THISTLE PATCH

SOLD TO R. C. NEWTON
PRICE $7,500

Largest Price Paid for Green Pacer
in Recent Years--By Joe Patchen

Goshen, N.Y., Nov. 11—Thistle Patch, the fast green pacer by Joe Patchen, has been sold to R. C. Newton of Detroit, and will be trained and raced by W. L. Snow in 1914. Thistle Patch, is by Joe Patchen, dam: Sara Ann Patchen, 2:05 1/4, etc.) by Thistle, 2:13. He is five years old. He was owned and trained by W. K. Dickerson of Goshen, and worked the Lexington, Ky., track this fall in 2:05 1/4, doing the last half in 1.01. The price paid was $7,500, the largest price for a green pacer in years.

'HEINE' ZIMMERMAN

DROPPED OUT OF FRATERNITY

New York, Nov. 11—"Heine" Zimmerman, the hard-hitting third baseman of the Chicago Nationals, is no longer a member of the Baseball Players' Fraternity. David L. Fultz, president of the players' organization, tonight confirmed a report to this effect, explaining that Zimmerman was dropped in July, after failure to pay his dues. Zimmerman owed for six weeks, said Fultz.

Others also financially delinquent were notified that their names had been removed from the membership list, Fultz said, but they were reinstated after their applications were approved by the advisory board. Fultz attributed Zimmerman's attitude toward the fraternity as indifference, and not as meaning that he was hostile toward it.

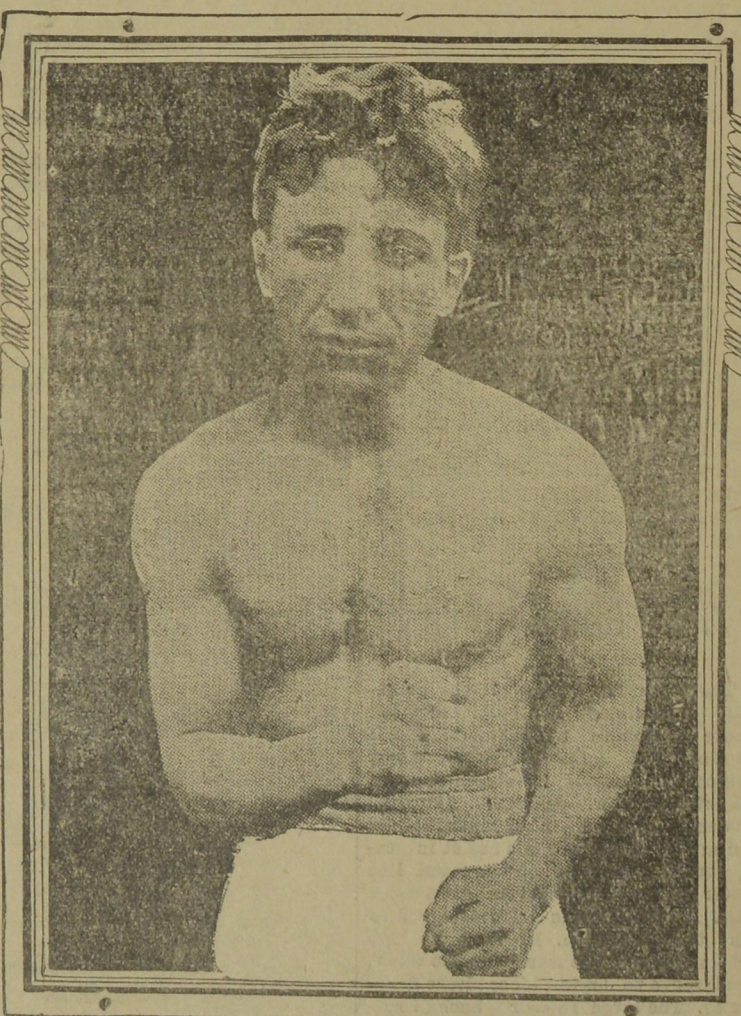

USED BRASS KNUCKLES IN FOOTBALL GAME

Hammond, Ind., Nov. 11—Rollo Anderson, recently arrived from England, a member of the Standard football eleven here, will not be able to play again this season, if he ever plays. In a match game yesterday with the Homewoods, Rollo wore gloves over brass knuckles.

A number of the Homewoods boys were laid out in the scrimmage, which baffled the officials. Bloody noses, black eyes at the end of the third quarter could not be accounted for.

Rollo was very busy. At the end of the game he took off his gloves and the brass knuckles were seen. The Homewoods, as one man jumped on Rollo, and he had to be taken home and attended to by a physician.

ACTIVITY AMONG MONTREAL HOCKEY CLUBS

Canadiens Have Signed Only Three Players---Marchant of Sherbrooke to be Goal-Keeper---Wanderers Have Their Team Except Art Ross and Harry Hyland

Montreal, Nov. 10—Manager Geo. Kennedy, of the Canadian Athletic Club, said this morning that so far only three players had signed their 1914 hockey contracts. They are Jimmy Gardner, Marchant and Frechette. "We are not worrying about the others," said Mr. Kennedy. They will come in time. We have offered them good salaries, and there is nothing to fear.

"As for Pitre, I feel sure he will sign a contract shortly. He does not want to leave Montreal, and therefore cannot be worked in a trade. We have made him a good proposition and everything should be all right.

"Laviolette has no kick coming either. He has been offered exactly the same salary he received last season. Then he was given a bonus, which made it seem different."

The Wanderers have used up a considerable number of hockey contracts in the past few days. Today it appears, Art Ross and Harry Hyland are the only hold outs.

Ernie Russell's signature was one of the most recent to be affixed to a contract.

Art Ross and Harry Hyland still protest against the $500 cut in salary. They were receiving $1,500 last year, and their contracts call for only $1,000 this season.

A conference will be held with the President of the Wanderers next week when efforts will be made to settle the matter.

Art Ross says "he will not play for less money than he received last season."

Jimmy Gardner, manager of the Canadian Hockey Team, is out on a scouting trip. He is after several good players for his team, Frenchmen preferred. Where he is, or who he is after, is not known, but a director of the club said this morning that he was after some good material.

It is very doubtful if Vezina, the Canadiens' star net-guardian, will play this winter. He has written Manager Kennedy several letters stating that he is not anxious to come to Montreal this winter, for he is building a house. Vezina was one of the two Canadian players to receive a raise in salary this season; but even that does not seem to tempt him. "If we really need Vezina," said Manager Kennedy, "he will come all right, but I am arranging with another goal-tender, who will, I believe, fill the bill."

This boy is Roy Marchant, of Sherbrooke. Marchant is considered a might good custodian.

Imbleau, of Renfrew, is another player who would like to throw in his lot with the Canadiens. He will probably be given a chance.

CHRISTMAS STAR BOUGHT

AT AUCTION FOR $3300

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 11—Fifty head of high-class, thoroughbred horses were sold at auction today, the first day of one of the most important sales held in the south in years. Christmas Star, a mare, brought the top price, Kenneth Alexander of Lexington, Ky., purchasing her for $3,300. Another mare, Starry Night, was sold for $2,000. The noted racers Jack Atkin and Sam will go under the hammer before the sale closes.

DIGGING FOR FOXES

Alaskans Dig Not Only Gold But Foxes Out of the Ground

Gold is not the only valuable thing which Alaskans dig out of the ground. As a matter of fact, those who dig solely for something else have been more fortunate financially. They dig for foxes.

Strange as this may seem to most folks, it is the plain truth. Before the fox traps are old enough to leave their dams white and Indian trappers dig into their holes and capture them. The live little foxes are more profitable than the furs taken from grown animals.

A steamship of the Canadian Pacific Company arrived at Vancouver from Skagway with 126 cub foxes, valued at $100,000, or nearly $800 apiece on the average. The owner brought them for fox farms which were established in several Eastern states and in New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. One special lot of ten young black foxes was sold to a New York firm for $30,000.

Even more valuable than the black fox is the silver grey of Alaska. There is practically no limit to the price of its fur. A Montreal firm sold for $7,000 a boa and small muf of silver fox, and it was called by experts a "bargain price."

Within the necessity limits of demand for an article of luxury purely, it is evident that digging for foxes is more profitable than digging for gold. Also there is greater certainty of return for the effort.

Had Average of .339 in 150 Games
--Rochester Leads in Club Batting

The official batting averages of the International League were announced yesterday. Pipp of Providence, heads the list with .348. He played in only 14 games, however, and Simmons of Rochester, tops the regulars with an average of .339, secured in 150 games.

Fritz Maisel, the infielder secured by Frank Chance for the Highlanders, in 111 games batted for .283. Among the old Boston players is Hugh Bradley, formerly of the Red Sox. In Jersey City and Toronto he batted for .270. Purtell, also an ex-Boston American, connected for .306 in 134 games played with Jersey City. Dave Shean, formerly with the Braves, could bat for only .281 in 133 games for Providence. Zinn, who was with Stallings for a time, played 110 games for Rochester and batted for .287. Mike Donlin, in his 36 games for Jersey City, hit for .272. There was just 30 players in the league who batted for .300 or more.

Rochester led in club batting with .274, while the champion Newark team hit as a club for .273. The club batting for the other six teams was as follows:

Baltimore, .268.
Providence, .268.
Montreal, .263.
Buffalo, .260.
Toronto, .260.
Jersey City, .251.
