

CUT IT OUT!

When you see an advertisement mentioning a striking bargain cut it out. There is no certainty that it will appear again. We were fortunate in securing two cases of Print Ends direct from the mill. By so doing we secured them at a great bargain. They are from two to ten yd. lengths, light and dark colors and equal to any 10 or 12c goods you can get. We are placing them on sale Tuesday and Wednesday at 8 cents per yard

SOCIETY EVENTS OF THE WEEK

The different bridge clubs have resumed their meetings, and the Monday afternoon club met this week with Mrs. Harold Babbitt.

Miss Lucille Hawkins entertained at a girls tea in honor of her friend who is visiting here.

Mrs. Sterling has invitations out for two bridge parties one on Friday evening and the other will be given on Tuesday afternoon.

General regret is expressed by the removal of Mr. E. B. Durham the popular accountant of the Royal Bank of Canada, who has been transferred to the bank at Halifax.

Mr. Phillip Gregory has returned to Montreal where he is practicing his profession.

Miss Etce Purdie has left for Boston to visit her sister Mrs. Curry.

Miss Barbara Dobson of St. John is visiting Miss Mary Gibson at Marysville.

The wedding of Miss Estelle Jewett to Mr. Albert Belyea took place on Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. King Street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Neil McLaughlin in the presence of a number of friends of the bride. The ceremony was performed in the parlor, which was prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and smilax. As the bridal party entered the room the wedding march was played by Miss Eva Nicholson of St. Stephen a friend of the bride. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was becomingly gowned in white satin, the bodice of which was trimmed with chiffon and pearl trimmings. She wore a tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bride received from the groom a long Persian lamb coat, from the Methodist Church Sunday School class a silver entree dish. To the pianist the groom gave a handsome bar pin set with peridots. Mr. and Mrs. Belyea left for Edmonton their future home, going by way of New York, Chicago and St. Paul.

The best wishes of a number of friends follow the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Belyea being exceedingly popular. Mr. Belyea is a graduate of the U.N.B. and was very prominent in athletics.

brought up. At present some universities in the Maritime Provinces require no examination for entrance, a certificate from a preparatory school being considered sufficient. The aim of the discussion at the institute will be to ascertain what standard would be acceptable to all universities. The matter of obtaining increased grants for educational purposes from the money demanded by the Maritime Provinces as recompense for lands granted to other provinces will also be discussed. It is expected that members of the several governments of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island will be present at the institute.

NO MORE RAILROAD PASSES IN ILLINOIS

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 31.—All of the railroads doing business in Illinois will tomorrow abolish the pass privilege, except as it applies to their employees. This is in compliance with a stringent provision in the new Public Utilities act. Another provision of the same act forbids individuals and corporations from attempting to secure service from the railroads at less than the scheduled rates.

We take this opportunity of thanking our friends and customers for their kind patronage during the past season and wish them all a bright and prosperous
