the occasion.

"Babe" Church repaired to the University yesterday at the noon hour and talked to the student body like a father. He told the boys briefly and pointedly that if more interest were not displayed in the Rugby XV and better attendance at the football practices were not the rule he might as well throw up his job as coach and return to Milltown. A change in matters was promised.

Otis Bender was yesterday elected captain of the second U.N.B. XV. It will be up to him to select the team to work out against the first XV and also for matches that probably will be arranged with other intermediate teams. Bender is a St. John High School man with lots of experience. He played one match on the U.N.B. first team two years ago but was compelled to retire from the game on account of a broken collarbone. This season he still is a first team possibility for quarter-back.

The Mail has suggested before that the formation of a second team at U.N.B. would be a good method to try for the purpose of working up interest in football practices. It now looks as if the method is to be given a trial.

There was a rattling good practise at College Field yesterday afternoon. There were some absentees but not enough to spoil a workout. The first team scrim showed a few changes in personnel and as far as pushing was concerned had the strong second team scrim beaten. In the loose the second team forwards did some good work however, Parker and Cass being prominent.

Maimann's tackling was a feature of yesterday's practise. The passing and handling of the ball by the backs could have been much better. The first team quarters were slow getting the ball and the halves passed very poorly.

RING NOTES

Champion Kilbane meets Albanese at Columbus Thursday night. Albanese has a good record in and around Cincinnati, but he must look easy to Kilbane else the champion would not take chances with him.

Freddie Duffy, the Jamaica Plain lightweight is billed to meet Jack Britton in one of the series of bouts to be held in New York next Thursday night. Duffy is taking a big chance against such a clever boxer as Britton. In another one of the bouts Jeanette meets his old rival rival Jim Barry. While there is no doubt about Jeanette being able to trim Barry, still the local sports are wondering if Barry will be asked to lay down in order to make the work for Jeanette easier.

Tom O'Rourke who is again looking after the interests of Al Palzer wants to match Palzer against Sandy Ferguson and it may be made.

Johnny Wilbane has been matched to box Olli Kirk in St. Louis, Nov. 4. Kilbane will also meet Tommy Dugan in Johnstown, Penn., Oct. 30.

George Alger and Bay Woods have been rematched to box in Westfield, Oct. 31.

Young Saylor and Harry Trendall will meet in St. Louis, Oct. 28.

MT. ALLISON HAS LARGELY NEW TEAM
SAYS TRIBUNE

Of Forwards of 1911 But One, Durrant, is Left—Probable Team for Acadia Match

(Sackville Tribune)

Next Friday the Mount Allison and Acadia football teams will meet in the first Intercollegiate League game of the 1912 season. The game will be played in Wolfville and all will be watched with a great deal of interest as all Acadia Mt. A. games have been in the past.

Just at present the Mount Allison boys are not looking forward with much pleasant anticipation to this season's games. Every college strikes from time to time the experience which Mt. A. is having this year. For no apparent reason things fall flat, so far as football is concerned. That is what Mt. A. is up against this year.

HEAVY LOSSES

Of last year's team Barter, Godfrey, Sears, Pickard, Thompson and Dickinson—of the backs—are again in college, but among the forwards Durrant alone of the 1911 fifteen is on hand. As for Barter, however, he will not be eligible to play in the Wolfville game, having returned late to college. Sears is laid up with an injured leg muscle and is not expected to be in the line-up against Acadia. Godfrey and Pickard have been out of the game for about two weeks. Clay, who was with Mount A. several years ago, is out with the squad again this season, but so far he has not seemed to be able to get back to form. Of the new candidates for the half line Wells and Armstrong have been showing the most promise, but Wells sprained an ankle on Tuesday and that has spoiled his chance of catching the team for next week's contest. Armstrong, a Moncton boy, is game, but inexperienced.

PROBABLE TEAM

In the quarter line against Acadia there will be Capt. Dickinson and Charlie Malcolm, a St. John Freshman. Both will be good men. Durrant will catch a place on the forward division alright. The other scrim men will be picked from MacDonald, Wallis, Palmer, Pick-up, Barnes, Cramm, Frowe, Gregg, Tomkinson, Titus and West. At the best the scrim will not average more than 168 pounds—a fact which brings no comfort around Mount Allison since report from Wolfville is that the Acadia forwards will average 180.

Of course, the Mount A. boys do not concede victory to Acadia nor to the U.N.B. whom they will play him a week after the match at Wolfville. Both Acadia and U.N.B., will know that they have been in football games after they run up against the garnet and gold men. At the same time, it cannot be denied that there is a fear among the local boys that the real struggle for the King Richardson trophy this year will be between the Fredericton and Wolfville aggregations.

Acadia and Mount Allison have each held the trophy for three seasons. U.N.B. held it for one year, the first year in which it was up for competition. It must be won five years before it becomes the property of any college.
