

HE NOW BELIEVES IN "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Because He No Longer
Suffers With Headaches

TAYLORVILLE, ONT.

"I was a sufferer from Fearful Headaches for over two years. Sometimes, they were so bad that I was unable to work for days at a time. I took all kinds of medicine, was treated by physicians, but yet the Headaches persisted.

A short time ago, I was advised to try "Fruit-a-tives" and I did so, with most confess, very little faith. But after I had taken them for three days, my Headaches were easier and in a week they left me.

After I had taken a box of these tablets, my headaches were quite cured. My appetite was always poor and my stomach bad—and now my appetite is splendid and my digestion excellent.

I had become thin and weak from the constant Headaches but now not only have I been cured of all these awful Headaches, but my strength is growing up once more and I feel like a new man."

BERT CORNELL.

Take "Fruit-a-tives", 50c a box, 6 for $2.50—trial size, 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

A PERILOUS JOURNEY

Missionaries Make a Dangerous Trip
in Northern Canada

Bishop Stringer of the Yukon once had quite a perilous journey from the mouth of the Mackenzie River to Dawson City. He was accompanied by another missionary and an Indian guide, who fell sick. Eventually they were obliged to bring the Indian back to the camp of his people, and set out alone.

Winter came on two weeks earlier than usual that year, and the two missionaries were frozen in some distance to the west of the divide. They decided to go across the mountains by a pass and proceed overland to the Peel River, so they set out with four days' provisions, a pair of light blankets, and some spare moose skin moccasins, after first hanging up their canoe out of the damp. A fog enveloped the Rockies, and they missed the pass. Consequently they had four distinct ranges to climb in the wind and fog, with the thermometer at times down to zero and below.

They traveled by compass, corrected by the North Star, the variation being the enormous difference of 45 degrees. Often they were forced to camp above the tree line on the slopes in the fog, cold, and wind, without fire and with but a light pair of blankets.

They eked out their food supplies by ptarmigan and rabbits supplied by the shotgun. The snow became so deep they were forced to stop and make snowshoes. They cut spruce saplings down into wands and steamed them into shape in their kettle. For webbing they filled them with an old fishnet, strings cut out from the uppers of their worn out moose moccasins and strips of blanket.

Twenty-eight days they were on that awful journey. Before they finished they had boiled and eaten their Eskimo sealskin boots. They struck the Peel River, fell in with a camp of Indians, and were saved. Bishop Stringer had lost fifty pounds on that trip. He rested at the fort for a little while, and then started home across country by dog-sled with an Indian. This time there were no mishaps.

Japan's Sacred Mountain

Fuji-yama, the famous sacred mountain of Japan, is an absolutely perfect mountain. It stands alone, and rises a superb cone crested with white. It is difficult to realize that it stands 12,000 feet high from the blue sea which edges its skirts, so gradual and perfect is its rise. Other things may be compared to this beautiful mountain, but undoubtedly it cannot be compared to anything; it stands supreme and alone, its own lovely, graceful self.

WAS TROUBLED WITH Weak and Dizzy Spells.

Heart Would Beat Something Awful.

Those feelings of weakness, those dizzy spells which come over people from time to time, are warnings that must not go unheeded.

They indicate an extremely weakened condition of the heart and a disordered state of the nerves. One dizzy spell may pass off, but eventually they will come frequently, and at the same time more serious.

Those who are wise will start taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills before their case becomes hopeless, for they have no equal for restoring the heart to its usual strength, and making the nerves firm and steady.

Mrs. Len. Kinney, Moose Mountain, N.B., writes:—"I was troubled with weak and dizzy spells, and my heart would beat something awful. I got so I had those spells every day. I got so I would try one medicine, and then another, but nothing did me any good until I got Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I can safely say they did me more good than anything I ever took, for I feel like a very different woman. My friends often ask me what I have been taking, and I always say 'Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.' I tell all my friends who say their heart troubles them, to take your pills."

Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ALLEGED DYNAMITERS UP FOR A HEARING

Harry W. Jones Arraigned Before United States Commissioner H. S. Young at Minneapolis--Is Secretary-Treasurer of the International Association of Structural Iron Workers--Was Implicated by The Confession of George L. Davis

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 5—Harry W. Jones, secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, was arraigned before United States Commissioner H. S. Young at the Federal Building today for a preliminary hearing on the charge of conspiracy to transport explosives illegally. The case attracted a great deal of attention owing to the fact that the case will probably have an important bearing upon the great dynamite conspiracy case and all the labor officials connected with it. The United States Grand Jury will convene here next week and it is understood that all the new evidence which has been brought to light since the arrest and confession of George Davis, alias George O'Donnell, in New York, will be submitted to the grand jury and that Davis will repeat his confession before the members.

According to the confession of George L. Davis, a union iron worker, who admitted to the authorities in New York that he had committed numerous dynamite outrages and destroyed many non-union structures, at the behest of Harry Jones, who succeeded H. S. Hockin as secretary-treasurer of the Iron Workers' Union Jones and other officials of the union were deeply implicated in the conspiracy. Some of the revelations made by Davis strongly implicate President Ryan, who was sentenced to seven years' imprisonment at the close of the great dynamite conspiracy case last year.

Davis stated in his confession that he had been chosen to kill Walter Drew, attorney for the National Erectors' Association in December, 1911, and also William J. Burns, the detective employed by Drew to unearth the dynamite conspiracy. He was to receive $5000 for killing Drew. It appears from the confessions of Davis that the arrest of the thirty-three officers of the Iron Workers' Union and their trial and conviction did by no means put a stop to their conspiracy against the Erectors' Association and that the work of dynamiting non-union structures was carried on as before, under the direction and with the knowledge of Secretary-treasurer Jones, President Ryan and other prominent officers of the labor organization.

Davis, according to his own statements, was in the employ of the union but was dissatisfied with the manner in which he had been treated. A short time before his arrest he was working in Pittsburgh, Pa., but had some trouble with the local delegate of the Iron Workers' Union over his failure to become a regular member of the local union. Davis had no union card and the local delegate refused to let him work unless he paid $26 initiation fee for becoming a member of the local union. Davis asked for time, which the delegate refused, and Davis left Pittsburgh in a huff. At that psychological moment Robert Foster, a Louisville detective, who had shadowed Davis, induced Davis to get even with the union by making an open confession of his share in the dynamiting outrages. Davis went to New York and there made his sensational confession which threw a new and startling light on the dynamite conspiracy and showed that the great conspiracy trial had not broken up the ring of conspirators.

THOUSANDS DO WORK ON THE ROADS

Raleigh, N.C., Nov. 5—Throughout North Carolina today, under the direction of the officials of each county, work was commenced to improve the roads of the state, following out the dictates of the proclamation of Governor Craig, setting aside today and tomorrow as North Carolina's good roads' day. The North Carolina executive set the example by donning overalls and personally helping in the work on the roads near his home. Reports from over the state indicate that fully 77,000 men and boys volunteered their services in the work of improving the highways.

CORK STATION

Cork Station, Nov. 4.—Our school is progressing under the efficient management of Miss McNeil of Durham Bridge.

The English Club Room was closed on Friday evening after a very pleasant season with a grand ball in honor of Miss Julia Johnson of Milltown, N. B., who was the guest of honor. Miss Johnson was speeding a few days of the hunting season in that vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Crowley tripped the light fantastic to the strains of Kennedy's orchestra. Mrs. Crowley served refreshments during the evening in her famous English style. Mr. and Mrs. Crowley are well known as loyal entertainers.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY

An eminent scientist, the other day, gave his opinion that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zam-Buk. Just think! As soon as a single thin layer of Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or a sore, such injury is insured against blood poison! Not one species of microbe has been found that Zam-Buk does not kill!

Then again. As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a sore, or a cut, or to skin disease, it stops the smarting. That is why children are such friends of Zam-Buk. They care nothing for the science of the thing. All they know is that Zam-Buk stops their pain. Mothers should never forget this.

Again. As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or to a diseased part, the cells beneath the skin's surface are so stimulated that new healthy tissue is quickly formed. This forming of fresh healthy tissue from below is Zam-Buk's secret of healing. The tissue thus formed is worked up to the surface and literally casts off the diseased tissue above it. This is why Zam-Buk cures are permanent.

Only the other day Mr. Marsh, of 101 Delorimier Ave., Montreal, called upon the Zam-Buk Company and told them that for over twenty-five years he had been a martyr to eczema. His hands were at one time so covered with sores that he had to sleep in gloves. Four years ago Zam-Buk was introduced to him, and in a few months it cured him. To-day—over three years after his cure of a disease he had for twenty-five years—he is still cured, and has had no trace of any return of the eczema!

All druggists sell Zam-Buk at 50c. box, or we will send free trial box if you send this advertisement and a 1c. stamp (to pay return postage). Address Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

A NUT GATHERING OF NUT GROWERS

Houston, Tex., Nov. 5—Between 600 and 700 members are in attendance at the annual convention of the National Nut Growers' Association which opened here today at the City Auditorium for a session to extend over three days. The convention was called to order by President C. A. VanDuzee and the members were welcomed by Governor Colquitt and by Mayor Ben Campbell. Responses were made by several delegates. President VanDuzee delivered his annual address and reports of the officers and other routine business filled the rest of the session. Many noted experts in culture are scheduled to deliver addresses and after the closing session on Friday the delegates will go to Wharton, Tex., by special train to visit the native pecan groves in that locality.
