MUCH INTEREST IN THE U. S. ELECTIONS

Exciting Contests in Numerous States and Cities Throughout the Country--President Wilson Much Interested in the Fight in His Home State--Seven Entries for Gubernatorial Race in Massachusetts---Hot Major Campaign in N.Y. City

Washington, D.C., Oct. 30.—Elections will be held next Tuesday in numerous states and cities throughout the country. Interest in the outcome centers largely in New Jersey and Massachusetts, where governors and other state officials are to be elected, and in Maryland, where the voters are to choose a United States senator, state controller and clerk of the Court of Appeals.

Official Washington is looking forward to the results of the election with many evidences of anxious interest. The President is most largely concerned in the outcome in his home state of New Jersey, where, through Secretary Bryan, he has made known his attitude regarding the situation.

With a governor, eight state senators and sixty assemblymen to be chosen in a three-cornered contest, the political battle in New Jersey is complex. The views of the political managers on the outcome of the election vary greatly. The state chairman of each of the three political parties battling in the state is claiming the victory for his candidate. With Acting Governor James E. Fielder waging a fight for the Wilson policies, ex-State Senator Everett Colby carrying the Progressive banner, and former Governor Edward C. Stokes leading a re-united and strongly recruited Republican army, to predict the result of the contest would be sheer guesswork.

Even more complex than the situation in New Jersey is that presented in Massachusetts, where the gubernatorial race is being run with seven entries. Eugene N. Foss, the present governor, is seeking re-election as an independent. Charles S. Bird, who was a candidate last year, is again the standard-bearer of the Progressive party. The Republicans have nominated for governor Congressman A. P. Gardner, well remembered as one of the leaders of the insurgent movement against Speaker Cannon. The Democratic candidate is David I. Walsh, the present lieutenant governor. The election is regarded as most important because of the effect it will have upon the future of the Republican and Progressive parties. Public sentiment in regards to the Wilson administration will hardly be reflected either in a Democratic victory or defeat, since the state platform of that party makes no reference to the administration or the tariff bill.

The election of a United States senator to succeed the late Isidor Rayner is the big feature of the Maryland campaign. William P. Jackson, Republican, was appointed to the position by Governor Goldsborough pending the election of a successor by the legislature, but with the adoption of the constitutional amendment providing for the popular election of United States senators, the governor decided to substitute the choice of the people for his own personal selection. The candidates for the senatorship are Blair Lee, Democrat; Thomas Parran, Republican, and George L. Wellington, Progressive.

In point of interest the mayoralty campaign in New York City far exceeds that of the state contests. The fight is between Edward E. McCall, the Democratic candidate, and John Purroy Mitchell, the choice of the Fusionists, or those opposed to Tammany rule. That the result will determine finally the status of Chas. F. Murphy as boss of Tammany Hall, is the general opinion expressed by the politicians.

Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Cincinnati and a number of other large cities of the country also have important elections on for next Tuesday. In each of these municipal contests, as in New York, the reform question is a dominant issue.

COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER TYPE OF NEW SCHOOL

Delegation From School Board will visit Woodstock and Inspect New Fisher Memorial School--Financial Arrangements Made Re New Site--Improvements for Morrison's Mill School

The regular monthly meeting of the School Board was held yesterday with the chairman, Dr. VanWart, presiding. The other members in attendance were Mrs. Clark, Mr. Sterling, Mr. Weddall, Mr. Sharkey, Mr. Spurden, Dr. Crockett and Mr. Le-mont.

In the report of the secretary it was shown that great inconvenience is experienced by the big enrolment in several of the schools and the need of an additional school building was emphasized. A considerable portion of the session was devoted to a discussion of the best kind of a building required for the future growth of the city. The whole question was relegated to a committee composed of Chairman VanWart, Mr. Sterling and Mr. Weddall. These gentlemen were asked to visit Woodstock and inspect the Fisher Memorial Building, said to be one of the best structures of the kind in the province.

NO MORE LONG SESSIONS.

In reply to the Board's request to the Board of Education for authority to close the city schools with one long session when in the judgment of the trustees it would be advisable to do so, a letter was read from the chief superintendent of education refusing to grant the request. It has been customary to send the children home with one long session on a stormy day when the weather is often unfit for grown people to be out; also to give the children a half holiday for skating and to allow the teachers to attend the U.N.B. Encenia or perhaps to witness the opening of the House. This is all done away with now.

Applications for schools were read from Misses Dorothy F. Doohan and Florence E. O'Brien. Their names were placed on the applicants' book.

TO DEDUCT FOR ABSENCE.

An order was adopted requiring the secretary to deduct from salary of teachers for time absent from duty except in case of sickness when one week will be allowed in a term.

LIEUT.-GOVERNOR'S MEDAL.

The Lieutenant-Governor's Medal for Miss Helen Richardson, who led the county in the High School entrance examination, was laid on the table. On motion of Mr. Weddall, the presentation of this medal will be made during the Christmas public examination and in the event of the Lieutenant-Governor being in the city at the time he will be requested to make the presentation; if not, the chairman will perform the pleasant duty.

BONAR LAW ON HOME RULE

The Tory Leader Pledges Support of Unionists Against Home Rule

Appeared on the Same Platform at Newcastle With Sir Edward Carson

Newcastle, Eng., Oct. 29.—Speaking from the same platform as Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, Andrew Bonar Law, the opposition leader in the House of Commons, tonight pledged the support of the Unionist party to Ulster, even to the extent of forcible resistance to Home Rule. But his eagerly-awaited reply to Premier Asquith's offer of a compromise on October 25, consisted merely of a statement that the Unionists would carefully consider any proposals the prime minister cared to make relative to a solution of the Home Rule problem, if a solution were possible.

Mr. Law expressed the opinion that the only logical way the government could avoid the responsibility of plunging the country into civil war was to secure a mandate from the people by a general election, which, if it favored Home Rule, would be acquiesced in by the Unionists. He said he could not speak for Ulster, but believed that such a result might even settle the question here.

The Unionist leader compared the situation in Ulster to conditions in America preceding the civil war. He said he had urged Sir Edward Carson to attend the meeting, so that the pledge which he (Law) had made at the Blenheim Palace rally in July, 1912, to support Ulster in her resistance to Home Rule might be made perfectly clear.

The speaker maintained that the government had brought forward its land proposals in order to confuse the issue. If the government refused to go to the country, the Unionist leaders would not decline the invitation to a conference and would properly consider any proposals made to them and answer them with a real desire to find a solution.

TO BE TRIED ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Jasper, Ind., Oct. 30.—The case of Jack McCune, who was indicted for the alleged murder of his wife, Mary McCune, more than fifteen years ago, is on the court docket for the end of this week and, it is believed, will be taken up and heard without delay. This case presents many features of an unusual character and will undoubtedly attract considerable attention. Mrs. McCune, the alleged victim of the murder, died suddenly more than fifteen years ago under peculiar circumstances. Although no definite charges were made at the time it was strongly suspected by her friends and neighbors of the woman that she had been murdered by her husband to enable him to marry the girl to whom he was then paying attention. Many years passed, however, before Prosecutor Carpenter of this county was aroused to action by the persistent rumors. After a careful investigation which brought to light great deal of damaging evidence against McCune and incidentally led to his imprisonment on the charge of arson, the evidence was submitted to the grand jury which found an indictment against McCune, charging him with the murder of his wife.

PRINCE OF MONACO ENDS VISIT

New York, Oct. 29.—The Prince of Monaco ended his long visit to the United States today, and after bidding farewell to some of those who accompanied him on his tour and other persons whose acquaintance he had made in this city, boarded his private yacht, preparatory to sailing for home. Departing, the Prince made a statement expressing his appreciation of the cordiality of the American Government and people.

Canadian Pacific Sags off to 226 1-2 United States Steel Holding up Well

New York, Oct. 30.—It is apparent that another crisis in the Mexican situation is rapidly approaching with more likelihood of intervention by the United States. The administration will use every resource to avert such an issue but it begins to look as if drastic measures must be used to restore normal conditions. This factor is likely to overshadow all others in the stock market for the time being. It should be remembered, however, that an unsuccessful issue of pending attempts to restore order in Mexico has been largely discounted.

MAYOR HOOPER SAW SCHMIDT IN THE TOMBS

Returns From Trip to United States-- Says "Larry" McLean was Treated Shabbily

His Worship Mayor Hooper, after an absence of several weeks in the United States, has returned, arriving here yesterday. Today he was at the City Hall and also at his own office. His Worship much enjoyed his vacation. He states that "Larry" McLean of the New York baseball team, whom he saw in action in two games of the World's Series, received only $500 for his share of the series money. Interviews alleged to have been given by McLean in which has been said that the player received as much as the rest of the Giants, Mayor Hooper characterized as unauthorized and fakes.

While in New York the mayor visited the Tombs, the city prison, in company with Mr. J. J. McCallrey, whose brother obtained the necessary permission. There he saw Rev. Fr. Schmidt, who is held on the charge of murdering a woman and dismembering her body, and other distinguished prisoners.

"I see the City Council has done what it could have done months ago," said His Worship this morning, referring to the payment of the $17.50 item. "All that was necessary was to give the name. It was not necessary to wait till I had gone away."

While away Mayor Hooper saw several men who had played baseball here and also Umpire Tom Duffy.

OWNER DISCOVERED

The police have discovered the owner of the dead horse found near Queen's Square is a Hebrew formerly residing in Fredericton. The animal which was aged had been pastured on the hills back of the city and had wandered down to Queen's Square.

COMING EVENT

It is announced that invitations have been issued for the marriage at an early date of Mr. Ludlow Malloy and Miss Britannia Noble both of this city.

PERSONAL

Commodore Stewart, M. P. P. of Chatham is among the visitors to the city today.

Mr. Frank D. Swim, M. P. P. of Doaktown is in the city.

THE INTERPROVINCIAL CONFERENCE ENDED

Premier Flemming's Resolution Relating to Maritime Representation Was Turned Down--Delegates Were Able to Agree in a Demand for Increased Federal Subsidy--Tory Delegates Stand Pat on Highways aid Resolution

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—The conference of provincial premier and ministers, that representation through the Monday morning, was concluded this evening, one final resolution endorsing a proposal for periodical conferences, with the premiers of Ontario and Quebec as joint convenors. Yesterday the provincial ministers agreed on a unanimous request for additional federal subsidies amounting, according to the full measure of their demand, to considerably more than double of the present grants from the dominion treasury. That stands as the chief result of the conference.

A few other resolutions have been agreed upon but these are of minor importance. They include requests to the federal government for increased salaries to the lieutenant governors of the provinces, with a change in the designation of the latter by the elimination of the word "Lieut.;" the listing of certain provincial corporation securities on an equality with federally listed securities in Great Britain, as being among those in which British funds may be invested; the franking privilege for provincial public documents; and recognition by the federal government of the supreme court judgments in the companies case as being a final declaration that provincially-incorporated companies have a right to do business anywhere in Canada.

This latter resolution, passed this afternoon, will, if consented to by the dominion authorities, mean that the appeal now contemplated to the privy council by the minister of justice shall not be taken.

RESOLUTION TURNED DOWN

On a number of the resolutions discussed the conference came to no agreement. The request of the maritime provinces for a restoration of their parliamentary representation as at the time of confederation, and for

THINKS S. P. C. A. AGENT IS BADLY NEEDED IN FREDERICTON

Mrs. C. K. Palmer Gives Her Version of the Smythe Street Horse Incident--Alleges That the Animal Was Cruelly Treated--Also Cites Several Other Cases

To the Editor of the Mail
MR. EDITOR,—

I noticed a piece in last night's paper headed, "Horse had narrow escape from friends." I am sorry the writer did not give the name of the ignorant woman. If it was the owner of that very valuable horse that gave you, Mr. Editor, your information, I am not surprised that he withheld my name and had the article fixed up as nicely as possible—and as a joke—for I am sure no sane man would want the public to know the condition the animal was in. Whoever wrote it was ashamed to sign his name and no wonder, for there was some awful falsehoods in it. The first thing I wish to say is, that when the public hear the rights of the story I think it will agree with me that this is no joke.

I will first correct the falsehoods, then I will give you the truth about the condition of the animal. There had been no arrangements made to shoot the horse, that is the truth although in no other city would such cruelty have been allowed, for an animal to suffer as that one was (and I stood by it for nearly two hours).

Policeman Marshall was the man that came and he was not even permitted to shoot the animal. This is falsehood No. 1.

Now No. 2 is this. The writer says, "The horse had been lame a day or two and was turned out on the grass in front of the owner's residence and had laid down to rest and sleep. Poor brute, it's a pity it had not been its last sleep. Probably it was sleepy for a gentleman who seemed to know the owner of the animal and also of the conditions of the stall the poor horse stood in, told me that the stall was so narrow that the horse could not lie down consequently it had to stand on three legs until it was paralyzed. This same gentleman told me that the man that drove that horse this summer was the cause of the horse being in the condition it was in for he was the most cruel man that ever drew a rein over a horse. He also remarked that this man should be shot before the horse was."

Now I will give all facts about the horse as I saw it with dozens of others. I had been up to the stable where I am keeping my horse and as I turned the corner of Saunders and Smythe streets I heard the groans of some animal. After a few moments I looked over in the vacant lot formerly known as the Duffy Lot, and away over near the fence I discovered where the groans were coming from. The horse was down and could not
