PRESENTATION TO THE PASTOR AT PORTAGE

At the close of the Sabbath evening service in Portage Church on Nov. 6 Mrs. Angus J. Forbes, local Treasurer on behalf of the congregation there presented Rev. Mr. Macpherson with an address accompanied by a valuable club bag, a beautiful silver cake dish for Mrs. Macpherson and a gift for Master Paul Macpherson. Mr. and Mrs. Macpherson both desire to publicly thank the Portage people for this will and appreciation.

After Nov. 13, when he conducts his farewell services on the Stanley end of his congregation, his work shall close as pastor having served a little more than five years in a very widely-scattered congregation with many people of good, loyal, loving hearts. Mr. Macpherson whose health lately has not been good, was recently granted by his congregation six months' leave of absence in order that he might recuperate, but has thought it his duty to adhere to his resignation, which takes effect on the above date.

Formerly Mr. Macpherson was pastor of Harvey Congregation, in York

SAVED BABY'S LIFE

Mrs. Alfred Tranchemontagne, St. Michel des Saints, Que., writes:—"Baby's Own Tablets" are an excellent medicine. They saved my baby's life and I can highly recommend them to all mothers." Mrs. Tranchemontagne's experience is that of thousands of other mothers who have tested the worth of Baby's Own Tablets. The tablets are a sure and safe medicine for little ones and never fail to regulate the bowels and stomach thus relieving all the minor ills from which children suffer. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

County for five and a half years and so has given nearly eleven years of his ministry in York County.

The address was as follows:

To Rev. M. J. Macpherson,

Dear Pastor:

The gathering here this evening is filled with regret and sadness by the fact that we are soon to bid farewell to you our pastor. During the five years that have been spent with us, you have labored diligently and faithfully and we have greatly appreciated the sympathy and inspiration which you have extended to us. We hope that the results you have obtained have been an encouragement to you, that you will look back on the period you have spent with us as time profitably and pleasantly spent, and that you will carry away with you pleasant memories of the people amongst whom you labored. Your leaving fills us with regret and a sense of loss, yet our best wishes go with you to the new labors to which you are called, for further success and happiness in your high calling. We beg of you and Mrs. Macpherson to accept these small tokens of our esteem and affection.

MAN KILLED AT MINTO

Minto, Nov. 11—Charles Caldwell was caught by the gearing beneath a moving car at the Minto Coal Company's mines today and was dragged along the track, sustaining injuries including two broken arms, from which he died. Caldwell was endeavoring to set the brake with a piece of pipe, which broke, throwing him beneath the car. He belonged to Douglass Harbor, Queens county.

STAGE PROPS DEEPLY AFFECT THE AUDIENCE

Whiffle, the usher, studies psychology as a side line. He occasionally reaps a pecuniary benefit as a result of his efforts along this line, but more often the benefits are purely a relief from the tedium of trotting up and down the theatre aisles.

"After several years' study of New York audiences," said Whiffle, "I have learned some strange things."

"For instance?" inquired the friend. "The strangest thing is the effect of scenery upon the audience," said Whiffle, adjusting a shining button on his military appearing uniform. "Have you ever noticed it?"

The friend confessed he had not. "Then you have not been a close observer as I have," returned Whiffle. "At this play, if you have noticed, we have a fog scene. It's extremely well done—I never work at a house where everything is not accomplished and supreme in artistry. Now, in the first act a barroom is realistically shown. What is the result? Immediately after that act more people get up and go after a drink of water than any time during the entire course of the performance. The effect of that barroom scene is purely psychological."

"But the psychological effect of the scene which passes before the playgoer's eyes is more clearly demonstrated during the fog. What does fog first suggest? A cold, of course. And what is the result? All over the house you hear more coughing than any time during the entire show."

"Having been at this business for many years I know the reaction of the varying scenic effects. During a snowstorm on the stage I saw a man one spring night when it was warm slip on his overcoat. Women always respond to such scenes by pulling their furs about their necks."

"On the occasion of one of my sundry posts as usher there was a forest fire. In the dead of winter, if you will believe me, members of the audience would arise from their seats and go outside for a breath of frigid air. The effect of the scene had been that powerful."

"What happens when they show the characters on the stage liberally tipping every one they chance across?"

COULD HARDLY MOVE IN HER BED

Eight Boxes of "FRUIT-A-TIVES" Completely Relieved Her.

MADAM RICHER

Labelle, P.Q., April 18th, 1921

"It is my duty to tell you and publish to all what your remedy 'Fruit-a-tives' has done for me."

I suffered with Rheumatism for ten months; could hardly move in bed; and was miserable all the time. I tried several physicians and took many remedies, but they left me at the same place, in bed and suffering, the Rheumatism was so bad.

I finally started in taking 'Fruit-a-tives' and continued the treatment regularly as I found myself getting better. After using eight boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives' (which cost only $4.) I am completely well without a trace of Rheumatism."

asked the friend.

"That," said Whiffle, with a note of depression in his voice, "is one phase of theatrical psychology which doesn't seem to effect one person out of an audience of two thousand."

LEAVES.

'Tis October in the city,
And the trees are dropping
Their dead leaves on the cold side-walks;

Countless hurrying feet
Scatter and trample and bruise them;

Women and boys with brooms
Sweep them off into the gutter.
Brown and yellow they are,
Yellow and brown and dusky green,
Unightly and useless.

It is October in the hills,
And the trees are flaming
Like torches in the sunlight.
How the red maple grows
Against its background of spruces!
The year goes to its death
Like a king in his last battle,
Banners beating the wind.
The leaves are singing as they fall
To make the earth richer.

BIG STRIKE EXPECTED

New York, Nov. 10—Members of the cloak, skirt and reefer makers unions affiliated with the International Ladies' Garment Workers Union have voted overwhelmingly in favor of going on strike Nov. 14 in protest against the piece work plan recently initiated by their employers.

The vote as announced today was 38,672 in favor of a strike and 162 opposed.

Perhaps the styles have changed but we don't see any girls who are fettered with long skirts.

COULDN'T DO HOUSEWORK HEART WAS SO BAD

Many women get weak and run down and unable to look after their household duties owing to the heart action becoming impaired or the nervous system unstrung.

Nature intended women to be strong healthy and happy instead of sick and wretched. But how can a woman be strong and healthy when day in and day out she has to go through the same routine of work, sweeping, dusting, cooking, washing, etc. Is it any wonder that the heart becomes affected and she gets irritable and nervous, has hot flushes, faint and dizzy spells, smothering and sinking spells and can't sleep at night.

To all women whose heart is weak and whose nerves are unstrung we would recommend

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS as the best remedy to tone up the system and strengthen the weakened organs.

Mrs. Daniel Bezonson, Loganville, N. S., writes: "As I was troubled with a weak heart for nearly two years I am writing to tell you what your great remedy, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, has done for me."

My heart was so bad at night I could not sleep. I would take smothering spells, and was so weak I could not do my housework. I tried two doctors, but got no results. A friend advised me to try your pills. I used six boxes and am completely relieved. I think they are the best remedy for heart trouble there is."

Price 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
