SANI-FLUSH

IT CLEANS WHERE A BRUSH CAN'T GO.

It is not practical to clean the trap with acid, because it is would require dipping all of the water out of the bowl and filling it to the water line with acid.

Sani-Flush is poured into the water and forms a solution which loosens the deposit in the trap by chemical action.

Sani-Flush cleans the entire closet-bowl, the seen and unseen parts, sanitary and odorless. No scrubbing is necessary.

Sani-Flush is perfectly safe to handle and use and cannot injure the bowl of plumbing. Price 35c. for 23-oz. can; most perfect cleanser in use.

Presbyopia

When individuals reach certain periods of life they acquire a visual defect known as Presbyopia. This is caused by the inelasticity of the crystalline lens of the eye. This defect is among the most common and progresses with age.

If when reading the lines of print run together or blur, if you cannot read by lamp light, or if the eyes ache, water, and become tired, you may be sure that Presbyopia is the cause of the trouble.

This defect should be attended to at its first appearance and proper lenses constitute the only requirement.

BLUE AND GRAY TO MEET AT CHATTANOOGA, TENN.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 27.—When the Grand Army of the Republic meets here on September 15 for its forty-seventh national encampment, it will be the first time in history that such an encampment is held in the real south. It is true, one national encampment was held in Louisiville, but that city was really too far north and too far removed from the actual seat of the war to be considered as part of the real south. It is different with Chattanooga, the immediate vicinity of which was the scene of some of the bloodiest battles of the civil war, including Chick-amauga, Lookout Mountain, Orchard Knob and Missionary Ridge.

Undoubtedly there was a time when the selection of Chattanooga as the place of the gathering would have been fatal to the success of a Grand Army encampment. During the first fifteen or more years after the close of the war there was still enough of the intense popular feeling against the north left among the impoverished people of the south to make the selection of a real southern city as the place for holding a Grand Army encampment a matter of doubtful judgment. There would probably have been no hostile demonstrations on the part of the southerners—southern hospitality would not have permitted that—but there would have been embarrassment on both sides and unavoidable friction. But old-time antagonism has been wiped out; great national problems, common national dangers have brought the north and the south closer together; a clearer recognition of the mutuality of their interests cemented the fractures and comradeship in the camps and upon the battlefields of the Spanish-American war strengthens the bonds of friendship and loyalty between the north and the south more than anything else could have done.

It was no longer a matter of doubtful taste and judgment when it was decided to hold the forty-seventh annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic in this city, but a recognition of the fact that the chasm once separating the north from the south is now closed forever.
Instead of being embarrassed by the choice of their city the people of Chattanooga are delighted with the prospect of being the hosts of their former foes for a period of five days, beginning September 15. Ever since the announcement of the choice was made the citizens of Chattanooga have outdone themselves in preparing with true southern hospitality for their visitors.

Since the war the membership of the Grand Army has dwindled considerably and in late years the attendance at the national encampments showed a marked decline. But there is every reason to believe that the selection of Chattanooga as the place for the encampment will have a stimulating effect upon the attendance and that the number of members and visitors at the coming gathering will greatly surpass that of any previous national encampments.

The preparations for the encampment are progressing rapidly and with enthusiasm. New features of entertainment, calculated to please the visitors, are constantly added to a program already overflowing with interesting and pleasing features.
There will be visits to the famous battlefields around the city; fireworks and nightly signal fires on Lookout Mountain and the other heights in the vicinity, regimental and state reunions at various points of interest in the surroundings of Chattanooga, easily reached by the street cars or automobiles; there will be hydro-aeroplane exhibitions on the Tennessee River, steamboat excusions and a sham battle at Chickamauga Park.

Various auxiliary organizations of the G.A.R. will also hold their national gatherings during the encampment week and the city will be overcrowded with visitors during that week. There need be no fear, however, that the city will be unable to take care of their visitors. There are many capacious hotels available and the citizens will gladly open their homes to receive and shelter those who prefer quarters in a private house to hotel accommodations.

The Bar Association meeting in Montreal will be preceded by the annual conference of the Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, which will begin its sessions Tuesday.
There will also be a conference of the Judiciary Committee of the Bar Association, which will be addressed Saturday by former President William H. Taft.
