PRINCE ALDEEN WON FROM BINGEN THE GREAT IN 2.14

Good Racing at Calais Yesterday—Lucky Baldwin Winner of 2.24 Mixed Race

Calais, Me., Sept. 2.—The harness racing events in the opening day of the Calais fair were the 2:14 trot and pace and the 2:24 trot and pace, with a purse of $250 in each. There were four starters in each event with four divisions of the purse to contest for and each heat was warmly contested. Prince Aldeen won the 2:14 race after Bingen the Great had captured the first heat and Lucky Baldwin garnered the 2:24 class in one, two, three order although he was chased from the start by Weary Willie, the finish being close and as a result of winning the second heat, his mark dropped from 2:31½ to 2:20½.

In the 2:14 event the field was well bunched during the greater part of the time and the finishes were decidedly close. A collision occurred between Oflanagan and P K on the home stretch in the deciding heat but the sulkies separated before damage resulted.

Owner Gaffner of the Boston Braves is out with a hard rap on President Lynch and his staff of National League umpires. Gaffner claims that the Braves have been given the worse of it at the hands of the umpires all season.

::: SPORTS OF ALL KINDS :::

Twenty-two players in the National and sixteen in the American League are battling for .300 or better.

Max Carey of the Pirates, leads the run-getters and is second in the list of base-stealers in the National League.

Houck of the Athletics, Boehling of Washington, and Demaree of the Giants, have proved to be the class among the young pitchers of the season.

Since his return to the big show, Guy Finn, the former New York-Rochester player, has done some remarkable work for the Boston Braves.

The Red Sox have fallen down badly in their batting this season. Tris Speaker is the only member of the champs who is hitting in the .300 division.

Jake Daubert of the Superbas, is the real leader of the National League team. Jake is also putting up a fancy article at the first station.

Catcher Ivy Wingo is not only putting up a splendid article for the Cardinals, but seems to get rare enjoyment out of his work behind the bat.

Bob Bescher of the Cincinnati Reds, and Heine Zimmerman of the Cubs, have agreed to accompany the Giants on the world's tour of the Giants and the Red Sox.

Milan and Moeller of the Washington team, are leading the base-stealers in the major leagues. The pair of speeders have pilfered over 100 sacks between them.

Fifty-eight home runs and each circuit smash good for five pounds of smoking tobacco, is a sample of the "hits that pay" on the Philadelphia National League grounds this season.

The Philadelphia Nationals have produced the greatest bunch of heavy hitters of the season. Had the Phils been as strong in the box as they were in stick work, they would have romped home a winner.

Bobby Veach of the Detroit Tigers, and Duffy Lewis of the Red Sox, are great throwers. Standing at the home plate in Detroit recently, both players heaved the ball over the left field fence into the street.

Boston will have PRO HOCKEY IN 1914

(Boston Globe)

Professional ice hockey will be one of the winter attractions in Boston. Manager Walter M. Lougee of the Boston Arena will attend a meeting in Cleveland next Saturday for the purpose of forming a circuit of professional hockey teams. According to the present plans, professional teams of New York, Syracuse, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Houghton, Mich, will constitute the American Hockey League. The league will undoubtedly be affiliated with the National Hockey Association of Canada, which controls the professional game in that country.

Two or probably three amateur teams will also represent this city this season and a schedule is under preparation. The Harvard team has arranged to play all its home games at the Arena Rink.

HOBE FERRIS RELEASED

St. Paul, Sept. 1.—Hobe Ferris, utility infielder for the local team of the American Association, today was given his unconditional release. He will leave tonight for his home at Providence. Ferris' release followed the addition of McKechnie to the team.

LADY WANETKA
SOLD FOR $12,500

Hartford, Sept. 1.—Walter Cox this morning sold the two-year-old trotter Lady Wanetka, 2:23½, to John L. Dodge of Middletown, N. Y., for $12,500.

This filly is in all of the futurities, but as long as Peter Volo holds form, second money appears to be all her ability to trot in 2:10 will get her this season.

Her new owner regards her as the best thing in sight for the three-year old stakes. She is a daughter of Peter the Great and was bought at auction last fall for $4900 by John R. Farnum of Reading, Mass., who owned her until Cox turned her over for the handsome profit today.

WORLD'S NEWS IN SHORT METRE

Times canvass of bankers in south and west shows general demand for modification of Currency Bill. Congress said to be impressed.

BANGOR BASEBALL CLUB HAS DEFICIT ON SEASON'S PLAY

Backers of Team Will Make up Amount—Bangor Likely to Have Baseball Next Year

The Bangor Commercial says:

While it is not generally known, there is a deficit on the part of the Bangor team of about $1,000 for the season and this deficit must be met. The directors of the baseball association have pledged themselves to pay the deficit and it is to aid them that the team played the Labor Day games.

It is hoped that some arrangement can be made whereby the money may be paid back to those who put it up. The players will receive their full pay, all bills must be paid and the season will end with a clean slate.

Bangor also has the satisfaction of knowing that its team acted in true sportsmanlike manner and that there have been several good sports behind it.

The liberal way in which Bangor has supported a baseball league this season indicates, according to one of the directors, that the town likes baseball and he says that there is no reason why Bangor cannot have baseball next year.
