Game Played by American Pacific
Coast Clubs

After the All Black team of New Zealand played against the California varsity and the Olympic and Barbarian Clubs of San Francisco, each of which they shut out with ease, while rolling up an aggregate score of about 75 points, J. D. Guiney, representing the team, bluntly summed-up his opinion of the brand of Rugby played by the teams in California: "You don't know how to play the game."

The New Zealander criticized the American style of forward play and expressed displeasure at the rough tactics and "anything to win" spirit of the American players.

"It has been the experience of our teams that they have visited the United States," he said, "that the American players are not content to rely upon skill and stamina alone for the victory. In other words, the element of good, clean sportsmanship has not been highly developed in American Rugby."

At Stanford University, Wednesday, the All-Blacks gave emphasis to it's captain's criticism when it smothered Stanford 54 to 0.

GEORGE STOVALL WILL

MANAGE KANSAS CITY

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 20—George Stovall, formerly manager of the St. Louis American League baseball club, came to terms tonight with the directors of the Kansas City Club of the Federal League to manage the local team next season.

Stovall announced that he would not sign his contract, however, until Nov. 1, when Robert Hedges, president of the St. Louis club, has promised to give an answer to Stovall's request for an unconditional release.

It is understood Stovall's contract which is for three years, calls for a salary of $7000 a year and a substantial bonus for signing. Before playing with St. Louis Stovall was with the Cleveland Americans.

YESTERDAY'S GAME.

Coach "Hump" Campbell of the U.N.B. Rugby team, who was at the Dalhousie-Mount Allison game at Sackville yesterday, tells The Mail the following about the game: "It was a hard game. The playing was close throughout. There was also lots of rough work with Mount A. starting it and Dalhousie going back at them. The game was not as good as that played here Monday. Mount A. has two fast outside halves but they failed to kick when they had the advantage of the wind. Their halves are not as good as those of U.N.B. but the whole team is heavy. On the form shown by the two teams as I have seen here, U.N.B. should win. Mount A. scored on Dal by taking a curious chance that offered itself. Godfrey was forced into touch ten yards from the Dalhousie line. As soon as the flag went up he passed in to one of his forwards, who was not covered and the try followed."

FREDDIE WELSH WON

FROM SAYLOR ON FOUL

Winnipeg, Oct. 21—After being warned for hitting low at the start of the ninth round, "Young" Saylor of Indianapolis, lost a scheduled 12-round bout last night to Freddie Welsh by fouling his opponent near the finish of the ninth round. Up to this round Welsh had outboxed his opponent in nearly every round and his clever ring generalship had the American boy guessing.

COX DROVE DEL RAY

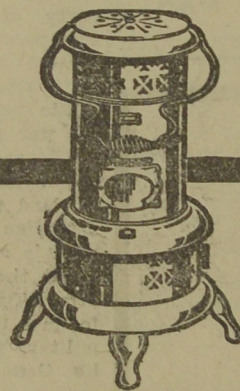

TO WIN AT DALLAS

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 20—The New England trainer, Walter Cox, drove the bay stallion, Del Rey, to a victory in the $2500 stake for 2:20 pacers at the opening of the Texas State Fair races today. The stallion easily outclassed the field.

The star reinsman, Tom Murphy, was not as successful as Cox, his mount, Marigold, being beaten in the 2:06 trot by both Tommy Finch and Pee Wee. The Texas trotter, Gov Holford, scored an easy victory in the class for green trotters.

Thomas V. Ross is going to restag Henry Blossom's play, "Checkers," as a motion picture play and will act his old part in it.

Scrim is Heavy and Halves Pass
Well--Wanderers Lost Through Poor Playing

(Halifax Chronicle, Tuesday)

With victory in the hollow of their hands, the Wanderers team yesterday allowed Acadia to make a second try in the last five minutes of the game and lost to the collegians by the close score of 5-6. Had the Wanderers quarters played their game properly, a very different score would have resulted. The Wanderers did not have their regular team, a number of the seniors not being able to be on hand for the match. Some of the juniors played in solid, steady style, but as a whole they were not to be compared with the more experienced regulars Phillips, Bauld, Gorham, Usher, Te Wolfe and Gilis were all absent, and their absence was sorely felt. Nevertheless had the quarters of the team, such as it was, showed a little life, Acadia would scarcely have returned to Wolfville victorious.

The Wanderers halves, Wood, Medcalf, Mahon and Fluke were in good form yesterday and played so well together that had they been given a chance with the pigskin they would have broken through several times. The local quarters must learn to feed their halves, and not attempt to make individual rushes with the ball when it comes from the scrim.

ACADIA'S SCRIM GOOD

Acadia's scrim was a good one. The college forwards heeled the ball about five times in six and the quarters passed the ball back to the halves, whose combination was a feature of the day. The Wanderers forwards were all right in the loose work and followed it consistently.

The ground was wet, and good football was, as a consequence, almost impossible, fumbling occurring frequently. Rough work was also apparent, though the referee did not see many of the shady plays. The visitors were as great offenders in this respect as were their hosts.

ACADIA SCORES FIRST

Before the first five minutes of the opening half had elapsed, Acadia got across the line for the opening tally. The ball was placed right behind the posts, the Wanderers' defense not being properly on guard. Wood tackled his man, but he managed to pass as he fell and the second collegian, uncovered, had no difficulty in scoring. Despite the good position of the kick, Acadia failed to convert. Play ranged from end to end until fourteen minutes had elapsed when R. Gorham on a short rush from a scrim near the college line, scored for his team. Desbrisay, by a well-judged kick converted and placed the Wanderers in the lead. The half closed with the score 5-3. A feature of the first period was Wood's tackling and kicking. Medcalf was also in good fettle. The Acadia halves showed considerable skill in their passing but were not the equal of the victorious speed men of the Wolfville team of last year.

The second half was very close, both teams endeavoring to clinch a victory. As the seconds flew and neither side scored, the Wanderers, with two points to the good, had the appearance of sure winners. During the last five minutes of the game, however, a bad pass by a local half lost the game. An Acadia man saw his chance, neatly intercepted the pass and fell over the line, pulling Budolf, the Wanderers' full back, with him. Acadia did not convert. There was no further score and the Acadia players were the winners.

Lieutenant G. G. G. refereed satisfactorily, although he had a difficult task.

WARM HOME-COMING

FOR PITCHER BUSH

Brainerd, Minn. Oct. 20—Several thousand baseball enthusiasts greeted Leslie Bush of the Philadelphia Athletics upon his arrival home today. As he stepped from the train, Bush was seized and tossed aloft by his friends. Every whistle in town screamed a welcome and several factories and business houses closed to permit employees to attend the celebration which included an automobile parade. The home-coming festivities were concluded with a dance tonight.
