"Fourteen years ago I got the cords of my left wrist nearly severed, and for about nine months I had no use of my hand. I tried other liniments, also doctors, and was receiving no benefit. Under persuasion from a friend I got Minard's Liniment and used one bottle which completely ended my trouble. I have been using Minard's Liniment in my family ever since and find it the same as when I first used it."

Verdict of Accidental Death Brought in By The Coroner's Jury

A verdict of accidental death with, but slightly from the details published Wednesday. The deceased when he passed the Palace Bowling Alley was on the left side of Carleton street but soon after that "cut the corner" crossing to the right side of the street at the intersection with Brunswick street. When the car approached him Mr. Smith tried to turn to the left but ran into the car. He was tossed from his bicycle and one of his arms broke the windshield. He fell upon the hood and from it to the street and dragged and when the car was stopped was found between the front wheels with the wreck of the bicycle. One wheel was near his head but had not gone over it. Mr. Warnock the driver of the car said he was unacquainted with the streets having just arrived and was driving under the direction of Mr. Lee. His speed was not more than seven miles an hour. His attention strayed from the street a moment and when it returned he noticed the cyclist in front of him. He set his brakes reversed, used the emergency brake and stalled his engine. The car stopped in a short distance and did not go over the man.

The victim of the accident was picked up unconscious and never regained consciousness passing away in Victoria Hospital more than an hour after the accident.

It is known that the deceased was not a skillful cyclist. He had purchased his bicycle recently.

Alex. Murray was foreman of the jury. The other jurymen were Hedley Forbes, W. R. Fraser, E. O. McDonald, Fred Segee, Harry Walker, Leslie Mayor and Fred Saunders.

The witnesses examined were John King and John Searles who observed the accident from the Palace Bowling Alley entrance. Dr. W. H. Irvine who was summoned to attend the injured man, James Warnock of Milltown who was driving the car which struck the victim, Mrs. James Warnock of Milltown and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lee and Miss Annie Lee of St. Stephen who were in the car.

The circumstances of the sad accident as told by the witnesses differed

Probing New Jersey's Double Murder Mystery

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 2.—Charlotte Mills, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, choir leader, whose body was found beside that of Rev. Edward W. Hall in a field Sept. 16, was again brought into the investigation of the double murder today.

The girl's first active participation in the case occurred last week when she appealed to Gov. Edwards for aid, with the result that the Governor requested detectives of the State Police to cooperate with the local authorities.

Today Miss Mills was taken by a detective from her class in High School to the office of prosecutor Beekman, where she remained two hours.

Girl Tired of Delay

Commenting upon her visit to the prosecutor, she said:

"They wanted to know what right I had to go to Gov. Edwards and ask him to help me get justice. I told them I had every right and I believed they were not doing anything to find the person or persons who killed my mother. I told them this was reason enough.

"From the questions they asked I am convinced they are not getting anywhere. I am heartily sick and tired of answering a lot of questions when they might better employ their time in finding the murderer. If no one else is interested, at least I am."

The girl also said that up to date no member of the church congregation has called on her to express sympathy with her in the loss of her mother.

While Miss Mills was voicing these criticisms, the investigation was progressing in New Brunswick as well as in New York and Philadelphia.

Charles Collins, a county detective today went to Philadelphia, where he said he learned from a Philadelphia detective that Mrs. Hall on Sept. 20 took some garments to be cleaned by a firm in that city. Records of the cleaning establishment, he said, did not show the exact nature of the work done on the clothing.

That pain is not rheumatism or neuralgia. Many folks think so. It is due to Catarrh, plain ordinary Catarrh and needs attention right now. Catarrh is the name of a wonderful invention that is daily fixing up chronic cases of weak throat, bronchitis and catarrh. Every breath through the Inhaler is laden with soothing, healing substances that destroy all diseased conditions in the grippy cold or any winter ill that won't find benefit in Catarrh. Which is employed by physicians, ministers, lawyers and public men throughout many foreign lands. Large size lasts two months and costs $1.00. Small size 50c., sample size 25c., all store-keepers or the Catarrh Co.

The detectives today redoubled their efforts to find two men said to have disappeared from New Brunswick about the time of the shooting.

One of the men, said to be an ex-convict, was declared by investigators to have made the statement in Elizabeth, N. J., that he could not return to New Brunswick because he "got in a jam" there.
