PREMIER HARA OF JAPAN IS STABBED TO DEATH BY A NINETEEN YEAR OLD YOUTH AT TOKIO

DIED AN HOUR AFTER THE ATTACK

Was a Gifted Statesman and Had a Long and Distinguished Career—Had Been Urged to Attend Disarmament Conference But Decided His Services were Needed Home

Tokio, Nov. 4—Premier Taskashi Hara was fatally stabbed in the breast today at the railroad station in Tokio. He died an hour after the attack. The assassin, who is nineteen years old and demented, was arrested.

Premier Hara has been premier of Japan since 1918 when he formed a cabinet after the fall of the Terauchi ministry, the Seiyu-Kai party of which he was a leader, taking control. The position of the premier and his party was confirmed by the general election in May 1920, that party securing a great majority.

The premier has had a long and distinguished political career. He was considered one of the world's leading statesmen.

A Dramatic Moment.

The assassination of Premier Hara comes at a dramatic moment when the Japanese delegation is assembling for the Washington conference, and when Japan is intensely interested in the international issues in which Premier Hara has until now taken such an important part.

He had been urged to head the delegation to Washington and for a time had the matter under consideration, but finally decided that his service would be better employed at home during the discussions at Washington.

Premier Hara frequently addressed the Japanese diet concerning the serious work ahead for Japan at Washington, and on October 6, he expressed the view that Japan's chief aim would be to put an end to race barriers. Soon afterwards he announced at a meeting of the government party that Japan was willing to compromise on the Shantung question which had long been a main subject of controversy.

BADLY HURT IN A MILL

Newcastle, Nov. 2—John Gratton, of Tabusintac, who is employed at the Stafford and Anderson mill at Ludlow was terribly crushed and injured in an accident recently and while few hopes of his recovery were held at first the latest reports are more encouraging some of his clothing caught in the driving shaft of the machinery at the mill and he was thrown round with the shaft through several revolutions breaking several bones and receiving severe injuries. He suffered much pain.

Yesterday he was brought to the Miramichi hospital at Newcastle and the report tonight is that he is resting fairly easily and there is some hope that he may recover. He has a wife and five children.

Halloween was observed in the customary manner. While the usual spreading of wire in the streets and carrying away gasket occurred there was no special damage done and the joyous made no special demonstration.

HON. MR. KING GOING WEST

Ottawa, Nov. 4—When the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King leaves Ottawa on Monday night for his western trip he will be accompanied by Col. Andrew T. Thompson, K. C., former M. P. It is expected that western men will join them here and there at the various meetings arranged from Winnipeg to the coast.

THANKSGIVING OBSERVATION TO BE QUIET

No Sporting Events Except Trap Shooting—Services in Some Churches—Many Out of Town.

The prospect is that Fredericton will have a rather quiet observation of Thanksgiving Day on Monday next. No football matches are scheduled contrary to general usage. The recently organized Fredericton Gun Club will have trap-shooting in the afternoon at its grounds, Brick Kiln Road. A good program of events is announced and it is probable that the crack shots of the city and vicinity will cause havoc among the clay pigeons.

The day will be marked by special services in some of the churches.

Although the weather has been most inclement many have taken the opportunity to spend a long week-end elsewhere and there are numerous Frederictonians who will spend their Thanksgiving Day out of the city. For those at home there will be the picture theatres and family gatherings as the chief amusements.

WOMAN SHOT BROTHER IN LAW

Boston, Nov. 4—Mrs. Marguerite Parquinino, 25, of 100 Gore st. was arraigned shortly before noon yesterday in the 3rd District Court, East Cambridge, before Judge Edward A. Counihan on a charge of murder. After pleading not guilty she was held without bail for a hearing on Nov. 12. Mrs. Parquinino was sent to the East Cambridge jail.

The police charge that Mrs. Parquinino shot her brother in law, Pasquale Renna, 39, a laborer employed by the Boston Woven Hose and Rubber Company. The man died in the police ambulance of Station 3 while on the way to the Municipal Hospital. Yesterday morning Renna went to Mrs. Parquinino's house and asked her for $350 which he said she borrowed from him to repair a house in Revere.

An argument arose in which, police say, the woman grabbed a razor and a revolver out of the man's pockets and shot him four times. Three bullets entered his body on the right side and another went into his head, slightly over the eye.

Neighbors notified the police and the man was found unconscious on the floor.

Mrs. Parquinino, after being taken to the station told the police that her brother in law had been paying her attentions, much against her will. She said that yesterday morning he told her that she must go away with him and then put his arms around her, biting her while in this position.

No Mail On Monday.

Monday next being Thanksgiving day and a public holiday the Daily Mail will not be published.

WILL HOLD A CONFERENCE WITH ULSTER PREMIER; BONAR LAW IS HELPING

Ex-Government Leader in the House Will Try to Pacify the Extreme Unionists—British Representatives and Sinn Feiners Said to Be in Accord—Sir James Craig Called to London.

London, Nov. 4—Developments in the negotiations toward an Irish settlement now are understood to hinge on the conferences which Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, will have in the next few days with Mr. Lloyd George and Sir Edward Carson.

A special meeting was held by the Ulster cabinet in Belfast today prior to the departure of Sir James Craig for London. He will spend the week-end with his son at Eton, meeting the prime minister, it is expected, on Monday.

SINN FEINERS IN ACCORD

At Sein Fein headquarters today, it was announced that the British representatives and the Sinn Feiners had reached a measure of accord that promised a solution of all issues and that Ulster was as great a stumbling block in the path of the negotiations from the government's point of view as from that of the Sinn Fein.

Lesmond Fitzgerald of the Sinn Fein party, in a statement, this afternoon definitely denied a number of reports published in London newspapers relative to points on which an agreement is said to have been reached by the conferees. He declared untrue rumors that the Sinn Feiners had accepted the principle of Dominion status and British control of Irish ports and had agreed to contribute from the Irish treasury to the imperial treasury.

He refused to disclose any points which have been agreed upon thus far but it is said in other Irish quarters that the determination of the Sinn Feiners not to accept the principle of allegiance to the British crown remains unshaken. It is intimated in these quarters, however, that a formula has been agreed upon, bridging that difficulty, whereby Ireland would not be designated as a British dominion but as an "associate nation." It is further said that a solution of the Ulster problem must come, if it comes at all, through Ulster's recognition of the principle of unity in Ireland.

BONAR LAW IN THE GAME

A. Bonar Law conferred with Premier Lloyd George last night and is taking a hand in the effort to reach a settlement of the Irish question.

The Daily Mail, in discussing Mr. Law's interview with Lloyd George, said today that he would, if necessary, bring independent influence to bear upon the extreme Unionists with the view to achieving a complete agreement.

PORTLAND AS A WINTER PORT

Portland Nov. 2—Grain continues to arrive daily in large quantities from Canadian points over the Grand Trunk Railway and the big No. 2 elevator was practically full last night almost to the roof the No. 1 building taking in grain yesterday for the first time this season. Three steamers are now on the way here to load grain, two of them being expected to death here during the week. No additional steamers have been reported this week as coming to load grain but it is believed quite a number of charters have been made the names of the boat to be given later.

THE PREMIER AT MONTREAL

Montreal, Nov. 4—The Windsor Hall was crowded to capacity this afternoon when Premier Meighen made the first of two addresses in this city. The great majority of those in the audience were women.

The premier in opening referred to the fact that women had been granted the franchise. He had never felt that any great credit was due the government for this. It was done "not as an act of generosity but of justice." He remarked that all the opposition to granting women votes in the house of commons came from the followers of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King.

Good For Sports.

Today's snow fall is likely to improve the condition for big game hunting and a number of local nimrods are intending to spend Thanksgiving day in the woods.

FIRST POWER TRANSMITTED

Chatham, Nov. 4—The transmission line from Bathurst to the Fraser Company's pulp mill here has been completed. The power was turned on Wednesday but through trees falling across the line the power did not reach here. Today at 2.30 p.m. the obstructions having been removed the power was again turned on and was received at the mill here.

The Fraser Company are running their wood room tonight under electric power.

The transmission line to the town of Newcastle is not yet completed but will be ready in two or three days.

RIDEOUT'S CASES IN THE COURTS

Sydney, N. S., Nov. 5—Several appeals from Rideout liquor convictions in the police court will likely be tried by Judge Duncan Finlayson at the coming civil session of the county court which opens here on Tuesday morning. These cases have been accorded a prominent place on the court docket, which was completed today by George D. Muggah, prothonotary. In all there are 20 cases on the docket and Judge Finlayson will be kept busy for some time hearing them. The docket follows:

Bridge Party.

Mrs. W. D. Gunter entertained at a Bridge of twelve tables yesterday afternoon Mrs. R. W. McLellan and Mrs. Ralph Gunter were the prize winners. Mrs. Gunter will also be Hostess at a large Tea this afternoon.

A MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING CASE IN COUNTY OF RESTIGOUCHE IS NOW BEING INVESTIGATED

PROTEST BY MT. ALLISON IS POSSIBLE

Talk of it Before Team Left for Sackville—Claim Spectator and Ferguson Collided.

It is reported today that the Mt. Allison rugby football team before it left for Sackville this morning was talking of a protest of the game played here yesterday in the intercollegiate league series. The basis of the protest is that Ferguson the right wing half back late in the second period collided with a spectator near the touchline and that Referee Allen should have awarded a try. The U. N. B. contention is that the collision occurred after the Mt. Allison man had run into touch. Referee Allen at the time gave Mount A. a free kick.

WOMAN BANDIT USED SANDBAG

New York, Nov. 5—I hate to do this but I am driven to it," said a woman bandit today just before hitting Ray Nafial a mediste on the head with a sandbag.

MAN WAS SHOT NEAR CHARLO

Was Thought at First That he Had Been Mistaken For a Moose, but Circumstances Indicate That There May Have Been Foul Play—Inquest Being Held.

Campbellton, Nov. 4—It will be remembered that Joseph Roy of Charlo was very mysteriously shot and killed at the edge of a lake back of Charlo late in September. At first it was thought that he had been shot in mistake for a moose but circumstances have arisen which point to possible murder and an investigation of all the circumstances is now under way. The Campbellton Graphic understands that there are many points of evidence pointing to a certain man, and developments are expected.

Mr. Roy and P. W. Hamilton were hunting near the lake when the shooting took place. Although Mr. Hamilton called loudly for help no one responded although the shot was fired at only between one and two hundred yards distant.

When Coroner Ellis visited the scene of the shooting, the foot prints of the man firing the shot were found at the edge of the lake. From that point a man standing at the edge of the lake in the afternoon, could not possibly be mistaken for a moose.

It is hoped that if a crime has been committed nothing will be left undone to bring the guilty party to justice.

The First Account.

The following was published in the Telegraph of October 1:

"The fourth hunting fatality since Aug. 15 in New Brunswick is announced at Charlo. While looking over the game region on the edge of a lake region, Joseph Roy, of that village was shot by an unknown hunter and instantly killed.

"So far few details are known. Mr. Roy and a Mr. Hamilton were hunting moose. They were near a lake and thought they heard a moose, so Mr. Roy carefully made his way out of the fringe of bushes and weeds to the edge of the lake to get a better view when from the other side a shot rang out and Mr. Roy dropped in the shallow water, shot through the breast, and evidently died instantly. Who fired the shot is not known.

"The body has been taken to Charlo and an inquest will be held. "Mr. Roy leaves a family. He was an estimable resident of the village and industrious."

HATRED OF MILITARISM

New York, Nov. 3—Lord Lee of Fareham, First Lord of the Admiralty and a British delegate to the conference on the limitation of armament, said when he arrived yesterday that the moving spirit behind the meeting was a hatred of militarism.

"If said, "we all go there in a spirit not merely of hope and sincerity but of fixed determination to convert the Presidents lofty aspiration into a practical working agreement the war will not have been fought in vain."

FREEDOM GIVEN INTERNED MEN

Dublin, Nov. 5—It is announced that 10 prisoners in the Ballykinlar internment camp were liberated today.

While no reason was assigned for the release of the men, it was considered here as indicating that a general release of prisoners is not distant, and that their being turned loose might be a part of a general peace agreement.
