AUBURN TEAM MADE IT EVEN BREAK ON THREE GAMES WITH FREDERICTON BASEBALL TEAM

Score Wednesday Evening Was 12 to 6—Game Was Rocky
With Some Good Features—Home Team Failed to Bat
Locke Effectively—Bolster and Anderson Both Hit by Auburn—Some Good Fielding in Spots.

Auburn took revenge on the Fredericton ball players in Wednesday evening's game winning 12 to 6 in a poorly played game which nevertheless presented interesting features. The result made an even break between the Massachusetts team and the locals, on the three games.

"Lefty" Locke who pitched a "no hit, no run" game against Bridgetown N. S., some time ago had Fredericton's measure. He was touched for nine but they were scattered and did not produce runs. Harry Anderson's home run clout over the left field fence in the fourth inning was a feature but Harry made the circuit himself. Had there been base runners for him to drive in ahead of him the result might have been different.

Jack Bolster started to pitch for Fredericton but was at a disadvantage because of an injured hand. In the third Auburn hammered him so hard that it meant the game. Anderson finished the game. He was hit for seven the same number that Bolster was found for but the hits did not do so much damage.

Some Good Fielding.

Fredricton's weakness was all on the left side of the infield. Auburn's errors were distributed. The game although ragged in spots also had some good fielding. Cain's heave to third from centre field in the eighth in time to complete a double play was one outstanding play. A double-play by Donovan and McDonald in the fifth when Locke hit the ball just a couple of inches in front of the plate was another. The attendance was not as large as had been expected.

Terrible Third Inning.

Auburn scored one in the first on an error and a two-base hit taking a lead. Fredericton did nothing till the second when two singles, a sacrifice and an error gave two runs putting the locals ahead. It was a false hope. The terrible third inning ended with Auburn leading 8 to 2 seven runs being made. The Americans batted all around and overlapped three in the inning. There were six safe hits with three errors to make things sure. After that the home team struggled gamely but except for a few flashes could do nothing. Anderson's home run in the fourth was wildly applauded and sharp fielding by Auburn also caught well with the crowd. Auburn had one bad inning the sixth when there were three errors and a couple of hits, giving Fredericton two runs. A two bagger and a single gave Auburn one in the eighth. In the ninth they hit Anderson hard for three singles and a three base hit. They netted three runs. In the ninth Fredericton developed the only thing which looked like a batting streak finding Locke for a two-base hit and a brace of singles but it was largely wasted effort as but one run was scored.

The visiting team made an excellent impression while here playing good ball and being a gentlemanly lot of boys.

KEEPS CANDY CLERKS BUSY

Dark days bring smiles to the face of the girl who presides over the candy counter in the department store. That is, in the event that she receives a commission on the sales that she makes.

"When it rains," she announced to a customer who had waited while several others were being served, "there always a crowd buying candy. That because most folks stay in the house rainy nights. And the men feel they ought to bring the wife something to keep her happy."

SNEEZED THE WRONG TIME

Philadelphia, Sept. 7.—If you were driving an automobile and had an attack of sneezing from hay fever just as you were about to shut off power to stop for a traffic semaphore would you sneeze or put on the brakes?

Harry Richter told Magistrate Renshaw he never had a chance to stop his car at Broad street and Girard avenue this morning. He said the impulse to sneeze was greater than to obey the traffic sign.

"That's tough luck," said Magistrate Renshaw, "but hay fever is no excuse for violation of traffic laws. Twelve dollars and fifty cents, please Richter paid the fine."
