HAZEN AND ROGERS COMING TO MAR- TIME PROVINCES

Will visit St. John, Halifax and Other Points where Public Works Are in Progress

GOVERNMENT HAS ON-HAND AN EXPENSIVE PROGRAM

Ottawa, Oct. 21.—Next month St. John and Halifax will have the opportunity of placing their desires for public works before the Hon. Robert Rogers, who is the head of the dredging and wharf building department of the government. He and the Hon. J. D. Hazen have arranged a trip to the Maritime Provinces for the second week in November. St. John, Halifax and other eastern points, where public works are in progress, will be visited.

The application of St. John for ten additional steamship berths to be constructed in time for the winter export season of 1914-15, has rather staggered the Ottawa authorities. If the demand had been finally and firmly pressed last season, St. John might have succeeded in obtaining what its commerce requires but this season money will be rather scarce and new works will be undertaken with reluctance.

The revenues from customs and other sources are beginning to feel the effect of the financial stringency and are showing in the monthly returns that the revenue of Canada at the close of the fiscal year will reveal a considerable shrinkage from the year before. The public debt is now certain to be increased as the result of the year's operations. The government has an expensive program of construction in hand, including the new Welland Canal, the five million driveway along the Toronto water front, the Hudson Bay Canal and the thirty-million-dollar works at Halifax.

ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS CONFERENCE AT BERLIN

Berlin, Oct. 22.—Twenty-eight countries are represented by delegates at the 11th International Anti-Tuberculosis Conference which opened here today and will remain in session until Sunday. One of the most interesting features of the conference will be the reports from the various countries represented as to the methods employed for waging war upon tuberculosis and the results achieved by these methods. Although no positive "cure" for the disease can be reported, encouraging progress will be recorded by modern methods of sanitation, disinfection and isolation.

Dr. P. F. Friedmann, the alleged discoverer of a curative serum, did not apply for a place upon the program and it is expected that no great enthusiasm will be manifested by the delegates to the conference concerning his turtle serum. The delegates will be given an opportunity, however, to see and to examine the patients on whom Dr. Friedmann based his original claims of success.

TORY MAJORITY CUT IN HALF

Liberals won a Moral Victory in East Middlesex,
Ont.

Tory Candidate Was Returned by a Majority of 368—County Has Been Tory Since Confederation

London, Ont., Oct. 21.—Alderman S. Frank Glass of this city, was today elected to the House of Commons from East Middlesex in succession to the late Peter Elson, M.P.

The Conservative candidate's majority over R. G. Fisher, Liberal, is 368.

Of the forty-five sub-divisions, all but sixteen gave majorities for Glass. Eight of the remainder were in Westminster township, a Liberal stronghold, which on this occasion netted Mr. Fisher 112.

The vote in detail:

	Glass	Fisher
London Township	1,003	621
Westminster	424	536
West Missouri	263	245
North Dorchester	363	283
Totals	2,053	1,685

The vote was about 500 short of that polled in the riding in the general election of 1911, when Mr. Elson was given 661 majority. Rainy weather and bad roads handicapped the getting out of the vote.

Mr. Glass, in addressing a gathering at the committee rooms, emphasized his belief in the doctrine of protection for Canadian industries, and in Canadian aid to the imperial navy.

Mr. Fisher in a statement after the result was known, expressed the opinion that the presence of cabinet ministers and election "thugs" in the riding contributed to the result.

RESULT OF LAST ELECTION.

INTERNATIONAL DRY FARMING CONGRESS

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 2d.—In the presence of thousands of visitors representing nearly every section of the United States, Canada, Mexico and many of the central and South American republics the eighth International Dry Farming Congress and Exposition was opened here today. The exposition is held upon a plot of 120 acres and more than thirty nations are represented by the remarkable exhibits contained in six large buildings and several temporary pavilions. Particularly interesting are the exhibits of the dry farming States of the arid West and Northwest of the United States and of the western provinces of Canada. One of the features is the Government exhibit, showing the remarkable results obtained by irrigation and farming methods in regions where the annual rainfall is extremely small. The Dry Farming Congress will remain in session until the end of the present month and the exposition will remain open during that time to give the delegates an opportunity to study dry farming methods.

NEW TORY CHIEFTAIN WAS WELCOMED HOME

Demonstration in Honor of Col. McLeod's
Return From the Army Manoeuvres
Was a Pretty Tame Affair—A Brass Band and Some Fire-works Attracted a Crowd, But Enthusiasm was Lacking
—A Great Night for Ex-Ald. Guthrie
and Dr. Mullin

Hon. H. F. McLeod M. P. P., lieutenant-colonel commanding the 71st York Regt., returned last night after several weeks absence during the greater part of which time he was following Hon. Sam Hughes about Great Britain and the continent endeavoring to obtain increased knowledge of military affairs. His return was marked by a welcome, politico-military in character. Just where the military portion began and ended would be hard to say but the political portion was observed at all stages.

On the arrival of the train from St. John where the gallant colonel spent part of yesterday several hundred people were at the C. P. R. station. Officers of the 71st Regt. some in uniform and some in mufti were present to greet Col. McLeod. The eager ones in the crowd, however, who were in the forefront were of the noble army of Tory office-holders. Edward McElvaney traffic manager on the Fredericton-St. Mary's Highway Bridge, Herbert L. Coulthard editor of the Gleaner and government revisor for Fredericton, Andy Humble, near-claims agent of the Intercolonial Railway and professional arbitrator for the St. John and Quebec Railway, Arthur K. Limerick inspector of weights and measures, Commodore Robert "Biggs" sharpener of edged-tools on the new post-office building and dredging-expert, A. C. Flemming clerk-of-the-works at the new post-office and building inspector for the provincial government, and A. D. Thomas superintendent of school book vendors were among the stalwart young conservatives who pressed eagerly about their leader. H. M. Blair, secretary of public works could not get near the colonel on the station but after he had been seated in an automobile was able to warmly grasp his hand. J. Mal. Chappell, letter carrier for the House of Assembly was too busy ordering the band about and marshalling the autos and carriages some of which were very sparsely inhabited, to greet "our chieftain."

GREAT EXCITEMENT

As the Colonel was hustled across the station platform one stalwart who could not get very close shouted out, "Lift him up boys." The boys weren't taking any chances, however, and landed the hon. gentleman in the auto as quickly as possible.

While this was going on the band of the 71st Regt. played the regimental quickstep.

THE PROCESSION

Everything being in readiness the procession started on York street with a stentorian "Quick March" by Marshal Chappell. The prominent feature was a white banner bearing the words "Welcome Home to Our Chieftain." Cheers were conspicuous by their absence in fact apart from a fierce predatory yell by the assembled office-holders when the colonel left the train there was none until Ex-Ald. P. A. Guthrie worked up some enthusiasm when the procession reached the City Hall. Roman candles colored-fire and rockets were set off at intervals by small boys sent in advance of the parade. The boys were not very particular how they set off the fire-works and some went against buildings and among pedestrians.

AT THE CITY HALL.

When the City Hall was reached a halt was ordered and Col. McLeod, accompanied by Major Grey, Dr. Mullin, Ald. Farrell, Indian Agent Smith, John A. Young, M.P.P., Ex-Ald. Guthrie and a few others, ascended the steps, while the crowd gathered in closely to hear the flood of promised oratory. The big banner was born up the steps in advance of the party and was propped up against the doorway.

A brief council of war was held, after which Major Grey, in his capacity of mayor of Marysville, stated that he had been requested to act as chairman. There being no such thing as a chair within reach he stepped to the front and spoke a few words of welcome. He said among other things that he was proud to join in a welcome to his commanding officer.

Ald. Farrell, who had the distinction of being the only member of the City Council to figure in the "demonstration," expressed regret at the absence of His Worship Mayor Hooper and proceeded to say that he had been requested by a number of the citizens of Fredericton to read an address of welcome. The address, which was prepared by a committee of local Tories, whose names were not disclosed, lauded Col. McLeod for his services as mayor of Fredericton, M.P.P., for York, etc., and predicted that "higher honors" would come his way in the near future.

Although the address did not say so, it is pretty well understood that Ald. Farrell will himself be a candidate for "higher honors" at the next civic election.

When Ald. Farrell had concluded reading the address Ex-Ald. Guthrie, who had been regulating the applause for a bunch of the faithful who had gathered near the steps, proposing three cheers for Ald. Farrell the Honorable H. F. McLeod. The cheers were given with some vim and the ex-alderman followed his hand by proposing three cheers for Ald. Farrell. It was noticeable that some persons cheered for the alderman, who did not cheer for Col. McLeod and that Indian Agent Smith, A. D. Thomas and J. Malakoff Chappell were less demonstrative.

DR. MULLIN'S PART.

"I will now introduce Dr. Mullin" was the next surprise sprung by the chairman. The doctor, who, thanks to Col. McLeod, derives his principal

SAN FRANCISCO FESTIVAL OPENED TODAY

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 22.—With guests in attendance from many parts of the world, San Francisco today opened her 'second Portola festival under conditions that promise one of the most magnificent carnivals ever held in America. While the festival retains the name of Don Gaspar de Portola, discoverer of the Bay of San Francisco and first governor of California under Spanish rule, the programme has been arranged with a view to specially honoring the memory of Vasco Nunez de Balboa, the Spanish adventurer and soldier, who, four hundred years ago last month, climbed the peak in Darien and viewed the Pacific Ocean.

One of the spectacular features of the carnival will be a reproduction of the arrival of Sir Francis Drake, in his little ship, the Golden Hinde, who landed a few miles north of the Golden Gate, and on June 17, 1579, took possession of the country in the name of Queen Elizabeth.

STOCKS ARE SHOWING UP STRONGER

No Fresh News Feature to Account for Boost in the Market

CANADIAN PACIFIC IS OFF A LITTLE TODAY

New York, Oct. 22.—While it is still doubtful if yesterday's reversal of tone in the Stock Market was due to anything but an oversold condition, there was no question that general sentiment underwent a change for the better as a result of the sharp rally. There were really no fresh news features yesterday to account for the strength but it is a fable on Wall Street that features only the more favorable aspects of the situation in a rallying market and vice versa. The significance of the tariff changes and the present objectionable features of the Currency Bill were exaggerated in the previous decline in the market and it is just as likely that the street will reverse itself in this respect should the market give signs of sustained strength.

BECOMES THE BRIDE OF A ZULU PRINCE

Danville, Va., Oct. 20.—Quite out of the ordinary was the international matrimonial alliance consummated here today, inasmuch as it involved neither an American heiress nor a title of European nobility. The bride was Miss Julia Smith, a young negress living in the town of Almagro, and the bridegroom Prince Nadikane Q. Cele, whose father is said to be a high potentate of the Zulus in South Africa.

Prince Cele came to the United States about seven years ago, having heard of the country and its opportunities through a missionary in South Africa. He took his first lesson in English speaking at the Slater School in Winston-Salem, N.C., and while there learned of Hampton Institute, where he went the next year. Recently he finished a six-year course at Hampton, where his bride of today also was a student.

At Hampton Prince Cele mastered the wheelwright and blacksmith trades and gained a knowledge of other practical arts. Now he intends to return with his bride to his native land and together they will endeavor to teach the Zulus to make use of their natural resources. They also will conduct an active campaign in behalf of Christianity. As a missionary the Prince's expenses will be paid by Hampton Institute.

BEEF PRICES DROP UNDER NEW TARIFF

Detroit, Oct. 22.—The retail price of beef has dropped from 1 to 2 cents a pound on different grades since the new Tariff law went into effect. When the law became operative at the beginning of the month, several carloads of cattle were imported from Canada, but few have come since. Detroit retail butchers are going to Windsor for their supplies, which has had the effect of raising prices in the Canadian cities along the border. The first rush almost caused a meat famine in Windsor, but now large numbers of Canadian cattle are coming in from the interior of the province, making the supply almost normal, but having no apparent effect on prices. Retailers do not expect there will be any reduction, because Detroit can absorb all the live stock raised in the western part of Ontario. Buffalo and the New England cities are expected to take all that Canada has for export in the East.

Detroit retailers are losing a good deal of trade because of the law, thrifty women going to Windsor for meat, eggs and butter. They can save considerable in this way, as the ferry fare to Windsor is only 5 cts.

A new play which will be among the productions of the season is called "Under Cover," and Florence Reed will have the leading part in it.
