ANDERSON READY FOR DAVIS CUP MATCHES

Great Australian Tennis Player Getting in Shape After Serious Illness—Looks Good.

New York, Aug. 28—James O. Anderson, star Australian tennis player, upon whom his teammates are depending for two victories in the challenge round of the Davis Cup contest at Forest Hills this week has arrived and is practicing on the West Side Club courts, where the international matches will be played.

Anderson was incapacitated soon after his arrival in this country and was unable to play in either of the preliminary matches against France and Spain. He was attacked by a heavy cold and went to Saranac Lake to rest.

He has played only a couple of sets since leaving Boston so he devoted himself to trying out strokes in practice with R. C. Wertheim substitute member of the team.

"I think the layoff has helped my game, as well as enabled me to regain my strength, and I found them breaking pretty well," he said tonight.

Julian S. Myrick, president of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, went to Boston to attend a meeting of the Davis Cup committee called to discuss the coming contest.

R. Norris Williams 2d, captain of the American team has warned the other members that they must give strict attention to training rules prescribed some weeks ago to avoid a physical let-down.

WOODRING GOES TO PENN

Syracuse, Aug. 28—Allan Woodring, Olympic 200-metre champion of Syracuse University and one of the greatest sprinters in the collegiate world has decided to leave Syracuse and enter the University of Pennsylvania according to a well-founded report today.

Woodring is now at his home in Bethlehem Penn.

It has been known since college closed last Spring that Woodring was considering leaving Syracuse and it is no surprise to Orange track team followers to learn he has definitely decided to quit.

He still has one year of eligibility left. If he enters the University of Pennsylvania he would have to attend one year before competing in varsity athletics. Al Monie, Woodring's roommate has also decided not to return to Syracuse.

A mas, to be a hero must pursue ends beyond himself—must pursue the mby legitimate means and pursue them as a man and not as a dreamer.

TENDERS FOR BREAD

Sealed tenders will be received up to 12 o'clock noon the 4th day of September 1922 for the supply of Bread to the Municipal Home for one year from September 1st 1922.

HERE—AND ALSO THERE

Fred ("Unk") Fraser a member of the Crescents Halifax hockey team in 1921-22 has gone to Boston he played centre position with the Halifax team last season and his ability to score helped his team to hang up 13 straight wins. Is this the beginning of another migration of hockey players from the Maritime Provinces to The Hub.

When the Maritime track and Field Championships are held at Halifax next month some of the old timers expect to see some former Maritime records broken. Grant Holmes and Billy Mooney are in training for the mile run and 880 yards dash. Billy Ross in 1908 set a new record in the latter event.

Boston Globe: If Canada is to send down some of its track and field champions to the A. A. U. met in Newark the sprinters would be glad to see Cyril Coaffee of Winnipeg in the party. That's the man who did 9 4—5s in Calgary recently.

Suit for divorce was filed in Circuit Court at St. Louis against Loren Murchison Club by Geneva Murchison who alleges he was more devoted to athletics than to her. She stated he deserted her July 25 and went to Chicago. The Murchison's were married in April, 1919.

Already there is talk of senior Rugby football in St. John. The Telegraph says the Trojan Athletic Club is about to take up the game.

RECORD PRICE FOR YEARLING

Deauville, France Aug. 28—A. K. Macomber, American horseman, has paid the record price reached by any of the 1922 crop of yearlings when he gave 170,000 francs plus the government tax of 17 1/2 per cent on the purchase price for the good looking son of Sardanapale, the winner of the 1914 Grand Prix. Mr. Macomber paid in round numbers 200,000 francs.

King Alfonso of Spain on the other hand holds the record for the low price. Recently he paid 2000 francs for Ogresse, daughter of Verwood, when other persons refrained from bidding out of respect for royalty.

NOT PATRIOTISM SAYS SHAW

London Aug. 28—In a special message to the Guardian on the death of Michael Collins, Bernard Shaw said:

"Ireland is suffering from an epidemic of homicidal mania and is calling it patriotism. If the Collins murder doesn't turn every sensible Irishman into a desolute special constable the country must perish because if it cannot govern itself no power on earth cannot govern it. Self-government will become self extermination."

Don't presume too much on the weakness of your enemy or the strength of your friend.

DEMPSEY READY FOR SOME EASY MONEY

Willing to Fight Firpo in South America—Tex Rickard Ready to Stage Bout.

New York, Aug. 28—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion is willing to go to South America either this Fall or next Spring to meet Lus Angel Firpo, holder of the South American crown and Tex Rickard noted promoter is willing to stage the bout.

After a conference with Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager Rickard announced that the suggested match depends on Firpo.

Some time ago Rickard declared that he was too busy in the United States to take a flier below the Equator and earlier that that Kearns declared that Dempsey had a $500,000 offer to go to Argentina but would not accept it.

OVERTURN IN YALE BASEBALL

New Haven, Aug. 28—Official announcement was made that E. A. B. Tommers, Yale baseball coach and the entire graduate baseball committee at Yale which had been in power for three years have been "fired" by Capt Elect Caleb Eddy of the 1923 baseball team. Tommers had been coach for a year at Yale succeeding Billy Launder and brought the Yale team through to a championship in the Yale-Harvard Princeton series.

The announcement is made that Eddy, who never hitched well with Tommers desired new and young blood at the helm in Yale baseball affairs. The coach to succeed Tommers has not been named but the committee has, and it probably will be approved at the September meeting of the board of control.

WAVED SNAKE IN THE CROWD

Boston, Aug. 28—A sudden panic was created among 500 people at tending a carnival in the old Locust st grounds, South Boston last night when a young man appeared in the midst of the merry-makers with a large live snake in his hand. With out a word he began to dance back and forth waving the writhing snake over his head. He slashed the women and children with the bloody head of the reptile all the time keeping up a weird rhythm back and forth. For 10 minutes he pursued the frightened people around the grounds he threw the snake into the air caught it and threw it again at a group of women and girls huddled against a tent.

Somebody called the police. Just as the reserves were pushing through the frightened crowd, the man broke his queer silence with a loud yell and dashing out with the snake now daed dangling behind him. Hundreds of boys took up the chase and pursued the man through Andrew sq. He escaped.

The police said that the snake had escaped from a sideshow in the carnival. They believe that the man caught the snake as it wriggled away from the tent which housed the snake charmers and their reptile pets.

ZION SEPARATES THE BATHERS

Zion City, Ill., Aug. 28—Wilbur Glenn Voliva, Overseer of Zion has decreed that in addition to keeping themselves well covered male and female bathers must be segregated at the Zion Beach.

A WAIST HOLD.

Ted—What did Madge say when you rocked the hammock last night?
Ned—She told me to hold on and I did.

Wit without wisdom is a dangerous weapon.

To be humble to superiors is duty to equals is courtesy to inferiors is nobleness and to all safety.

TURNED OVER HIS ESTATE

London, Aug. 25—Lord Rosebery has made over his principal estate Wentmore near Leighton-Buzzard to Lord Dalmeny his eldest son. Lord Rosebery's reason is that he desires to pass the twilight of his life in complete seclusion, but some unkind folks here hint that as he is 75 he probably is thinking that Dalmeny shan't pay the inheritance tax (death duties) when the time comes.

Lord Dalmeny is famous only for his skill at cricket. The only son with any talent in politics, Neil Primrose was killed in Palestine fighting with the Bucks Hussars against the Turks.

MOST IMPORTANT.

Grimshaw—So your brother has a position as movie censor? I suppose it is his duty to see everything that goes on?

Crabshaw—No, it's his duty to see everything that comes off.
