

SUFFERED SO MUCH SHE WANTED TO DIE

"Fruit-a-lives" Cured Her And Brought Her The Joy Of Living.

ENTERPRISE, ONT., OCT. 1st. "For seven years, I suffered with what physicians called a 'Water Tumor'. Hypodermics of Morphine had to be given me to ease the pain.

During one of these bad spells, a family friend brought a box of 'Fruit-a-lives' to the house. I was so bad that it was only when I had taken nearly two boxes that I began to experience relief.

I kept up the treatment, however, and after taking five boxes, I was cured, and when I appeared on the streets, my friends said 'The dead has come to life' and this seemed literally true because I certainly was at death's door."

Mrs. JAMES FENWICK. "Fruit-a-lives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50—trial size, 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

HERE FOR THE EXHIBITION OFFICIAL ANNOUNCER

W. G. BIRMINGHAM
The Greatest Novelty Advertiser in the Maritime Provinces.

Mr. Birmingham is here under the direction of Mr. W. S. Hooper and his announcing will add greatly to the success of the exhibition, people will know when and where different events are to take place.

Mr. Birmingham is one of the cleverest Megaphone announcers in the Dominion of Canada, is especially well known in different towns and cities from Glace Bay to Yarmouth, N. S.

He has advertised with great success for McKay Auto Car Co., The Rexall Stores throughout the provinces, Maritime Creamery Co., different amusement concerns and was at the Toronto Exhibition this season as the chief announcer, was also at Digby for the Guides Association meeting and the sports run along in an extra ordinarily smooth manner all to the credit of Mr. Birmingham.

Many times accidents have been avoided at big convention by his announcing, this was demonstrated at the Halifax Exhibition last season when Mr. Walsh, the aviator, fell to the ground and all the great mass of women in the grand stand began to jump and become panic stricken when Mr. Birmingham from a point where he could see all over the grounds announced to the people on the grounds that Mr. Walsh landed safely, saving no doubt a panic. He can be heard two miles away when announcing.

CURE AT HOLYWELL

Blindness Cured After Nineteen Years in the Dark

A remarkable case of faith-healing attracted the attention of medical men in Burnley, Lancashire. A young Roman Catholic named Thomas Haney, after being almost totally blind for 19 years—the blindness following an attack of measles when he was in infancy—had the sight of his eyes restored after bathing in the famous St. Winefred Well at Holywell, Flintshire.

Before his visit to Holywell, where the waters are supposed to have miraculous properties, Haney could only discern a faint glimmer of light. Now he can see people across the street, read small print, and make out the time on a clock face from a moderate distance.

He states that shortly after commencing to bathe in the well he felt the sight of his right eye returning. Gradually the sight gained in strength and before he left Holywell he was able to play a game of billiards on a full-sized table.

According to legend St. Winefred was beheaded because she refused to wed one of the petty tyrants of her time, and where her head fell there sprang forth a great flow of water possessing miraculous properties. The shrine was in after years established at the well.

COULDN'T BREATHE THROUGH HIS NOSE STUFFED WITH CATARRH

Catarrhzone Inhaler The One Means of Relief, and it Cured Quickly

The extraordinary efficacy of Catarrhzone is without a parallel. A sneezing cold is cured in ten minutes, a harsh cough is eased in an hour, the most offensive catarrh is thoroughly drawn from the system. In case of asthma and bronchitis the relief and certain cure that comes from the healing balsamic extracts in Catarrhzone is simply wonderful.

"For more than twenty years I suffered with a cough, bronchitis, asthma and nasal catarrh," writes J. F. Fenwick of Staunton P. O. "Every attack I had seemed to grow worse and I could hardly breathe on account of an accumulation of phlegm in the nose and throat. One day I tried Catarrhzone and in ten minutes was wonderfully relieved. I could breathe freely and naturally through the nose and blood spitting was stopped—the phlegm was cleared away and my regular breathing restored. No remedy can do more than Catarrhzone."

There is no remedy so certain and safe as Catarrhzone, but being a good remedy it is imitated. Beware of the substitutor. Large Catarrhzone lasts two months, price $1.00. Smaller sizes 25c. and 50c. At all storekeepers and druggists, or The Catarrhzone Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Canada.

Will Crooks' "Don't's"

Mr. Will Crooks, M.P., gave the following advice in an address to workmen:

Don't argue when you are tired; you can't do it.

Don't take the workshop home with you.

Don't talk trouble before the children.

Don't think you can't be "done;" you can.

Don't think you are worse than other people, and don't think you are better; you're not.

Don't think you have a constant job; the man in the cemetery has that.

Don't talk of being master in your own house. You may be while you are there; but you have to go out.

Don't get angry; no one cares if you do.

CABINET SALARIES

Britain Pays Her Ministers Well and Provides Pensions

In Great Britain most of the Cabinet Ministers get twenty-five thousand dollars a year each. The Lord Chancellor gets fifty thousand. And the Attorney-General, with his salary and the fees incident to his office, gets nearer a hundred thousand than the last-named figure. Most of them have good—and some of them very large—means. Lord Haldane is very rich, as are Lords Crewe and Beauchamp, and Mr. Harcourt, who, in addition, married an immensely rich wife, as did Mr. Asquith. Sir Edward Grey, Mr. Runciman, Mr. Hobhouse, and Mr. Pease are all rich men. Mr. Burns draws a salary of twenty-five thousand dollars a year, and is popularly supposed to live on less than a tenth of it. Recent investigations showed that Mr. Lloyd-George's private income, derived from his savings, was about four thousand dollars a year. Mr. Churchill's private means are small. He made a lot of money by his writings—his "Life" of his father brought him in fifty thousand dollars—but he is a free spender.

Not only are British Cabinet Ministers paid large salaries, but, when out of office, if they can conscientiously make a declaration that their private means do not admit of their living as befits a Cabinet Minister, they can draw a pension equal to half the salary which they received in office. It should be added that the unavoidable official expenses of the senior British Cabinet Ministers are heavy. They have to do a lot of expensive political entertaining. For instance, on the King's birthday, and at the beginning of each session, they have to banquet their principal supporters in Parliament, and these banquets run into a lot of money.

BADLY DELAYED MAIL

Sent to Destination After Third of Century in Seine

During the siege of Paris by the Germans in 1870 the post office administration hit upon the expedient—in addition to the balloons—of enclosing letters in small zinc globes, water-tight and hermetically sealed, and dropping them into the Seine. There they floated, if they were not captured by the Germans, down the river to the French lines, where a net stretched across the river gathered them in, and they were sent on their way. Unfortunately for the French the Germans discovered the character of these zinc floats, and as they could not hope to see and fish out by ordinary means all the letters that went down thus, they stretched across the river, at Villeneuve Saint Georges, a net of their own and effectually stopped this system of postal communication. The zinc balls and their use were pretty nearly forgotten, when about ten years ago, a fisherman found in the Seine, near Villeneuve, a queer looking globe of zinc. He opened it, and found three hundred letters, still legible, and all dated December, 1870. They were delivered to the postal authorities, and after this long wait in the river went on their way.
