OPENS WEDNESDAY.

The convention will open on next Wednesday morning with a communon service in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. The bishops will meet at the old Synod Hall, the deputies at the new Synod Hall. At the appointed time a procession will be formed, led by the famous Cathedral choir under the direction of Miles Farrow, the choir leader and organist of the Cathedral. Following the choir will come the members of the house of deputies and these in turn will be followed by the bishops, marching in reverse order of their rank, carrying out the divine command that "the last shall be the first and the first last.'

SOLEMN COMMUNION.

From the old Synod House the procession will march to the Cathedral, where a solemn communion service will be conducted by Bishop Tut- are under way. Miss Leavitt tle, assisted by Bishop David H. Howick will give 75 majority for the Grits; it always does that. Ste. Martine is likely to split about even. St. Chrysostome will give a Liberal majority in spite of the fact that James Morris, the Tory momine(s, lives there. Chateauguay village will pile up a fine lead for Fisher and so will

Chateauguay Basin. St. Clotilde is conceded to the Liberals. St. Antoine is closer but the October 1. chances for a Grit lead are good. St. Urbain will go strong for Fisher while St. Philomene is ! kely to break even. But there is a majority of 150 in Chateauguay for the Hon. Sydney Fisher. On the streets of Howick it is freely said that Fisher will win by a fine majority. The Liberals are working hard and are confident or
