THOUGHT IT WAS CANCER OF STOMACH

Tortures of Chronic Dyspepsia Cured
By "Fruit-a-Lives"

SYDNEY MINES, N.S., JAN. 25th, 1910
"For many years, I suffered torture from indigestion and dyspepsia. Two years ago, I was so bad that I vomited food constantly and lost 25 pounds in weight. I was afraid the disease was cancer."

I read about "Fruit-a-Lives" and the wonderful cures this fruit medicine was making, and I decided to try it. After taking three boxes, I found a great change for the better and now I can say "Fruit-a-Lives" has cured me when every other treatment failed, and I reverently say "Thank God for 'Fruit-a-Lives'."

MCLEOD AND PINDER AS JOKESMITHS

(Toronto Saturday Night.)
Hon. Harry F. McLeod, who accompanied Col. Sam Hughes on his trip to England, is colonel of the 71st Regiment of New Brunswick, and tells an amusing story of one of his rural recruits at the Sussex Camp, who was arrested one night for being drunk.

"You must go to the guard tent," said the officer who ordered his arrest.

"What right have you to arrest me?" demanded the citizen soldier.

"I'm the 'officer of the day.'"

"Officer of the day? H—l, this is night."

Hon. James K. Pinder, M.L.A. for York county, N.B., once did some work for the Dominion government on Grand Island Bar in the St. John River, which was severely criticized by his opponents.

The next year Mr. Pinder was speaking in the House.

"What about Grand Island Bar?"

"My honorable friends should know about the 'bars,'" retorted Pinder, "for he's been working on them all his life."

Thirty six states now forbid the employment of children under the age of fourteen years in factories, and twenty one states limit the hours of labor for children under the age of sixteen years to eight hours a day.

Nerves Were So Bad THOUGHT SHE WOULD GO OUT OF HER MIND.

Diseases of the nervous system are very common. All the organs of the body may be sound while the nerve centres may be affected.

Many women become run down and worn out by household cares and duties never ending, and sooner or later find themselves with the nerves shattered, and the heart action weakened.

On the first sign of any weakness of either the heart or nerves, flagging energy, or physical breakdown, do not wait until your case becomes hopeless.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will at once quieten the nerves, strengthen the heart and build up the entire system.

Mrs. Archie Goodine, Tilley, N.B., writes:—"When I was troubled with my heart two years ago, I was very bad. My nerves were so unstrung that sometimes I would almost go out of my mind. I doctored myself with everything I could get, until at last I got four boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and they have cured me. I cannot speak too highly of this wonderful remedy, and will recommend it to all sufferers."

Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PRESS COMMENTS

(Montreal Mail, Ind.)

South Bruce has just tied the confident expectations of the Liberals and Mr. Truax, their candidate, has been returned. The victory is a notable one, because its result is so very different from the general trend in by-elections, which generally fall to the government side. The constituency went Conservative in 1911, and so it constitutes a distinct gain to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, offsetting the loss in Chateaugay. The result would seem to bear out what Conservative experts freely admit—that it is hard to reduce the present Liberal representation from Ontario, and that it will surely climb again, lacking a momentous issue such as reciprocity. What ever the local conditions—a German vote hostile to the naval contribution—a Scottish vote, by hereditary, hostile to the Conservatives—the result will make the Ottawa authorities "sit up and take notice." And this will do no harm—rather will benefit follow. The fact that Sir Wilfrid has gone to the sister province and lifted a Tory scalp will give him more prestige in Quebec. Next bye-election here we may expect to hear the rallying cry of "Do as well by me as the men of South Bruce."

THE WESTERN SPIRIT

This Philosopher Ready to Prove
There is no Blood in a Stone

The following letter to an eastern loan company from a Saskatchewan client, was published in a leading financial publication. It speaks for itself:

"Dear Sirs:—In reply to your letter, I must say that I can not pay you the interest on your mortgage this year."

"You seem to think you can make me pay this as you state in your letter that you will not allow it to remain. How shall I pay when I have not got it? You can make extension till next year or not just as you please, there are millions of acres of unoccupied land out here. And what good is it to us farmers anyway, we only get a poor living from it, and if you are not satisfied with the way I am running your property out here come and run it yourself. You threatened before to foreclose; why did not you? I am getting tired of waiting for it."

"I would advise you to wait till next year as you will get at least one more year's interest."

"Why is it that you fellows that produce nothing and do nothing useful own everything, and we that produce everything own nothing?"

"You seemed to think that my last letter was too short, perhaps this will suit you better."

Yours, etc.,
"P.S.—You can answer this letter or not as you please."
