JOHN S. SCOTT,
Major 71st York Regiment.

Position in Montreal.

Mr. Jack Wisely, formerly telegraph operator with J. M. Robinson & Sons, of this city, has accepted a position with a brokerage firm in Montreal.

AN AMENDMENT TO THE ADDRESS WAS MOVED BY HON. MACKENZIE KING IN PARLIAMENT TUESDAY

ed to constitute the worst betrayal of the rights of the people that this country had ever seen. Thousands of electors were robbed of the rights of citizenship and other thousands of women, specially favored, received rights not previously enjoyed by them. Thus it was that the Union government was elected in 1917. The war-time elections act had been passed under closure. The military voters' act, passed in good faith, was also an instrument of robbing the people of their proper representation.

The votes of thousands of young men, serving their country overseas, had been poured by emissaries of the government, into channels where they would best serve the government.

That was a course of action commended by the present prime minister. It was to these measures that the present representation of the house was due, and both of them had since been repealed. If parliament was not representative, Mr. King said, it should cease to exist.

"Patriotism was the cry which elected the government in 1917. The people thought they were returning patriots to power. They find in office today only those who love the loaves and fishes, who make broad their phylacteries, who enlarge the border of their garments, who love the uppermost rooms at the feasts and the chief seats in the synagogues, who make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within are full of extortion and excess. Confidence in government will never be restored until the people regain the confidence over the executive which they have lost.

Want of Confidence Motion.

The leader of the opposition then moved his amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne.

Hon. Mr. King's amendment was seconded by the Hon. W. S. Fielding of Queens-Shelburne. Mr. King was lengthily applauded as he resumed his seat.

The applause was vigorously renewed on the government side of the House when Right Hon. Arthur Meighen rose to reply.

Hon. Mr. Meighen attacked the leader of the opposition's argument that the government should go to the country because it had chosen a new prime minister and was therefore not in accord with the policies of the preceding administration. "In point of character, purpose and aim," Mr. Meighen said, "the present government was in full accord to the last jot and tittle with the government it succeeded."

Premier Becomes Sarcastic.

Mr. Meighen in a sarcastic passage intimated that an over-fondness on the part of the leaders of the opposition for cabinet positions was one of the real reasons behind Mr. King's attack. In admitting that the 1917 election was fought on a carry-on-the-war issue, Mr. Meighen said that that did not mean that the government's work was done now. Many problems arising out of the war still remained to be dealt with. "This government's duty is not yet done," Mr. Meighen said. He referred to soldiers' re-establishment as not yet being complete, although more had been done in Canada than in any other country. If the government was to be restrained who would carry on the work? he asked.

The house adjourned at 9.25 p. m.

Tomorrow the House resumes the debate on the address. Mr. Mackenzie of Cape Breton North, will be the first speaker.

HOW TO SAFEGUARD YOUR DIGESTION

The Blood Should Constantly be Kept Rich and Pure.

If you suffer from any form of indigestion your diet should be carefully chosen. Over-eating is always harmful, but at the same time one must take enough food to supply the needs of the blood. It must be remembered that the blood has to carry nourishment to every part of the body and fuel for its energy and defences against disease, as well as the requisite juices for digestion. Hence when the blood becomes weak and fails to do its work, indigestion arises; also when indigestion begins the blood still further suffers. Therefore, to safeguard your digestion, the blood should be kept rich and free from impurities. For more than a third of a century Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been a favorite tonic for enriching the blood and strengthening the nerves. If, therefore, you find yourself troubled with indigestion, or other ailments due to weak, watery blood, you will find Dr. Williams' Pink Pills both safe and effective. The value of this medicine in cases of stomach trouble is shown by the experience of Mrs. J. Lewis, Lake George, N. S., who says "I suffered very severely with indigestion. I had severe pains in the stomach after every meal. I had a loathing for food, my rest at night was very much disturbed, and my general health was declining. I was under a doctor's care, but did not find any improvement. Reading of what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done in a similar case I decided to try them, with the result that after giving them a fair trial, my general health was improved, and all symptoms of the indigestion that had afflicted me disappeared. I feel very grateful to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for saving me from so much misery."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
