DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY WON THE INTERCOLLEGIATE HOCKEY TITLE OF MARITIME PROVINCES

Score at Amherst was Dal 9, U. N. B. 1—Defence of Red and Black was Off Color—Winners One of Strongest Amateur Aggregations in Eastern Canada—U. N. B. Forwards Worked Well—Fredericton High Defeated Sussex High Here—Sussex to Play Here Next Tuesday—Fans Would Like to See Interprovincial Play-off.

(Special to The Mail.) Amherst, N. S., Feb. 25—Dalhousie University of Halifax won the Maritime Intercollegiate hockey title here tonight by defeating the University of New Brunswick 9 to 1. The victory of Dal was decisive but the U. N. B. put up a hard game which is not indicated by the one-sided score. The Red and Black forward line played together at all stages and gave a fine exhibition against the heavier Dalhousie men. It was back of the forward line that U. N. B. developed weakness. Jewett played well but Barry, his mate on the defence was not up to his usual form and early in the game was replaced by Carter who did very well until tired out. In the net Sears was against one of the hardest shooting teams in Eastern Canada, and his lack of experience told. He stopped shots alright but failed to clear his net when delay meant goals. Under the circumstances he did well.

Dalhousie deserved every credit for its victory. The team was not at full strength as MacNeill and McEachren two of the best men were barred by the intercollegiate rules of eligibility.

With those players on the team is much stronger.

Duke McIsaac in the net lived up to his reputation as one of the best net-guardians playing today in the east. He is a veteran at the game having played with the Cape Breton League several seasons in his home town of Sydney. The fast U. N. B. forwards did not let him get by without working but only one shot got by him, Lounsbury driving that in late in the game. In the attack Dal played more of an individual style than did U. N. B. Against Sears the shooting was deadly.

The Dalhousie players give U. N. B. credit for having a fine line of forwards and as far as combination was concerned were outplayed. They also expressed surprise that King's College could make the Red and Black go overtime to win. That was explained by the fact that the U. N. B. team had an off night.

The Dalhousie defence in front of the net was of the water tight variety had much to do with keeping the U. N. B. score down to what it was.

About eight hundred people turned out to see the college game. This is not as good as the attendance at Moncton last year when U. N. B. and Acadia played off for the Western Section title. At any rate Amherst is usually classed as an Acadia town as far as its university leanings go. It is probable that Moncton will be more favored in future as a point for playing-off college games. The expense of hockey this season has been very heavy at U. N. B.

GENERAL SITUATION.

Dalhousie Looks Like Best Amateur Hockey Team of Nova Scotia—Fans Would Like to See Some Play-offs.

Dalhousie University, as winners of the Halifax City League and intercollegiate champions of the Maritime Provinces looks like the best amateur hockey team of Nova Scotia. If the sister province has produced any other team of the class this season it should come forward. The Dal team includes several players who have made their names known in other than college hockey and as an aggregation can go up against anything in the Maritime Provinces.

Sussex is the best team of Southern New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. Chatham is the best team of the New Brunswick League. A play-off between two would decide the title of two provinces and Dalhousie University would be the logical representative of Nova Scotia, to meet the winners. The fans certainly would like to see a decision with regard to the Maritime title.

It is a curious fact that King's College which was taken to Boston early in the winter and appeared there as a representative hockey team from the Maritime Provinces, has not won a game from a college team either in the intercollegiate series or outside it. If Boston wants to see a representative Maritime college team Dalhousie should go there. U. N. B. probably would make a better showing than did King's.

Reception For U. N. B. The 1921 U. N. B. hockey team will be given a rousing reception on its arrival here tonight on the C. P. R. train due at 8.40. The welcome would have been uproarious had the Red and Black brought back the Maritime college title but with Dalhousie producing one of the strongest teams in Eastern Canada, that was not expected. In winning the Western Section and the Sumner Trophy the team has put U. N. B. in the forefront of college hockey and climbed higher than any team which ever wore the Red and Black.

Amherst Wanted Fred McLean. Dalhousie is to play the Amherst amateur team at Amherst tonight. Amherst wanted Fred McLean to stay over and fill a place on the defence. Dal kicked on that however and as McLean is very anxious to have nothing happen his restored amateur status remained neutral in the matter.

Sizing Dalhousie up on the form the team showed last night and what it has done all season and Chatham on its performance in the New Brunswick League, McLean believes that Dal could defeat Chatham.

Fredericton High School finished its league hockey season Friday night by beating Sussex High 6 to 1 at the Arctic Rink. There was no doubt about the outcome of the match, the local team scoring early and keeping right at it. On the form displayed the wonder was that the Yellow and Black lost both its games away from home. Possibly the smallness of the Sussex rink had something to do with that. It is said that next season that Sussex will have a modern rink which will place it on a

ADVERTISING NEW BRUNSWICK

Mr. Charles Cremin, the well known guide, returned yesterday from a business trip to New York. While there he attended the annual dinner of the Canadian Camp and made the acquaintance of a number of sportsmen. Mr. W. H. Allen was also present and gave a talk in explanation of moving picture films depicting hunting and fishing in New Brunswick. Mr. Cremin says that eighteen inches of snow fell in New York on Sunday last. He says that trade is quiet now in New York and there has been great slashing of prices, especially in cotton goods and clothing.

Mr. Cremin while in New York met a number of patrons of his sporting camps and booked a number of engagements for next season.
