SAW A BEAR.

Mr. Stanley Fogess of this city, had an exciting experience while out hunting in the Stanley woods a few days ago. He was travelling along slowly through a thicket and on hearing a noise he glanced around and beheld a large bear coming towards him. The bear caught sight of him at the same time and it once swerved from its course and sought to get out of sight as quickly as it could. Recovering from his surprise Mr. Rogers raised his rifle and fired but failed to stop his bearship, although he thinks he may have wounded him.

CHANGES ON THE BRIDGE

As a result of the return of Lieut. Col. McLeod, the Tory Chieftain, from the Old Country the following changes have taken place on the highway bridge job.

Caretaker and Honorary Captain W. H. Jonah returns to duty.

Traffic Manager and Lieut. McElvany is promoted to night watchman with temporary rank of Captain.

Night watchman James Bird retires from the service.

It might be said by way of explanation that Mr. Bird, who is a Liberal in politics, received his appointment during the Colonel's absence in Europe.

TO ATTEND
FAMILY REUNION
IN BOSTON

Deputy Sheriff Timmins Leaves for Boston This Evening---To Meet Relatives He Has Not Seen for Twenty-one Years

Deputy Sheriff J. F. Timmins, accompanied by Mrs. Timmins, will leave tonight for Boston, where they will attend a reunion of the Timmins family. They expect to return on Wednesday next.

The deputy sheriff expects to meet members of his family whom he has not seen for twenty-one years. One brother and five sisters are to meet him at Boston and of these three are upwards of seventy years of age so that it is unlikely that a reunion will take place again.

A brother and a sister are residing in Boston, two sisters in North Dakota, one in Seattle and one at Fredericton Junction. Those who are living in the Western States the deputy sheriff, who is the youngest of the family, has not seen since his return home from the West twenty-one years ago.

DEAD GAME SPORTS

Messrs. H. J. Jones, Thomas C. Lane and Adam Schmidt of Newport, R. I., returned yesterday from a hunting trip to Little River. Mr. Schmidt shot a moose with a fairly good head while a bear and deer fell before Mr. Lane's unerring aim. It was their second trip to the Little River country this season, and their report having had a very pleasant outing.

Mr. George Leavitt of Bangor, Me., is at the Queen.

Miss Helen Mowatt to Wed Seattle Professor Whom She Met on Ocean Voyage---Marriage to Take Place Christmas

Friends in this city recently received word of the approaching marriage at Montreal of Miss Helen Mowatt, eldest daughter of the late Rev. Dr. A. J. Mowatt, for some years pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian church in this city, and afterward pastor of the Erskine Presbyterian church at Montreal. The news has been received with keen interest, as Miss Mowatt formerly resided here and has many friends in the city.

Miss Mowatt's engagement is attended by the elements of romance. During the summer she spent some time in Europe and on the return voyage to Canada became acquainted with a gentleman from the State of Washington. The acquaintance soon ripened into love and before the voyage ended the two were engaged. The groom-to-be is a professor in the Washington State University at Seattle.

The wedding is to take place at Montreal during the Christmas recess of the University.

We will offer at the Williams' Specialty Store ladies' white vests, high neck and long sleeves, for 19 cents each.
