HOBOS RODE IN PULLMANS

Chicago, Aug. 14—The rail strike may worry most citizens, but according to Dr. Ben L. Reitman, vice president of the Hobo College here it has proved a season of bliss.
The hoboes, Dr. Reitman says, beat the railroads by signing up in Chicago to do shop work at distant points. The railroads ship them in pullman cars, with free meals in the diners and the best of everything. At his destination the hobo works a day or two and jumps his job. Soon he is signing up with another road for a more distant point.
Hoboes thus are "seeing America first," with only an occasional day of work to spoil a wonderful holiday.
The happiest people on earth are those who are busiest in taking care of the happiness and welfare of others.

FAKE MARQUIS IS JUGGED

Paris, Aug. 14—Ralph Cuira, a young Italian, who posed as a marquis in order to gain the confidence of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, Jr., of New York, was sentenced Saturday to eighteen months' imprisonment for attempted blackmail.
Cuira was engaged by Mr. Fahnestock as a valet and soon gained the sympathy of his employer with tales

NOW SHOWING AT THE GAIETY

The Monday-Tuesday play is "His Back Against the Wall" featuring Raymond Halton.
A happy mixture of humor and pathos is to be found in "His Back Against the Wall," which is the tale of a tailor's assistant who is a prey to fear. Employed in a little East Side sweatshop, there's hardly a moment when a dread of one kind or another isn't presenting itself to this "cowardly cunard." He's afraid of his work, afraid of his employer, afraid of life. He lives and works in fear. Although the story is presented amusingly and you find yourself having a perfectly beautiful time at the expense of this poor unfortunate fellow, at the same time it brings home a realization of the demoralizing influence of that persistent enemy of man—fear.
Fox News, Topics of the Day and Aesop's Fables completes a fine programme.

of his noble rank and the loss of his fortune through gambling.
His place once established, the man proceeded to his blackmailing attempts. The Paris police, however were informed and Cuira fell into a trap prepared for him.
Pride is as great a beggar as want and a great deal more saucy.
Better be 10 minutes ahead than 10 seconds behind.

SHE HAS RAISED A FAMILY OF TEN

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry Never Failed Her.

Mrs. Irvin W. Stairs, East Waterville, N. B., writes:—"I have raised a family of ten children and have always used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for summer complaint, and it has never failed.
Four years ago, when the cholera was about, some of my neighbors called in the doctor, but could get no relief. I told them about 'Dr. Fowler's', and after taking it they were soon well again. I also used it for two of my own children at the same time when they were passing blood, and a few doses soon made them well.
If you want to be on the safe side ask for Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and insist on getting what you ask for. There are many imitations on the market, so be sure and 50c a bottle; put up only by The T. get the original 'Dr. Fowler's'; price Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
