SPRING SONG

The notes will all be popping first.

Signs of the Zodiac Losing Their Thrills

(New York Sun)

The Signs of the Zodiac are pictures in which people have lost interest. Children used to learn them in the almanac, but where is the almanac? Once the almanac with its dingy green paper cover of its sickly pale yellow cover was a household companion. It was a fireside companion because it often hung by its string from a nail in the tall mantlepiece above the fireplace.

It was an interesting thing to read by candle light or coal oil lamp light when the "supper things" had been cleared away washed and put in the cupboard and the evening chores were done. Times have changed.

Few persons care a rap to day about the old fashioned almanac with its "phases of the moon" time of high tide and low tide time for planting field and garden seeds remedies for frostbite and chilblains recipes for making ginger cookies "comic jokes" and facts about the diameter of the world the length of the Mississippi River the height of Mount Everest and date of the marriage of Pocahontas and other information. Even children knew the signs of the zodiac and generally knew what the signs meant. Ask a modern child will no doubt flunk.

It is all very simple. The path which the sun appears to follow the travelling around the earth is called the "ecliptic." It is a wide band or path along the southern edge of which the sun travels in winter and along the northern edge of which it travels all summer. On all the other days of the year it is making circles within those limits or boundaries. Away back in time and it is believed in the time of the earliest Egyptians and Chaldeans there were watchers of the stars and skies. These original astronomers noted that path or band outside of which the sun never strayed. They saw the groups of stars or constellations that were in that path or which stretched across it. They gave names to those star groups because of some fanciful resemblance to something on earth as a dog, swar bear, bull and the like.

They divided that path into twelve parts because the sun took twelve moons to cover the course making 360 revolutions in travelling from the southern edge of the path to the northern edge and back again. Dividing the path into twelve parts they gave to each part the name of some star group which lay in or across, and very close to the path and those twelve groups although given widely different groups by the Egyptians, Chalderans, Persians, and other peoples of antiquity were translated by the early Greeks as "signs of the zodiac," or something like that. The English words are but modifications or the Greek words and they have not undergone much change in the centuries during which they have been in use.

Only a few persons looking into a clear night sky can give the names of the conspicuous stars and trace the outlines of the constellations in which they shine but many years ago most of the country dwelling Americans knew these things. Some knew them well but most of us had a speaking acquaintance with some of the bright stars and some of the bright stars and some of the striking constellations.

FIFTEEN BOILS ON NECK AT ONE TIME

Any one who has suffered from boils can sympathize with poor old Job. There was no Burdock Blood Bitters in those days, so Job had to suffer in silence. Now-a-days no one need endure the misery of boils.

Boils are simply evidences of the bad blood within coming to the surface and just when you get rid of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery.

All the poulticing and lancing you may do will not stop more coming.

What you have to do is take BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS and the blood will be cleansed of all its impurities, and then every boil will disappear.

Mr. Roy McSwain, High Bank, P. E. I., writes: "I was troubled with boils for some time, and had as many as fifteen on my neck at once. After taking one bottle of Burdock's Blood Bitters they commenced to get better, and after I had taken two bottles was relieved of them and felt much better. I think B. B. B. is a grand blood medicine, and can recommend it highly."

For the past 45 years B. B. B. has been manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Mr. Albert Graham of Montreal was in the city yesterday.

ALBANIAN

WEAR SKIRTS

Tirana Albania April 6—Trousers as the national costume for Albanian women are to disappear within the next generation. The Mohammedan mothers have decreed this after seeing the smart comfortable and sensible dresses worn by the women members of the American Red Cross mission here and observing the results of their work among the girls.

Immediately after arriving in Tirana the American nurses turned their attention to the proper clothing of the destitute poor especially the young girls whom they supplied with dresses, petticoats and shoes in place of their baggy trousers of calico, coats of sheepskin and crude moccasins.

The girls and their mothers were so delighted with the change that this mode of attire became general in the capital and is now spreading throughout the rest of the country.

SAYS BANK WAS ROTTEN

(Financial Post)

That affairs in the Merchants Bank Head Office branch at Montreal in connection with Thornton, Davidson, Exclusive Ladies Wear and a considerable number of other accounts" were "absolutely rotten" as long ago as 1915—and were so reported by him at the time—is alleged by a former inspector of the bank.

This former inspector of the Merchants declares his belief that had his report "been given the attention it deserved by the directors, Mr. Macarow would never have been appointed general manager and in that event the old bank would probably have been going as usual today."

The statements which have been made by certain directors, that they were not told what was going on, is regarded as amusing by this former officer of the bank. "I told them myself in 1915" he says, "and gave facts and figures to back up my statements."

The situation referred to above developed six months before Mr. Macarow was made general manager. The inspector referred to resigned then because Mr. Macarow took an early opportunity of letting me know that he had it in for me," and "I knew that my chances of getting anywhere in the institution were ended."

If these statements are true, and if the directors were informed at the time referred to of the position of the bank's affairs, they cannot evade responsibility for the appointment of Mr. Macarow and the developments which followed.

This is the situation which The Financial Post wants to see cleared up in the interests of the shareholders of the Merchant's Bank and in the interests of Canadian banks and Canadian banking. The government is to be congratulated on the step which has been taken to have the affair thoroughly ventilated, and responsibility placed for the "misleading" returns made to Ottawa. The Canadian Bankers Association should co-operate to this end.

"The young woman of the present day needs to be uplifted," remarked the reformer.

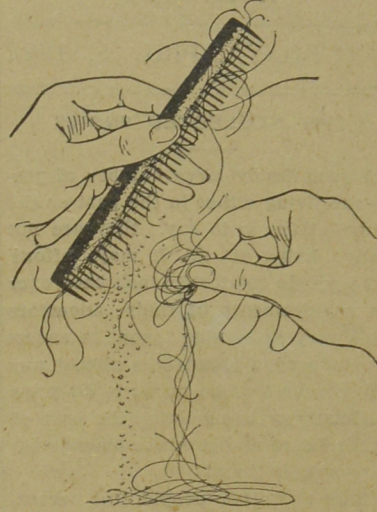

"If you wish to get the flapper on her feet," replied his practical friend "just strike up the jazz."

It peevish the neighbors to have one of their number send the washing to the laundry. Looks like an effort to conceal what the clothesline might reveal.

"A Chicago professor says all red-headed girls are bow-legged." There was a time when he might have made people believe that, but not now.

AUTO THIEVES WERE BOLD

Boston, April 4—Before the eyes of hundreds of people coming out of the Broadway Theatre, Somerville last night two bold auto thieves attempted to steal the car of George A. Murray of 85 Bartlet St. Charlestown. When discovered they held Murray up at the point of a revolver and escaped in a waiting auto.

When Murray walked towards his car which was standing on Broadway East he discovered a man inside at the wheel and another cranking the engine.

Murray ran to the car, opened the door and jumped in to get at the man at the wheel. The thief turned, drew a revolver from his pocket, pressed it against Murray's stomach and said: "You get out, or I'll blow you to pieces"

KEEP BABY WELL IN THE SPRING

Mothers who have little ones in the home find the Spring a time of great anxiety. At this season conditions make it necessary to keep the baby indoors. He is often confined to overheated and badly ventilated rooms and catches colds which rack his whole system. To guard against this a box of Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the house and an occasional dose given to the baby to keep his stomach and bowels working regularly. This will prevent colds; constipation or colic, and keep baby well. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
