A PITIABLE SPECTACLE.

The Medicine Hat election still further reduces the ministerial majority, says the Quebec Telegraph, and brings it yet nearer to the vanishing point, to which it is rapidly hastening. The sweeping majority of Mr. Gardiner is the more surprising because of the personal popularity of the Government candidate, Colonel Spencer, who was a war veteran, an ex-Mayor of Medicine Hat, and also an ex-Member of the Alberta Legislature. His defeat is entirely due to the fact that he was the candidate of the unpopular Meighen Government while his opponent, Mr. Gardiner had the combined support of the Opposition and the United Farmers. The latter is a rapidly growing body throughout the North West, and as its members easily coalesce with those of the Opposition, the Ottawa ministerialists are scarcely likely to elect a baker's dozen of their following in the whole of the Western Provinces. It is no wonder that Mr. Meighen fears to face the electorate. There are still five vacancies in the House of Commons, and it is dollars to doughnuts that there will be no hurry on the part of the Administration in issuing the writs for the holding of any of these elections. But at all events the evil day for the Government cannot be indefinitely deferred, and the general elections for which the bulk of the Canadian people, and more especially those of the Province of Quebec have so long sighed—postponed as long as they may be—cannot now be very far away the last elections for the House of Commons having been held in 1917. As one of our contemporaries remarks: "It is a pitiable spectacle that is presented of a Government simply holding on to office though repudiated in every quarter. In York-Sunbury resort was had to attacking the Farmer candidate as associated with Bolshevism, the same kind of stuff that Premier Meighen voiced in his Stirling speech, and that Sir George Foster, even more crudely, voiced at Aylmer. It is a hint of what may be expected when the general election comes. The Meighen organization is evidently planning to set itself up as the only supporter of law, order and British connection, and to brand all opponents as disloyal or Bolshevik. The opponents of the Government may as well be prepared for this sort of thing and be ready to meet it. Flag-waving is still the refuge of Toryism in Canada in just the same degree that it was in the days of Sir Allan MacNab."

A Turkish Joan of Arc, Aishe Hanum, has started a woman's fighting brigade against the Greeks. Her organization, called the Kain brigade has already taken part in active fighting, and she is constantly enrolling new recruits. This is the first time in Turkish history that a woman has been so militantly active. She has been dubbed by people of Anatolia "The Conqueror." Her personality is in distinct contrast to the beautiful Halide Edib Hanum, the writer and graduate of the American Constantinople College, who has been so active in Nationalist politics for two years and fled to the interior in March, 1920, to escape imprisonment by the Allies.

Rev. W. M. Rochester, general secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, in a letter to a Toronto paper, points out that there has been a misconception as to the attitude of the alliance in regard to Sunday bathing. The letter points out that the only action taken was to call "the attention of the authorities to the Sunday opening of the baths on Bloor West, which are in no sense a public necessity, but constitute a private venture in the business of amusement, with a lucrative side business in refreshments."

The Department of National Property has asked for bids on a new hotel at Mexico City to cost no less than $4,000,000 (pesos) "modern in construction and decoration and to be compared with the best in the world." The work is to be finished within two years. The site selected is on a prominent downtown corner, and one of the stipulations of the contract is that the second floor of the building is to be used for exhibits of national products.

Louisville Courier-Journal: Law-making is becoming one of the nation's largest industries. What with Congress, forty-eight State Legislatures and thousands of City Councils turning out statutes and ordinances, and commissions bureaus and boards multiplying rulings and regulations, the country is in a fair way of becoming flooded and inundated with things not to do. "Verboten" is the legend on the national signboard, but it fails to forbid.

Six masterpieces of Italian painting were recently stolen from the church at Naples. They included the works of Bernardino Sicilian, Paul Di Maio and Sannino. The thieves entered the church at night and opened four heavy barred and bolted doors before reaching the canvases. Police were put on the trail of the pictures which were found but the thieves left no trace.

Sydney Record: Sydney's Tory journal thinks that Hon. W. L. M. King may aptly be called "the Carpenter of the Liberal Party." If political leaders are to be compared to people of the prize-ring this particular description is not uncomplimentary. Nothing like it could be applied to Premier Meighen; Carpenter did not fear to put his fortunes to the test.

The betrothal of Prince Yasuhiro, the second son of the Emperor and Princess Naoko, fourth daughter of Prince Ichijo, will take place in the near future. Prince Yasuhiro, who was born on June 25th, 1902, is now attached to the third regiment of infantry stationed at Tokio. Princess Naoko, who is fourteen years of age, is attending the Peersesses' School.

New York Evening Post: It's a very human world, one proof of which is that the Berlin newspapers paid very little attention to the details of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight, but regarded the disappointment of the great crowds in Paris, when Georges was knocked out as a news item of some value.

Independent Farmer: The alarm clock at Cliff house on Lake Taney-como this year is a big black cow. She wears a bell and every morning at 5 o'clock she gets up and rings that bell until everybody is awake. The proprietor says he has her trained for the benefit of the men who want to go fishing early.

County (Kan.) Pioneer: A woodpecker pecked from daylight until dark six days last week, gaining entrance to the wooden cable box on top of a tall telephone pole at the depot. He put the finishing touches around the edges of the hole on Sunday and then summoned his wife to see what she thought of the job.

Charles H. Jackson, of Brockton, Mass., whose friends claimed he was the largest man in the world, died on Friday. In 1916 he weighed 630 pounds, but a five year's illness had reduced him to 400 pounds. He was six feet tall.

 McLeod Brook fire. Water is very were sent to those engaged on the scarce in that district and some trouble has been experienced in getting in enough to supply the wants of the men. Conditions are still dry and it will take two or three days' steady rain all over the province to make things safe. Persons going into the woods are again requested to be exceedingly careful not to start fires and to report immediately any fire they may chance to see.

THROUGH OUR SIEVE

Hunting a cool place in extremely hot weather is 'overwork.'

Don't worry about the heat. Think how the poor thermometer must feel.

When a girl is long on shapeliness no man objects that she be short on skirts.

Here and there is found a man who is tickled and delighted to get back into harness after vacation.

The news that sunburn may be cured with synthetic sunshine fills us with synthetic happiness.

A man doesn't have to buy a rattle for his baby if he has a sedan in which to take it for a ride.

There are thousands of hot weather don'ts, but what is the right thing to do?

Unless you feel good it is pretty hard to tell the doctor just how you feel. And if you feel good it isn't necessary to tell the doctor.

It doesn't pay a man to have more than one pair of good pants. He is always sure to put on the wrong pair first. That is his wife's view of the matter.

The Leavenworth Times says that a girl should always remember to her mother's credit that her father has changed a whole lot since she married him. A boy never needs any reminder to do his father credit. He always thinks him a good picker.

CHEAPER ICE CREAM.

Boston, July 11—Retail ice cream dealers were called on to reduce prices by the State Commission on Necessaries of Life today. The Commission said in a circular letter that it found it hard to understand why stores charged fifteen to twenty cents for mixtures that cost from three to five cents.

THE HEALTHY MAN HAS THE BEST CHANCE

Is Always Full of Life and Energy—Failures Are Weak and Bloodless.

Some men seem to have all the luck. If there are any good things going these men seem to get them. If they are business men they are successful; if they are workmen they get the foreman's job. They have the power of influencing people.

The same is true of women. Some have the charm that makes men seek them out, others are neglected. But this is not luck. It is due to a personal gift—vitality. Men and women of this sort are never weak, puny invalids. They may not be big, but they are full of life and energy. The whole thing is a matter of good blood, good nerves and good health. Everyone would wish to be like this and the qualities that make for vitality and energy are purely a matter of health. By building up the blood and nerves, sleeplessness, want of energy, weakness of the back, headaches and the ineffectual sort of presence which really comes from weakness can be got rid of. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have made many weak, tired men, virgins, and many pale dejected girls and women, rosy and attractive, by improving their blood and toning up their nerves. If you are weak, low-spirited or unhealthy try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and note their beneficial effect.

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Meeting Postponed.

There was not a quorum last night and so the meeting of the Board of Trade had to be postponed. It will probably meet in October.
