TRANS-CANADA LIMITED

The Trans-Canada Limited—the popular Canadian Pacific train from Montreal and Toronto to Western Canada and Pacific Coast—now leaves Montreal at 5.00 P. M. daily, making the fastest time between terminals of any train in America.

Reaches Port William in thirty hours—Winnipeg in forty-two hours—Regina in fifty-three hours—Calgary in sixty-seven hours, and Vancouver in ninety-two hours.

Passengers from the Maritime Provinces, via St. John, have choice of two train connections, the early train leaving at 3.45 P. M. Eastern time, daily except Sunday, and later train at 6.25 P. M. every day.

The Trans-Canada is an all sleeping car train, carrying sleeping car passengers only, except between Montreal and Ottawa, where a limited amount of parlor car accommodation is available. All the equipment used is of the finest type, which includes through sleeping cars, dining car, and compartment observation car.

This train affords the biggest travel treat that it is possible for a transcontinental trip to contain. Passengers are able to see practically every major point of interest by daylight, including Banff and lovely Lake Louise. Whether on business or pleasure, this train combines every comfort and convenience possible.

For information, and the purchase of sleeping car accommodations, apply to local agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, or communicate with Mr. N. R. DesBrisay, District Passenger Agent at St. John, N.B.

ence of Premiers overseas the news considerably affected the stand of the Canadian delegate for fullest publicity, etc. The news of the governments overwhelming defeat has brought home to the Imperial authorities the fact that Premier Meighen and his government do not represent Canadian thought in their journeys overseas and while there are conferences on such things as Empire, naval, air and military defence, with Hon.
Hugh Guthrie sitting on a committee it has become evident to the authorities who are behind the conference that Premier Meighen cannot bind Canada to anything at the present time. Because of that, it is likely that the outcome of the conference will rather be expressions of pious hopes than anything more substantial.

The Exchange Scandal

The investigation into the exchange scandal has begun and it gives every promise, if allowed to develop as it should, of growing into the biggest scandal of the war and after-war period. While there are more than suggestions that "somebody higher up" is seriously involved, the commission investigating the scandal continues to receive names in secret and already some ten or a dozen people have been implicated by witnesses whose names have been withheld from publication by the commission or counsel for the government. Thousands of dollars of the people's money have been wrongfully paid out without any responsible officer of the government trying to keep any check on payments and there is plenty of evidence which pointed to continued loose handling of public monies, such as was prevalent during the war period.

The result of the commission's endeavors will not be known for some time. At present only the fringe of the frauds has been touched upon and the scandal seems like a snowball, growing bigger the farther it is roled. The evidence before the commission consists of a repetition of attempts to "pass the buck" and many attempts are being made to hang the blame on a couple of minor officials who were allowed to retain thousands of dollars in English currency in their office for as long as nine weeks before making any return to the Finance Department.

An Overworked Official

The official in charge of the department which is now being investigated apparently was so overloaded with work between running up to the House of Commons to advise his minister in putting through estimates and running back and forward to other officials of the department that he was unable to carry out his work as he would have liked to do, and simply had to leave the work of supervising his department to subordinates. When these men fall down on the job the chief accountant was blamed, though apparently, he was overloaded with work.

It is expected that the continuation of the hearings will bring forth some startling facts as to how the public money was handled, if the investigation is allowed to run through its proper course.

The government is in the midst of

THE INFLUENCE OF ADVERTISING ON THE PUBLIC MIND

HOW MANY PEOPLE know the names of the highest mountain peaks in the world?

FOR INSTANCE, "Kinchinjinga" is the name of one of the highest mountains in the world. It is 28,156 feet high.

PIKE'S PEAK is only 14,108 feet high—but it gets credit for being higher because it is advertised.

ADVERTISING will bring many unknown things into prominence during the coming years.

NOW IS THE TIME, when so many articles and commodities of trade are flooding already overstocked markets, for the man with goods to sell to let the people know all about it.

THE BEST WAY to let the people know is to advertise in the newspapers.

YOU HAVE SEEN THIS in the Daily Mail—let the public know what you have to sell through the advertising resources of this newspaper.
