Advertising is News

WITHOUT ADVERTISEMENTS this paper would not be as interesting to you, because the information about goods for sale in the stores is news—just that.

Many people read newspapers as much for their advertising columns as they do for other news.

This is particularly true at this time of the year.

Stores are now advertising Spring Wearing Apparel and a host of things that are bought for household use, incident to spring cleaning.

Think of the money that will be spent by women for spring clothing. The new frocks, hats, shoes, lingerie, corsets, gloves, sweaters, neckwear, light wraps and blouses that will be bought.

The same is true of men's buying. Think of the suits, light top coats, hats, shirts, collars, ties, gloves, socks, shoes—the sporting goods and the incidental wearing apparel bought for golf, tennis and so on.

Think of the new things that will be bought for spring cleaning and home convenience at this time. The vacuum cleaners, carpet sweepers, brooms, gas and electric heaters, ranges, washing machines, paints, varnishes, floor wax, cleansing fluids, curtains, upholstery, garden and porch furniture, lawn mowers, garden tools, etc.

Think of the lighter foods coming into use. Cereals, fruits, salads.

All these new demands are incident to the changing season, and they all are Trade Stimulating.

People feel livelier at this time and consequently loosen up their purse strings.

The opportunity for local merchants to get over effective Local Advertising News at this time is so evident that it needs no emphasis.

ANTI-BEER BILL ATTACKED
IN THE U.S. SENATE

Washington, July 13—Senator Lodge, in a speech against the Campbell-Willis "Anti-Beer bill," so-called which is designed to prohibit the use of beer for medicinal purposes and which puts certain restrictions on the sale of alcohol for medicinal purposes, gave his views generally on the situation which has developed in Massachusetts and throughout the country under the Federal prohibition law.

This is the first occasion on which Senator Lodge has discussed National prohibition in the Senate and his views were listened to with more than the interest given latterly in discussions on this subject.

At the outset Senator Lodge questioned the constitutionality of the proposed amendment to the Volstead act.

"I think, in the first place," he said "there is some very reasonable doubt about its constitutional amendment refers to 'beverage purposes' and we all know that beverage means drinking, whether it is water or wine. It seems to me that to include something purely medicinal within the words 'beverage purposes' clearly intended here to cover intoxicating drinks, is going rather beyond the limits of the amendment. The object of medicine is not drinking but for its curative properties, or for hygienic purposes.

Attack on Medical Profession.

"The second objection to it, and, to my mind, the controlling objection is the attack it involves upon the medical profession and upon druggists. It is assumed that they will abuse their privileges and violate the law. If they abuse their privileges and violate the law there is abundant law to deal with them, as we should deal with any other violators of the law, but to assume that they will all violate the law unless restrained by statute seems to me intolerable."

Mr. Lodge at this point presented a protest against the bill signed by 236 physicians and surgeons of Massachusetts, the names of many of whom he said, were well-known to him. Continuing he said:

"It seems to me this is an unwarranted attack upon a great and noble profession and also upon a widespread and absolutely necessary business of high standing.

Will Encourage Violation.

"My third reason for opposing this bill is that such drastic legislation will not help the enforcement of the law, but will encourage violation. The law as it stands is difficult of enforcement in many parts of the country. The dockets of our United States courts are blocked with these cases.

"Massachusetts is not a very large State territorially but to bring a man 150 miles across the State to get him before a United States judge to be fined $10 for violation of the act seems to me a monstrous system.

"We shall either have to multiply district judges, or else establish a system, if we can, resembling magistrate's courts to deal with these cases in the first instance. It is going to be impossible to carry on the business of the United States courts where there is this block owing to the pressure of the liquor cases.

Acquittal Almost Invariable.

"Moreover, when these cases get before the juries, there is almost invariably an acquittal, and that is not a wholesome condition of affairs. The successful enforcement of a law must depend largely on the great body of public opinion behind it, and if the great body of public opinion regards a law not only with hostility but with the belief that it is unjust that violations of it are venial offenses, it is a very unnatural and wrong situation. Therefore, to make the law continually more drastic and to extend it from bootleggers and evaders of the law to physicians, surgeons, hospitals and all druggists only increases the difficulties of which I have spoken.

"I do not think that my State differs materially from any other of our densely populated States, with large cities and great industrial populations, but I noticed the other day in the report of the chairman of the Parole Board of Massachusetts that he says: 'At the State Farm in Bridgewater the number jumped from 238 to 338. Prison authorities hold bootlegging to be responsible for this boom in business at Bridgewater which seldom had more on its hands in the days before prohibition.'

ANTI-VICE CRUSADE ON

Boston, Mass., July 14—An anti-vice crusade is being waged by the Boston police. There was a raid Monday night under the direction of Capt. Dailey of the Lagrange st. station and Sgt. Harvey, when 12 women were arrested at the Tremont Hotel on the charge of being idle and disorderly. They were arraigned in the Municipal Court yesterday before Judge Duff and each pleaded not guilty. The trials went over to July 20 and 21.

The crusade will include raids on

SINN FEIN AND BOLSHEVISM

Lawrence, July 14—About 1,000 Orangemen from many sections of New England came here for the annual celebration of the anniversary battle of the Boyne. A parade in the forenoon was followed by a picnic in the afternoon at Merrimack Park. There were sports for men, women and children. Dancing was also enjoyed.

There were several speakers, including State Grand Organizer Moses G. King, of Portland, Me., James Ray of Boston, a past supreme master, and president of the Ulster League of North America, Inc., and Supreme Grand Chaplain Rev. Gordon Tucker, of Dover, N. H.

Mr. Ray said he accepted the challenge of the Sinn Fein which had thrown down the gauntlet. He declared "Sinn Fein and Bolshevism are synonymous terms." He predicted that Ulster would remain British.

TROOPS READY FOR STRIKE DUTY

Concord, N. H., July 14—Gov. Albert O. Brown has ordered two companies of State troops to be held in readiness to go to Berlin and Franklin where serious situations have developed in the strike of the International Paper Co. workers, due to the company taking strike breakers to these centres.

Action by the Governor followed an extended conference with Governor Brown at the State House by Mayor D. N. Whittaker of Franklin, who reported as to conditions attending the strike in his city of paper mill workers.

The Athlete's
for Sprains and Bruises

THE sprains and bruises encountered in sport vanish with the application of Minard's Liniment. This fact is confirmed by the following letter received from W.E. McPherson, Secy. Armstrong High School Baseball Club:

"Since the start of the Baseball season we have been hindered with sore muscles, sprained ankles, etc., but just as soon as we started using Minard's Liniment our troubles ended. Every athlete should keep a bottle handy. This letter is only one of the many we have received from well-known athletes.

IMPROVED
TRAIN SERVICE

WOODSTOCK - AROOSTOOK

Effective after June 26th Canadian Pacific trains 153 and 154, now operating St. Stephen to Woodstock and return, will be extended to run as far north as Aroostook. Train 154 will leave Aroostook at 4.10 a.m. Eastern Standard and run through to McAdam making connection at that point with all trains east and southbound. Returning train 153, connecting at McAdam with all evening trains will leave Woodstock at 9.00 p.m. and arrive Aroostook at 11.20 p.m.

This service will be of great benefit to the travelling public generally, and more particularly to those located at points north of Woodstock up to now be able to make trip to St. John, Fredericton, St. Stephen, St. Andrews, or other points in province and return the same day.

Mixed trains 155 and 156, which carry passengers between Woodstock and Aroostook have been cancelled.

2000 YEARS AGO

the fighting Gladiators of ancient Rome healed their wounds and sores with rare herbal oils and balms. These are said to have knitted the damaged tissues together in miraculous fashion.

Though the highly-prized secrets of those precious healers were lost with the fall of Rome itself, the introduction of the great herbal balm Zam-Buk, has furnished their true successor. It is so marvellously like them in action.

The soothing and healing touch of Zam-Buk is to-day known the world over. Wherever there is a Cut, Burn or Scald, a Festering or Poisoned Sore, a patch of Eczema, Salt Rheum, Pimples or Rash, Zam-Buk ends the trouble once and for all. The same with Ulcers, Ringworm, and Piles.

Nothing else known to Science performs such marvellous healing, or dispels disease from the tissues so thoroughly as Zam-Buk does. This is due to its pure herbal character and origin. Its absolute freedom from the animal fats and minerals found in present-day ointments is another valuable feature.

With production costs at high-water mark, the price of Zam-Buk remains at 50 cents. At the old price you still have the same high standard of curative and healing value increased world-wide demand allows this.

All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. or 3 boxes for $1.25. Trial Sample FREE if 1c. stamp (for return postage) accompanies application.
