AFRAID THAT THAW MAY BE KIDNAPPED

Close Watch Being Kept on the Matteawan Fugitive at Colebrook--Many Canadian Sympathizers Hovering About in the Vicinity--Believed That Jerome is Trying to Engineer Some Coup--Legal Fight to Begin on Wednesday

Colebrook, N. H., Sept. 12--The protracted court battle denied Harry K. Thaw in Canada by his sudden deportation on Wednesday promises to be waged in the State of New Hampshire. His newly retained counsel hope to have a personal hearing before Governor Felker on the matter of extradition and, should extradition be granted, to carry the matter to the state Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus. Three of Thaw's attorneys, N. E. Martin of Concord, W. H. Olmstead of New York, and Merrill Shurtleff of Colebrook--hurried to the capital today.

Sheriff Hornbeck of Dutchess county, New York, wherein is located the Matteawan asylum from which Thaw made his sensational escape nearly a month ago, was en route here tonight with the requisition warrant signed by Acting Governor Glynn. As the document must first be laid before Governor Felker, the New York lawyers were chagrined at the sheriff's mistake in heading for Colebrook. Upon his arrival he, or some other representative of the state, was turned back to Concord.

Why Hornbeck started for this place was a mystery to William Travers Jerome, who has for three weeks been trying to get Thaw back to the asylum.

Wednesday next, according to Thaw's lawyers, they expect to have their hearing before Governor Felker. They estimate that three days will elapse before he can render a decision. If this is adverse they will apply at once for a writ of habeas corpus. Argument on this would likely be postponed for another week.

JEROME'S COUP.

This would mean days of weary waiting unless Jerome could engineer some coup. He has to mind now a plan instantly to seize the fugitive in case his deport on is ordered, thus blocking efficiency of the habeas corpus writ by concealing from the Thaw counsel the identity of the individual to whom Thaw would be given in charge. The writ would have to be directed against the prisoner's custodian at the time and if Jerome could work quickly enough and with sufficient secrecy his plan might be successful.

In view of the intention of fighting the case out at Concord, Thaw was not brought in court at Colebrook today, and it is probable that his hearing will be postponed again tomorrow and that on Monday he will be taken to the capital preparatory to the arguments for and against surrendering him to New York.

The chief arguments of his lawyers will be that New York seeks his extradition on a charge of conspiracy—a charge which they contend New York never purposes to try him on. They will contend that extradition in such circumstances is a subterfuge and that there are precedents to sustain them in this.

Thaw left his hotel room for out of doors but once today, to go to the barber shop. The sheriff and ten special guards accompanied him. Rumors of kidnapping would not down. The citizen of Coaticook who was denounced yesterday by Jerome as the leader of the anti-Jerome movement which resulted in his arrest on a charge of gambling, remained in Colebrook today in spite of the ill-feeling his presence has engendered. He whizzed around in a motor car a good part of the day and this fact prevented Thaw from being taken for an airing this afternoon.

ALL KINDS OF RUMORS.

The sheriff had agreed to accompany the prisoner on a ride and Thaw and his lawyers were about to climb into the machine when the report spread that two cars bearing Canadians were stationed half a mile or so out of town toward the Canadian frontier. There has been so much feeling shown in the Thaw matter by the Canadians and so many of them have trailed after him here that Jerome put his feet down on the motor trip at once. Through his detective aid, John Lanyon of New York, he impressed the sheriff with the inadvisability of such liberty for the prisoner and Thaw returned disappointed to his room.

Thaw's lawyers one and all denied knowledge of any such plan and repudiated any intention of resorting to "strong arm" work. Mr. Jerome on his side, said he was just as anxious to avoid anything irregular in connection with New York State's endeavors. Thaw, himself, it is understood, has refused two offers to aid him in another break for liberty.

Premier Railway Security Has Had Twelve Pt. Rise This Week

Other Stocks on the New York and Montreal Lists are Showing up Well

New York, Sept. 13--The heavy buying of stocks yesterday was supplemented by still heavier purchases during the short session today. The prices have reached the highest levels they have touched for some time.

The active stocks, like Union and C.P.R., were easily the leaders, the strength of these stocks reflecting throughout the whole list.

Evidently there has been a heavy realizing of the shorts, combined with new buying. The market seems to be gradually led into a very strong position. The undercurrent has been strong for some time. The stocks apparently have been accumulated by strong interests and the shorts have suddenly awakened to the fact that stocks are scarce.

STRATHCONA WILL NOT RETIRE

Veteran High Commissioner Will Remain at His Post

Borden Government Unable to Agree Upon a Successor--Many Applicants for the Post

Ottawa, Sept. 12--The officially announced desire of the government to have Lord Strathcona continue as Canadian High Commissioner at London for the present at least, means that original plans have been changed because of party complications in regard to appointing a successor. It is definitely known that Lord Strathcona had contemplated retirement from his onerous post early in the coming year. Intimations to that effect were received by the government some time ago. But when it came to definitely choosing a successor, Premier Borden found that he was up against trouble. Sir Hugh Graham, proprietor of The Montreal Star, is understood to be a persistent candidate for the office, and for obvious reasons he could not be offended.

Nor could Hon. Clifford Sifton's claims to the post be overlooked in view of his services in the last election. Also there were men both in and out of the cabinet whose ambitions pointed to the high commissionership and whose feelings would be hurt if they were passed over. Accordingly, Lord Strathcona has been asked and has consented to remain for a while yet the position which he has so long and ably filled.

BREEZY LETTER FROM LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

Atlantic City Bathers Are Very Fastidious --Woman Wearing Split Skirt Narrowly Escaped Being Mobbed--Transportation Companies Had a Busy Time on Labor Day--Seventy Thousand Pieces of Baggage Handled at One Terminal

(Special Correspondence)

New York, Sept. 13--The new city directory for the Boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx has just been issued. It is a quite respectably huge volume, containing about 580,000 names against 569,000 in last year's issue. Of course, the number of names contained in the directory does not give the slightest hint as to the number of persons living in these two boroughs. In the first place the directory contains many thousand names of persons not actually living in Manhattan and the Bronx, but merely working there. Furthermore it must be taken into consideration that only the names of grown-up persons are enumerated. Figuring that each name represents on the average a family of four the names in the latest directory would represent a population of about two millions.

ODD CREATURES ARE PLENTIFUL IN YORK COUNTY SAYS WRITER

Fredericton Correspondent in Morrissey's Organ Takes a Fall Out of "Old Man Pinder"---Says Mr. Morrissey Does Not Spend the People's Money on Himself and His Expenses are Less Than Those of Other Ministers

The North Shore Leader, the personal organ of Hon. John Morrissey publishes the following communication, which looks as if it originated from a source pretty close to the throne:

Fredericton, N. B., 9th, Sept.

Editor North Shore Leader,

Dear Sir:—

There are odd creatures in every county and village on the face of the globe, but there seems to be a greater number in York county than any other in New Brunswick. Jonathan Oldbuck, in our county, seems to have the weight of those people down to a gram; very light weights too (owing to loss of backbone, I presume) judging from his letter in North Shore Leader last week.

Now, in our county the situation is somewhat similar. All after Morrissey; but he seems to be a hard chap to snare. The reason, I think is that he is not in the habit of spending the people's money on himself. He travels more than all the other members round New Brunswick—and his expenses do not amount to one-half theirs. Strange! Perhaps they are afraid to make a charge of extravagance, as he could turn the tables in no time. There was quite a howl set up when the Fredericton Bridge Span went out. "MUST BE REPLACED IMMEDIATELY, PEOPLE CAN'T AFFORD TO WAIT &c &c." Mr. Morrissey did what any sensible man would have done got the "Foundation Company" whose fame for bridge building is known all over the Dominion, to proceed with the work as soon as possible.

I am surprised at old man Pinder (if he is correctly reported in the Daily Mail) telling his Premier he had no backbone. Another good Tory in Chatham said Hazen had no backbone. What a number of spineless creatures walk the face of the earth in the forms of great men! I would suggest to Mr. Pinder that he undergo an operation and give a little of his SPINE, NERVE and BRAIN to those other members from this county, who are provoking him in this manner. If the operation proves successful, why he will then be a fit subject to run for the next Dominion election in the Conservative interests. The old government built the span that went out with the ice, perhaps he wants them to try the new one.

Don't worry Mr. Pinder, there is not a doubt but Morrissey can give an account of every dollar expended, and you may vouch for it that he will not pocket any of the funds either. Another mistake Mr. P. made was in calling the contractors Yankees. They all come from that bed of Toryism—Toronto—which fact should add to their prestige in Mr. P.'s estimation. Their headquarters is in Montreal. So Mr. P. should read up a bit before he runs for the Dominion.

WEEK END MARKET WAS A BUSY PLACE

Country Produce Was in Brisk Demand and Brought Good Prices

There was another rattling good market this morning and a lot of farm produce was disposed of at good prices. All of the available space about the City Hall was occupied by teams and a string of them extended down Queen street. Grocers and provision dealers are laying in big stocks for exhibition week, consequently the demand for produce was brisk.

Potatoes were plentiful and were disposed of for $1 per barrel. Apples were also quite plentiful and brought $1.50 to $2.50 per barrel.

There was a very good display of chickens and they were quickly bought up at $1 and $1.25 per pair.

Eggs were rather scarce, which means that they are being held over for the higher price which will prevail later on. They sold at thirty cents per dozen. Butter was in fair demand at 28 and 30 cents.

Other prices were as follows:
Lamb per quarter, $1 and $1.25;
turnips per barrel, 65 cents; carrots per barrel, $1.50; cucumbers, per dozen, 15 cents; corn per dozen, 15 cents; green tomatoes per peck, 25 cents; plums per peck, 75 cents;

LET LOOSE IN A BANK

"Alias Jimmy Valentine" Once a Burglar Proved His Trustworthiness

Coming to the Fredericton Opera House next Monday evening is the much heralded and widely talked of attraction, "Alias Jimmy Valentine" which has but lately left New York after two solid years of remarkable receipts and crowds on Broadway. Few plays have had as much popularity as "Jimmy," the clean cut ex-bank burglar who has reformed and is working in a banking house with the vaults open. The Klark-Urban Company bring the play here with a splendid company of players and a production in keeping with the high standard they have always maintained. The play is taken from one of O. Henry's short stories, "A Retrieved Reformation," and is written by Paul Armstrong in his straightforward manner. All special scenery and electrical effects are carried for the above play and no local settings will be used. High class vaudeville will be introduced between the acts, making a continuous performance. Seats on sale at Ryan's Drug Store.
