THE LIBERAL MONTHLY

A new form of periodical literature has appeared in Canadian Liberal Monthly, the purpose of which is to provide a medium for the discussion of political measures and principles such as provided by some of the political monthlies and quartiles in Great Britain. The magazine is published from the Central Information Office of the Canadian Liberal party in Ottawa. Its first number deals instructively with such topics as "The principles of Liberalism," "The Borden Government," "The Navy question," "By-elections, past and present," and so on, and contains original cartoons on political subjects. In laying down its policy, the editor says:

"The national and Imperial questions of the present have revived a form of public discussion less fugitive than that of the press, and less ephemeral than that of parliamentary debate or the public platform. The question of reciprocity involved a consideration of issues which are fundamental as regards taxation and trade; the Naval question which has succeeded it, involves political considerations that lie at the very foundations of government and national well-being as they exist in the British Empire to-day. Both questions have produced a volume of political literature in previous years. Some of the methods and tendencies of public discussion on these subjects have compelled a reconsideration of first principles and a closer examination of the aims and objects of the political parties of the Dominion. In being thus forced to reassert fundamental principles, Liberalism in Canada has gained immensely in strength and vitality, and its true significance and purpose being better understood, it gives promise of becoming increasingly powerful in moulding and directing public opinion. The "Canadian Liberal Monthly" appears at this time, neither as a rival nor as a competitor of any of the agencies already at work in the spread of Liberal ideas. Its purpose is rather to co-operate with these by assisting to bring together and preserve in a form available for ready and permanent reference, expressions of Liberal thought and records of Liberal achievement."

The periodical will doubtless be welcomed by Liberals as a central medium for fuller discussion of first principles than is possible in the daily press. But it will fill a larger purpose than that, for if it carries out the programme it has laid down, it will prove indispensable to all who desire a fair understanding of public questions.

Announcement is made that beginning with the October number Mr. H. Gadsby, one of the most brilliant writers in Canada will write a series of character sketches on the members of the Borden Ministry.

The total number of paid admissions at the Nova Scotia provincial exhibition held in the city of Halifax was fifty nine thousand. The number of paid admissions at the exhibition held here last week was thirty-two thousand in round figures. Halifax has a population of fifty thousand while the population of Fredericton is only eight thousand. Had the Halifax exhibition been as successful in point of numbers as that held in the New Brunswick Capital it would have had an attendance of two hundred thousand.

Local Tories are complaining that Mr. Pinder is making altogether too much talk over the Fredericton bridge job. Mr. Pinder has his eye out for votes and he knows that the people of this county will not stand for such an extravagant waste of public money. The Tories who are doing the complaining are in most cases office holders. The independent element of the party lose no opportunity to denounce the bridge job.

Mr. James Ross, whose death occurred at Montreal, on Saturday, was one of Canada's great industrial leaders. When a young man he achieved fame as a railway builder and afterwards became associated with many big industrial enterprises. He was a native of Scotland.

The Federal Tory organizer Harry Woods made a pilgrimage to Northumberland County a few days ago. He did not go to Commodore Stewart for advice, nor did he spend any time cruising over the Chelmsford section of the Intercolonial Railway.

That eminent has been Mr. Donald Morrison was his companion on a trip to the down river parishes.

THE LIBERALS DID IT

At a gathering last week up in the parish of Southampton a Milville man asked a Temperance Vale man: "How he accounted for the big turn over in Coun. Pat. Graham's vote from being fourth man last time to leading the poll so far this time?" "Oh, the Liberals put him there," was the quick answer of the Temperance Vale man.

Montreal's Narrow Streets

"Montreal is wrongly built," said Dr. Louis Laberge, Chief Medical Officer of Health of that city. "The streets are too narrow, and do not let enough sunlight reach the ground for the prevalence of good health. The sun is a good decomposing force. If it is allowed to shine on the ground the heat penetrates several feet and in the night it evaporates and breaks up all the putrescent vegetable matter. With our narrow streets this cannot be done. It is certainly a most serious problem for us to face. It cannot be remedied without the spending of much money."

CATARRH OR COLDS NEVER QUICKLY CURED BY SWALLOWING DRUGS

Cough Syrup, Tablets, etc., go to the Stomach, Perhaps Sicken It, But Don't Kill the Germs of Catarrh

THE DIRECT BREATHING CURE IS BEST

To cure an ailment in the throat, or chest, to rout out Catarrh or Asthma, it is essential that the medicine be conveyed direct to the affected parts. This is why no other remedy has achieved such world-wide success as Catarrhazone, which alone can be breathed in one second to every air cell in the breathing organs. The healing vapors of Catarrhazone mix with the breath and descend through the throat, down the bronchial tubes, to the deepest air-cells in the lungs—all parts are saturated with the rich piney essences that ease, heal and cure.

"No one ever contracted a more obstinate attack of nasal catarrh than I suffered a month ago," writes Mrs. G. E. Root, a well-known resident of Bridgetown, W.I. "My head ached terrifically, I sneezed about every three minutes but still my nostrils were entirely closed and I could not breathe through them. Ten minutes inhaling Catarrhazone gave me a little relief, so I continued to use Catarrhazone every hour and before the day was out I had improved. Catarrhazone quickly cured me. I am well ever since."

There is no remedy so certain and safe as Catarrhazone, but being a good remedy it is imitated. Beware of the substitutor. Large Catarrhazone lasts two months, price $1.00; smaller sizes 25c. and 50c. At all storekeepers and druggists, or The Catarrhazone Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Canada.
