

HAVE ROSEY CHEEKS! LOOK PRETTIER! FEEL BETTER!

Simplest Thing in the World to Do at the Small Cost of a Quarter.

You seldom see a woman who is pale, dull-eyed, thin-cheeked, and utterly worn-out, who doesn't suffer more or less from headache and constipation. Her poor looks are more largely due to neglect than anything else.

Most women can have sparkling eyes and rosy cheeks if they will but use regularly a blood cleansing and laxative medicine like Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Just follow these simple directions. Tonight take two Dr. Hamilton's Pills and note how much fresher you feel tomorrow morning. Your face will be clearer, your appetite better, your spirits brighter. Next night take one or perhaps two pills again. Gradually reduce the dose as mentioned in the company's directions.

Day by day you will note a steady gain. You'll quickly have back those happy girlish looks you once were proud to think about. No other medicine can do so much for you as Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. Sold everywhere in 25c. boxes.

SAYS UNREST IN CANADA IS GROWING RAPIDLY

Ottawa Correspondent of the New York Herald Discusses the Opening of Parliament—Predicts That the Meighen Cabinet Will be Overthrown—Canada is Today Getting a One Man Government.

The New York Herald publishes the following from its Ottawa correspondent under the date of Feb. 12th:

Parliament meets on Monday next with the Dominion experiencing political uncertainty and unrest. The Meighen Ministry, which for a time appeared to have the confidence of the country, has just met with two decisive by election reverses: Cabinet reorganization, long promised, is still delayed; House of Commons and Senate vacancies remain unfilled, four groups in Parliament make for un-

Our Travelling Salesmen Enjoy Selling Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea

Travelling salesmen work very hard as a rule. They put in long hours, and the pleasure of travelling is not so great as to those of us who mostly live at home.

Naturally, therefore, these men must get a great deal of their pleasure and satisfaction from their work—they like to sell the finest of products and represent a good "house".

Our travelling salesmen are exceedingly critical of the products which they are asked to sell, and when we told them last January that we wanted them to sell a new tea of extra quality—much finer than has usually been sold in Canada—they were keenly interested, put the new tea to many tests amongst their friends, and gave it a lot of time and thought.

Having convinced themselves of the extra fine quality of Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea, they started on their trips full of enthusiasm.

Their satisfaction, however, has been much greater on their later trips, because of the splendid renewal orders which are following their first sales.

Like good merchants, our salesmen enjoy selling the very finest tea—Red Rose Orange Pekoe.

Try the tea which has met with so much success.

stability and the country, demanding a stronger Cabinet and more confident policies is calling for a general election.

Mr. Meighen who last summer succeeded Sir Robert Borden in the Premiership, is in danger of losing a reputation for strength and action. His accession to office was expected to be the signal for a general house-cleaning of a number of mediocrities who, enfeebled the Pöden Ministry, but thus far he has failed to achieve reorganization. In addition, he has failed to effect reconciliation with Quebec which is still without proper Cabinet representation, has permitted a number of important public questions to remain unsettled, has been slow in filling appointments and has not strengthened the organization of his party. The Cabinet taken on the average is notoriously weak. It contains men who, like Sir George Foster and Mr. Doherty, are too advanced in years for the rough and tumble of Canadian politics; others who, like Mr. J. D. Reid and Mr. J. A. Calder, have no strength in Parliament and inspire little confidence in the country and still others who, either through lack of experience or ability are far below Cabinet calibre.

A One Man Government

The result is that in great measure Canada today is getting a one-man government. Premier Meighen, a prodigious worker, practically bears the entire burden of the country's administration. Because of lack of confidence in his colleagues he is compelled to give personal attention to matters of comparatively trivial importance, and as a consequence is debarred from concentration upon more vital and pressing problems. This naturally has produced all sort of difficulties. The country, its nerves a little unsteady by a temporary business depression is irritable and impatient; labor, fighting to keep wages up while prices come down, is restless; farmers encouraged by recent political successes are anxious for more battle, and the press, feeling that anything is better than a policy of stagnation, has begun voicing a demand for an election.

West Peterborough, a by-election which resulted in a Government rout reflected the public sentiment. This election, made necessary because J. H. Burnham a Government supporter resigned from Parliament on the ground that the Ministry had no mandate from the country, was fought on the clear issue as to whether the Government and Parliament had a right to carry on without appealing to the country. The result was that the Government candidate received less than 3,000 votes out of 13,000 polled and this in a riding supposed to be overwhelmingly pro-Government.

Such a defeat the most decisive that the Government has encountered since it took office, has shaken Premier Meighen's prestige. Also it has greatly heightened the morale of both the Farmer and Liberal groups, and when Parliament meets on Monday they are certain to launch a joint drive to force the Government to go to the country. They will move as an amendment to the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne that the Government has no mandate; that it is usurping the power of office, and that the rights of responsible government be restored by an immediate appeal to the people.
