PREMIER MURRAY SAYS MEIGHEN WAS FOREDOOMED

North Sydney, N. S., Nov. 24—Premier Murray was a speaker at a great rally here on Tuesday evening in the interests of Mr. D. D. McKenzie, M.P. He gave an excellent address on the issues of the day, and the pleasure which it gave him to address an audience in North Sydney. Many old friends had passed away. He recommended the generation which has since grown up to study carefully the past history of the country. The would find that the Tory party never changes and learns nothing by war or by peace and still thinks protection the panacea for all evils. The Premier spoke of former conditions around the collieries and the blue ruin predictions made if the Liberals came into power. How this had been discovered was a matter of history.

Meighen Foredoomed

Meighen was beaten before he entered the present contest. The old politicians Borden, Foster, White, Calder and others who had retired from politics or, had got out of the storm and into the Senate, after taking their part in creating the present desperate state of affairs.

Are any of these men seeking election? They are not. They are, at most only sniping and are unwilling to enter the front line of trenches in this contest. In this constituency, no candidate dare run to support Meighen. No one will face the music, but some will support a farmer labor candidate. Were I a working man, I would glory in striking at the Meighen government. W. S. Fielding gave us the most scientific tariff we ever had.

He is fighting the battles of Liberalism in Queens-Shelburne. Logan, Carroll, Kyte, E. M. McDonald, too, are in the front line. They are not sniping. Carleton, the old refuge, refused to have Sir Henry Drayton as a candidate. Tariff has been made the great issue but you cannot by the stroke of a pen change at once economic conditions. Give Canada the best men of all classes, men in whom the country has confidence. This is a first essential to progress and prosperity in the country.

Toryism and the working man are not in unison. In England all the great social reform came from the Liberal party. There was no antagonism there between Liberalism and the Labor party.

UNWED GIRL BRINGS HER BABY TO WEDDING

New York, Nov. 22—The pretty bride stood at the altar with her bridesmaids; the handsome athletic bridegroom advanced with his attendants for the ceremony joining two wealthy families of Waterbury Conn.

The church was filled with 2,000 invited guests. The clergyman was pronouncing the words uniting the young couple, when—

A woman arose from one of the front pews and commanded:

"Stop! I have something to say before this wedding ceremony is performed. This man (pointing a forefinger at the bridegroom), is the father of that child—"

With a sweeping gesture of her arm she indicated her daughter, who had arisen in the pew, holding in her arms her 22-months-old baby boy.

Thus did the wedding of Edward J. Farrington, Yale man, former lieutenant in the army and son of Daniel T. Farrington, come to a rude halt just as he was to take as his bride Miss Margaret Hodson.

The girl-mother of the nameless baby was Loretta Rodden of New Haven, whose mother staged the dramatic scene to avenge her daughter, after Farrington, 24 had denied parentage of the child and refused to marry the girl.

As the woman's shrill voice broke the stillness with the command, "Stop!" a buzz of excitement swept through the edifice and several women fainted.

Farrington leaned heavily on the arm of the best man, a look of surprise on his face, and seemingly on the verge of collapse. Of the two thousand in the church the bride was the coolest. She gazed calmly at the interruptor and the girl mother telling her baby aloft and abruptly turned around and faced the clergyman.

Detectives worked their way through the jam, but by the time they reached Mrs. Rodden and her daughter the gray-haired mother had announced her intention of leaving quietly. As she walked slowly out she said to those around her:

"I have accomplished what I set out to do. He is the father of my daughter's child—and I trust that all the guests know it now."

It was some time before the excitement subsided, even after the Roddens left the church. The chief clergyman distressed at the interruption, resumed the ceremony where he had left off and Farrington and Miss Hodson were pronounced man and wife.

Mrs. Frank Willsey, R. R. 3, Belmont, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled with constipation for nearly two years. I had bad headaches, faint and dizzy spells and would blot terribly. After I had taken one vial I felt much better and continued their use. Now I have no faint and dizzy spells and am gaining nicely. I would not be without Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for the world."
