J. A. CAMPBELL OBSERVES HIS 85TH BIRTHDAY

Mr. John A. Campbell, ex-M. P. P. of Kingsclear is today quietly observing his eighty-fifth birthday at his home. Mr. Campbell was born in Kingsclear of Scottish parents on February 18th, 1837 and has resided there all his life. He is one of the best known men in the county and is universally esteemed. He follows the occupation of a farmer and has always manifested the greatest interest in all matters pertaining to agriculture, particularly exhibitions. Thirty years ago he was elected president of Agricultural Society No. 34 of this city, and remained at the head of that organization up to a few years ago when he retired and was succeeded by the late Mr. William McKay. Mr. Campbell has long taken a keen interest in public affairs and in 1899 was elected to the Legislature as a supporter of the Government led by the late Hon. H. R. Emmerson. He was re-elected in 1903, but at the election of 1908 he was not a candidate. Mr. Campbell despite his advanced age is still actively engaged in farming and is capable of doing a hard days work. His numerous friends throughout the country will join with The Mail in extending hearty congratulations to him on having turned the eighty-fifth milestone and in expressing the hope that he has still many years of usefulness before him.

JOHN A. CAMPBELL, ex-M. P. P.

THE TAYLOR MYSTERY NOT YET SOLVED

Los Angeles, Feb. 17—Following a two hour re-examination of William Davis yesterday investigators, police, detectives, deputy sheriffs and others working on the mystery surrounding the murder of William Desmond Taylor, a motion picture director, resumed their duties today with the announcement that they had made practically no further progress.

Though some of the investigators eliminated Edward F. Sands former butler for Taylor, from any connection with the case, the search for the missing man has not been abandoned. Latest reports relating to him came from Hartford, Conn., where Sands was said to have been known among navy sailors during 1919 as "Chief" Snyder. Another report as that the missing butler had fled to Mexico and had been seen in Chihuahua.

HEAVY FINE FOR ASSAULT.

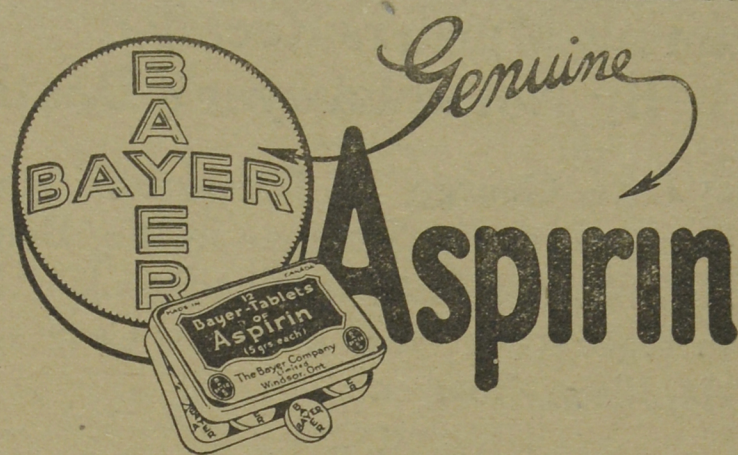

Abe Lavigne Convicted of Common Assault on Rosenfeldt.

Abe Lavigne charged with assault on Albert Rosenfeldt was convicted and fined one hundred dollars in the Police Court Friday afternoon. The option was one year in jail. Abe remarked after paying his fine that the money value of a year in jail was not very high.

The evidence in the case all was in Friday morning. In the afternoon sentence was passed. J. B. Dickson for the informant amended the charge from assault causing bodily harm to

Your Home Town Paper What it Can Do for You--

First of all, it can bring to you the NEWS of your own home town. Week after week, it prints in detail the happenings of the community. Faithfully it sets forth the goings and comings of its people, giving careful attention to the homely little items that are ignored in the overcrowded dailies of the big cities.

It can furnish you with more interesting information about people you know, or used to know than could a dozen private correspondents. The one who writes to you may know only a few of your friends at home—but your Home Town Paper knows them all. It tells you about people you are interested in.

Finally, in a good, hard business sense, your Home Town Paper is of value to you. It keeps you posted as to the industrial and commercial growth of a community which familiarity may have caused you to neglect. It often reveals that keen people see, right in your home town, a mine of golden opportunity. The moral is obvious—
