

OCTOBER is the second month of autumn.

DON'T FORGET

That winter is close at hand, and that if you have to get a New Furnace it is best to be too early than too late. Our Wood Furnaces will serve you faithfully many years.

TALK IT OVER WITH US.

Smith Foundry Co., Ltd.

KING STREET - - - FREDERICTON, N. B.

I. H. C. GASOLINE ENGINES

It is a pleasure to sell I. H. C. Engines because the customers are always well satisfied.

In building I. H. C. Engines highest quality is always the first consideration. These Engines have stood the test for eight years and no change has been necessary except in the cooling system, that is conclusive proof that the working principle is the very best.

It will be to your advantage to see us and get all possible information about I. H. C. Engines before buying any other make.

1,000 bushels of grain threshed and only 7 gallons gasoline used. That is the record of one of our customers with an engine 6 years old.

J. Clark & Son Ltd.Go To Hawthorn's

Tobaccos, Cigars, Cigarettes, Etc.

WE HAVE A WELL ASSORTED STOCK ON HAND

LOW PRICES TO THE TRADE.

J. H. HAWTHORN

Queen Street

Fredericton, N. B.

Furs! Furs!

My stock for this Season is the Best ever.

Thirty Thousand Dollars worth to select from.

J. F. VanBuskirk

Warerooms: PHOENIX SQUARE

Mail Orders Have Prompt Attention.

Come in and look over my Fall Suits and Overcoatings.

Clothes Pressed and Cleaned, Called for and delivered. Terms Strictly Cash.

W. E. SEERYRing News
Wrestling
AthleticsSPORT NEWSRouling News
Base Ball
Etc., Etc.Freshmen Gave High School Bad Trimming*GIANTS EVEN MATTERS WITH MACK'S ATHLETICS

Shut Philadelphia out 3 to 0 in Ten Inning Game---Christy Mathewson Pitched Wonderful Ball for New York---Larry McLean Had Two Hits and Started Giants' Batting Rally---Wonderful Game

Philadelphia, Oct. 8---Christy Mathewson, master manipulator of the baseball, led the New York Giants to victory at Shibe Park today when he shut out the Philadelphia Athletics in a ten-inning battle by a 3 to 0 score in the second game of the world's series.

Hero of a decade of league and world's championship play, the famous veteran rose to the highest pinnacle of his diamond career by putting up an exhibition of all-round play that wrung volleys of applause from the 20,000 Athletics' supporters who were massed in the stands and bleachers expecting to witness a second triumph for the standard bearers of the American League.

Box score experts will point to their figures to prove that eleven other Giants were instrumental in winning the second contest of the series but the Philadelphia fans who filed sadly out of the park spoke only of Mathewson.

MATHEWSON WON THE GAME.

For a trifle over two hours and twenty minutes the man, whose reputation was sung by thousands of fans after the final game against the Boston Red Sox in the world's series of 1912, turned the hard hitting Athletics back without a semblance of a break. Then, when he saw that his team-mates could not wrest victory from Plank, he took his bat and drove in the run that won the game. Spurred on by his example, the other Giants added two more to clinch the contest but they were not needed.

Mathewson was the master to the end, Oldring, Collins and Baker being unable to drive the ball outside the diamond in the tenth and final inning, although 20,000 adherents pleaded for a hit that might start a winning rally.

As a result of Mathewson's prowess the Giants went back to New York tonight on even terms with the Athletics and the struggle will be renewed at the Polo Grounds tomorrow if the weather man so wills, with the two teams in comparatively the same position they were before they crossed bats for the 1913 title.

FINE EXHIBITION.

Regardless of the disappointment over the outcome of the game as viewed from a Philadelphia standpoint, not a single one of the thousands of spectators who witnessed the play regretted the hours spent in stands or bleachers. As an exhibition of high-class baseball and sensational play the game was all that an ideal world's championship contest should be in fiction or reality.

For nine innings the rival clubs battled without advantage, brilliant fielding and thrilling coups shutting out runs that appeared assured.

In the tenth with the shades of darkness settling over the park the hero of the game terminated the contest just as the dramatist would have staged the final scene. The Athletics had a chance to win in the ninth and many thought poor generalship on the bench and coaching lines threw away the one opportunity that the fortunes of baseball threw their way.

PLANK WEAKENED.

Both Mathewson and Plank had twirled a game that was little short of wonderful up to this point and Plank was beginning to falter under the strain. Their team-mates too, were atremble with the responsibilities that each inning was heaping on their shoulders.

With the Athletics at bat in the half half of the ninth and but a solitary run needed to close the contest, Strunk opened with a single past second. Barry bunted toward Larry Doyle, who run in and scooped the ball up, whirled, and threw wildly past Wiltse at first in an attempt to catch the Athletics' shortstop. The ball sailed clear to the right field grandstand, while Strunk and Barry rushed around the bases. Strunk was held at third when he had ample time to score. It was the Athletics' lone chance, for Wiltse and Mathewson cut down three Athletics in a row immediately after by a brilliant exhibition of infelding and then came the Giants' rush victory.

Larry McLean, who substituted for Meyers, when the Indian split his finger in practice, signled to right field in the tenth inning. Grant ran for him and reached second on Wiltse's sacrifice. Mathewson then clinched the game with his clean smash to centre, on which Grant scored.

Right here the Athletics cracked. Herzog hit to Collins, who threw to Barry to catch Mathewson at second. Apparently Barry was unable to see the ball, except to dodge it as it asked by on the way to left field. Mathewson and Herzog gained an additional base on the misplay. Plank hit Doyle, filling the bases. Fletcher followed with a boulder over Baker's head, scoring Mathewson and Herzog and the Giants had two more runs than was needed, as it ultimately proved, to win the game.

MATHEWSON'S THE STEADIER.

Aside from the brilliancy of Mathewson, the two teams were evenly matched. Plank was not quite as steady as his rival in the box, giving two bases on balls and hitting one batter, to Mathewson's solitary pass. The Giants secured seven hits off Plank, to the Athletics' eight from Matty, who struck out five batters to Plank's six. New York had eight men left on bases to Philadelphia's ten. Fletcher, McLean and Mathewson secured two hits each, a total of six out of the seven recorded by the Giants. Baker was the only Athletic player to get to Mathewson for more than one hit, the home run batsman being credited with two.

WILTSE'S PLAYING.

Had it not been for Mathewson's remarkable exhibition in the box and at bat, George Wiltse would have been hailed as the star of the game. As it was his play was such that it brought him congratulations from both players and fans. Substituted for Shodgrass, first as runner and then at first base in the third inning, he played a game that equalled anything that Merkle, the Giants' regular, has shown this season. As if to test his courage and stamina, ball after ball was flashed his way during the next seven innings. Not an error or a flaw marked his work and the climax came in the ninth when he cut two Athletics down at the plate and took Mathewson's throw at first for the third out.

(Continued on page five.)

For Other Sport See Page Five.

Score Was 22 to 0---Coy of High School Team Broke Collar Bone early in the Game---Freshmen had it over Yellow and Black in all ways---Horncastle Converted Two out of Six Tries Scored---Freshmen play Normal School Tomorrow

The U.N.B. Freshman Rugby team made its initial appearance yesterday and looked distinctly good. It handed out a bad drubbing to Fredericton High School, the final score being 22 to 0. The Yellow and Black was outclassed all round, the superior weight of the Freshmen telling in the scrim and the backs also having something on the High School boys.

High School suffered a heavy loss early in the game when Coy, who had been shifted from the half-line to passing-quarter, was forced to retire after a severe injury. His collar-bone was broken and he will be off the team for the greater part of the season. Rockwell went on in his place. A couple of minutes before time was up Edgecombe, who played a strong game for Freshmen at quarter, had to retire with a strained neck.

The Freshmen's great superiority lay in their backs. When the ball was heeled it went back to the halves at once and their superior speed and weight gave a big gain or a try. Bridges was fast, in fact he is about the fastest half playing hereabouts this season. Burden also showed up well in the scoring and ground gaining. Edgecombe, Harvey and Gibson easily had the better of the quarter play. Horncastle tried for goal after the tries and converted two out of six. Belton for High, played a good game at fullback. Donovan, Young and Carter got in some nice runs but the whole line seemed weak in tackling. The fact that the Freshman forwards heeled the ball the most of the time put the Yellow and Black quarters at a disadvantage. The forwards were up against a heavier pack and also had little chance.

FIRST HALF.

In the early stages of the game the High School forwards occasionally heeled the ball. The loss of Coy was keenly felt and the latter part of the period saw Freshmen attacking and High School defending. Burden scored the first try and Horncastle failed to convert. The second try was made by a run by the halves, Burns scoring. Horncastle converted and the half ended with the score Freshmen 8, High School 0.

SECOND HALF.

In the second half the Freshmen scored four tries, keeping the play close to the High School goal-line, except during the last half when some good running and punting by

MOUNT A. PLAYS HERE ON THURSDAY OCTOBER 30

U. N. B. Plays Acadia at Wolfville, Thursday November 6---Acadia at Sackville November 14

(St. John Telegraph)

Representatives from football teams of the universities and the intercollegiate league met last evening in the Royal Hotel and arranged their schedule for the coming season. Those present at the meeting were Borden, of Mount Allison, Sackville, Phinney, of Acadia, Wolfville, and Weston of U. N. B.

There will be three games played, each of the teams meeting the other once. They will be played as follows: U. N. B. vs. Mount A., at Fredericton, Oct. 30.

U. N. B. vs. Acadia, at Wolfville, Nov. 6.

Mt. A. vs. Acadia, at Sackville, Nov. 14.

The High School backs took the ball to the other end.

Bridges scored the first try after a run in which all the halves took part. Burden scored the second, bucking over the line from a mixup. Horncastle scored in a similar way shortly afterward. The last try was made by Burns after a run. This was the only try converted by Horncastle in this period.

The line-up was:

Freshmen	Fullback	F'ton High.
VanWart	Belton
	Halves
Burns	Donovan
Burden	Young
Millidge	Johnston
Bridges	Carter

Quarters

Edgecombe Coy

Harvey (capt.) Bridges

Gibson Betts

Forwards

Scovil Good

Barker (capt.) Cooper

Horncastle Squires

Oldham Keen

Griffiths Kilburn

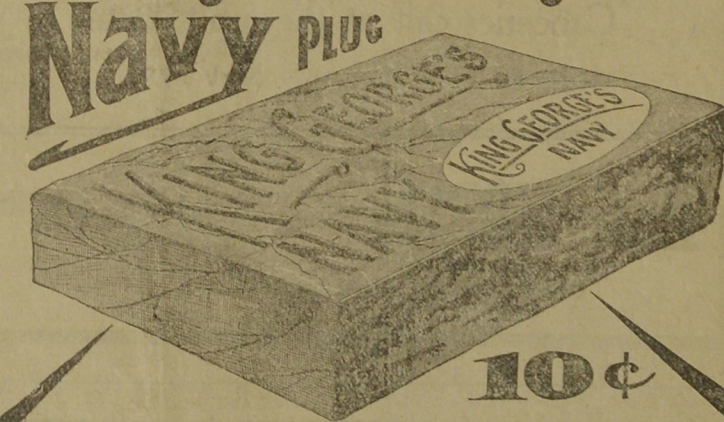

McEneaney Boyd

MacLaren Jarvis

Referees—G. P. Melrose and G. A. Maimann.

SCRUBBING
is well begun
and half done
when you start it with —

Old Dutch Cleanser

King George's Navy Plug

KING GEORGE NAVY PLUG CHEWING TOBACCO

IS IN A CLASS BY ITSELF!

It surpasses all others in quality and flavour because the process by which it is made differs from others.—It is deliciously sweet and non-irritating.

SOLD EVERYWHERE: 10c A PLUG

ROCK CITY TOBACCO Co., Manufacturers, QUEBEC

For Colds, Sore Throat,
Croup, For Aches,
Pains and Wounds,

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT

is the never-failing remedy. Keep it in your home and be ready for both internal and external ills.

IN USE 103 YEARS

25c and 50c everywhere

I. S. JOHNSON & CO., Inc.
Boston, Mass.

Parsons' Pills
relieve constipation
and headache