ANY WOMAN'S STRUGGLE FOR GOOD HEALTH QUICKLY REWARDED

A Simple Home Treatment
Now Advocated That Gives Fine Results.

When a woman's face grows haggard and pale, when she is tired all day and ready to cry when night comes, she ought to know something is wrong.

Putting off only make matters worse. The best advice we can give any sickly woman is to test out the following treatment.

At the close of every meal with a sip or two of water, take two chocolate-coated Ferrozone Tablets. This seems to be the best thing going for folks that are tired out, run-down and in need of a strengthening, building-up medicine.

Ferrozone's action aids the three principle functions of the body—digestion, assimilation, elimination.

By strengthening digestion it forms an abundance of rich, red blood—this gives good color.

By perfecting assimilation, Ferrozone supplies nutrition—this gives strength, vim, stability.

Elimination is assured because Ferrozone quickens the action of the liver kidneys and bowels—this guarantees the maintenance of vigorous health.

Ferrozone puts you on the right road—the one that leads to health.

Not a man woman or child needing blood vigor, endurance—not a person who is weak, nervous or sickly, not a person in ill-health who won't receive immediate help from Ferrozone.

As a tonic and restorative, as a health-bringer and body-builder, Ferrozone is unrivalled. It relieves because it feeds and nourishes, because it contains the elements that build up and strengthen. Try it yourself—sold everywhere in 50 cent boxes, 6 boxes for $2.50, or by mail from The Cattarhous Co., Kingston, Ont.

IN A RACE FOR DIVORCE

New York, Jan. 21.—A suit for divorce and a counter suit for the same relief between Harry Livingstone, owner of a clothing store and Mamie W. Livingstone, daughter of the late Samuel Wertheimer of Philadelphia, engaged the attention of a jury yesterday before Supreme Court Justice Whitaker.

Mrs. Livingstone who received a part of her father's $5,000,000 estate charges her husband with entertaining Miss Laura Arnold in his apartment at the Hotel Astor. She was accompanied to court by her sons, Milton 22 and Irving 13.

Livingstone in his counter suit charges that his wife took much interest in young soldiers for reasons that were not entirely patriotic. He names Major F. A. Webb, Harry Hunter, Louis Kahn, Herbert Grossman and others.

At the trial Mrs. Livingstone expected to offer the testimony of James Pagliuci, her husband's chauffeur. Pagliuci, however testified that he did not know what he was signing when he subscribed his name to an affidavit.

ALMOST DEADLY.

One of the young hopes was telling about the day's fight. "He was bigger than me," he said, "but I got the scissors on 'm, and—"

"What?" almost screamed the matter. "A son of mine attack a boy with a deadly weapon?"

PROVED GOOD FOSTER MOTHER FOR FOXES

(New York Evening Post.)

There are perhaps 10 or 12 of the famous fur farms of Alaska. One of them, situated in the Tannana valley a mile and a half from Fairbanks, consists of ten acres of cleared land, the greater part of which is covered with pens in which the animals live. From a distance the fox farm looks like a huge chicken yard with walls of woven wire and hencoops of various sizes inside. Each pen is 50 feet long, 8 feet wide and about 10 feet high.

The wire is of tough steel and is sunk about four feet in the ground, and then bent so that it runs inward under the ground for about two feet to prevent the foxes from digging out. At the top the wire has an overhang of two feet to prevent the captives from climbing over. Each pen has a kennel, the entrance to which is a chute or a wooden pipe a foot square.

Only one pair of foxes live in each pen. They are very timid and must be handled carefully. Most of the fox farmers will not permit strangers to enter their property for fear they will frighten the animals. Some foxes, however, become so tame that strangers can handle them.

The fox babies are the size of kittens, and have long bushy tails, little sharp noses, and eyes that sparkle like jet. One litter of foxes was, it is said, mothered by a cat. There were three of the babies, each of which, when grown, was worth from $500 to $1,000. Their mother was so nervous that the farmer feared she might kill her young; and so he had them taken away from her and given to the cat in place of her kittens. The cat had adopted them and played with them as if they were really her own. For such emergencies it is necessary to have cats about a fox farm.

Because he would not pay a high price for a cat one man in eastern Canada lost five little foxes that might have proved worth a small fortune. The fox mother had died and the owner of the only cat in the vicinity declined to sell her for less than $500. The unreasonable price angered the fox farmer and he refused to pay it.

The foxes are fed with salmon, moose meat, horse meat, rabbits, carrots and turnips. A common feed is rice and rabbit cooked together in a stew. One farm feeds 16 rabbits and 15 pounds of rice a day to 52 foxes. The stew is given cold morning and evening. The foxes come out of their kennels, seize the food, carry it inside with them and afterward return for more.

The land, kennels and machinery of the farm near Fairbanks cost $18,000 and the breeding animals $37,000. There are always about 200 animals foxes, martens and others, and only two men are needed to care for them.

ADVERTISING INCREASES THE HEIGHT OF A MOUNTAIN

HOW MANY PEOPLE know the names of the highest mountain peaks in the world?

FOR INSTANCE, "Kinchinjinga" is the name of one of the highest mountains in the world. It is 28,156 feet high.

PIKE'S PEAK is only 14,108 feet high—but it gets credit for being higher because it is advertised.

ADVERTISING will bring many unknown things into prominence during the coming years.

NOW IS THE TIME, when so many articles and commodities of trade are flooding already overstocked markets, for the man with goods to sell to let the people know all about it.

THE BEST WAY to let the people know is to advertise in the newspapers.

YOU HAVE SEEN THIS in the Daily Mail—let the public know what you have to sell through the advertising resources of this newspaper.
