Gem Thieves Steel

$222,000 in 30 Days

New York, March 12—A series of jewelry robberies, totaling several hundred thousand dollars within the last thirty days has caused New special detective agencies to assign special detective agencies to make rigid investigations.

A $20,000 loss on Saturday, of which the police were notified late yesterday, and a holdup of a jewelry salesman in a taxicab this morning in which $15,000 worth of gems were taken are the latest cases the private agencies are working on.

The details of the $15,000 taxicab hold-up have not yet been given to the police. The private agency for the insurance company is busy on the case and when its operatives have assembled the facts to ascertain whether or not the robbery was genuine the Police Department will be called in.

Loss in Two Robberies $187,000.

The $20,000 loss Saturday involves an automobile also, but the victim instead of being held up was relieved of or lost the gems after he had been knocked down by the machine. The victim is Max Rappaport, president of the Standard Diamond Company, and he is still unconscious in a hospital. The identity of the victim in this morning's taxicab holdup is being withheld by the Luisi Investigating Company, which is investigating both robberies for insurance companies. The Luisi operatives frankly stated that gem robberies are being reported to them for investigation at the rate of one or more a day.

"Every one of them is around $10,000" said Chief Operative Parley. "We investigate solely for the insurance companies. All genuine? Well, that's what we're trying to find out."

The Luisi agency chief cited two recent cases, Henry C. Hart, a New York diamond broker, was robbed, he reported of $100,000 in unset diamonds in an elevator of a business block in the heart of the Loop at Chicago, on February 23. His office at 87 Nassau street, were related to he had been lured by a false telephone call to the place of the robbery.

The theft of $87,000 in unset diamonds became known February 28 when the details of the robbery of Isaac Levinson, a jewelry dealer, also at 87 Nassau street, were related to a reporter. The robbery occurred on February 28 and had been reported to the East Fifty-first street police, who kept it a secret. The theft was done by a clever pickpocket in an East Side Subway express.

In the Max Rappaport case accident robbery some of the $20,000 gems were uncut, some were mounted and some were loose stones. They were in his hip pocket, as far as is known when he was struck by an automobile Saturday evening at First ave.

Wife Discovered Loss of Gems

He was unconscious and was removed to the Harlem Hospital, an institution for negro patients at Lenox avenue and 136th street. When his wife and daughter called to see him the disappearance of his package of gems became known. He had only $2.09 in his pockets, and his watch and keys and chain were not taken. The Luisi Investigating Company was notified by the insurance companies, who had been notified by office associates of the still unconscious gem dealer. The agency is trying to locate every person who was near him when the automobile knocked him down, and is devoting attention to those who helped get him to the hospital and to the hospital's attendants.

Gem robberies of dealers total more than $250,000 for the first 3 months of this year, detective agencies say. Last year robbers' cost insurance companies about $1,500,000 a decrease of a million dollars compared with 1921, according to figures of the Jewelers' Security Alliance of Maiden Lane. In 1922 there were 773 attacks committed against 973 in 1921.

Chicago has the worst record with New York a close second, Kansas City St. Louis Minneapolis, St. Paul and Detroit being next in order.

The ease with which unset or set diamonds can be disposed of, and the difficulties of victims and police in identifying the stones make gem robbery a most profitable business for a certain class of specialized crooks the police say.

MOVEMENTS OF BAPTIST MINISTERS

(Maritime Baptist)

Rev. T. D. Bell, pastor of the Hampstead group of United Baptist churches, has been granted three months' leave of absence, and is engaged in work under the Home Mission Board. He is visiting Home Mission churches in Carleton and Victoria counties.

We were glad to greet Rev. G. F. Bolster on the street in St. John on Friday last. Mr. Bolster had just arrived from Winnipeg and went on Saturday to Hartland, N. B., to begin his work as pastor there on Sunday last. We shall expect to have good news from Hartland soon and often, Mr. Bolster seemed very happy to be back home.

Rev. Gideon Swin has spent the winter months in St. John and has been a regular attendant at the services of our city churches. With the opening of spring, Mr. Swin would like to re-enter upon the work of the ministry, rendering such service as he may as supply or as acting pastor to some church or group of churches. Mr. Swin is an acceptable preacher and capable of good service.

Rev. F. S. Porter, secretary of the Canadian Bible Society, has been granted the month of March for vacation. On Friday last he left St. John for Boston en route to Atlanta, Georgia, to spend his vacation with his brother, Rev. Henry Alford Porter, D. D., pastor of the Second Baptist church of that city. On March 4th, Mr. Porter was the preacher at the Highland Baptist church, Springfield, Mass., of which Rev. W. W. Weeks, D. D., was formerly pastor. He will do some more preaching while in the Southland.

We are pleased to learn that Rev. A. J. Prosser was not left a single Sunday without a pastorage on his return from the service of the Canard church. The church of Bridgetown earnestly coveting the best gifts bestowed Mr. Prosser to come to them, and Mr. Prosser, desiring to serve a good people, gladly accepted the invitation. The church at Bridgetown has just been blessed by an extensive and we hope an intensive, revival under the leadership of Rev. Alexander Torrie and Mrs. Torrie. Mr. Prosser's well known generalship will find full scope for its exercise in cultivating and directing this new religious life.

The Second Baptist church, Atlanta Ga., during Rev. H. A. Porter's pastorate of seven years, has added 1,313 new members and raised $350,000, of which half has gone to missions and benevolences.

FEVER BREAKS
THERMOMETER

Escanaba, Mich., March 10—The fever of Miss Evelyn Lyons, which is so intense that it is impossible for medical thermometer to gauge it accurately showed a gradual increase today. Physicians estimated that it was approaching 120 degrees.

A thermometer graduated to 114 degrees was broken while efforts were being made to record her temperature when the mercury was driven to the end of the tube.

Dr. H. F. Defnet is of the opinion that the fever is caused by a tumor pressing on the thermal center of the girl's brain.

Miss Lyons is cheerful and otherwise apparently healthy but says she has a feeling that she is "burning up."

CANNOT WAKE
THIS BOY UP

Vancouver, March 8—All efforts of medical men have failed to awaken a boy of nineteen found walking along Main street fast asleep. He appears to be in average health. Superficial tests have failed to reveal any symptoms of poisoning and only hypnotism appears to be a logical explanation of the boy's condition. He has been removed to a hospital where his case is attracting considerable attention from physicians.

Broadway Said to be
Stony Spiritual Field

New York, March 9—Broadway is the least encouraging spot on earth in which to proclaim the word of God. That is the view of the Rev. Dr. Chas. E. Jefferson after twenty-five years' service as pastor of the Broadway Tabernacle. Dr. Jefferson's church is celebrating his silver jubilee this week and yesterday the clergyman preached his anniversary sermon.

"A minister of high ideals," he said "is subjected to constant crucifixion in New York. I am more optimistic now however, than when I came here from Boston twenty-five years ago. In my early years I was very conscious of my adversaries, but I am convinced that there is no greater place to preach and that it is an extraordinary opportunity for exalting the ideals of Jesus."

DOMESTIC
IN COURT

Chicago, March 8—Mr. and Mrs. Georgeon flaunted their domestic troubles a month or so ago in the court of domestic relations. It was agreed that Georgeon was to give his wife $15 a week, to be good and to live at home.

The husband promised well at the start of the period. He brought home a 65-cent box of candy. But he doled out only two pieces of the confection the Georgeon youngsters and then carried the candy to the basement where he secured it in a chest equipped with a two and a half pound padlock. For several evenings thereafter he would unlock the chest, subtract two pieces of candy from the hoard and lock the strong box again, awarding the tidbits to the baby. The day the husband was due to turn over the $15 he presented Mrs. Georgeon with only $14.35.

"I'm taking out for the candy," he told her.

So the wife went to the basement, smashed the two and a half pound padlock with an axe and hewed her way into the bon bon box.

The next week Mr. Georgeon gave his wife only $9.50.

"I'm charging you with the repair of the strong box and the lock," he explained.

So again they appeared in domestic court.

"She's sore because I had the telephone taken out," the man said. "She used up 79 slugs in 24 days."

"I had to because the baby was sick," Mrs. Georgeon defended.

"You can't change him," she said.

"He's Scotch."

detailed review of the problems that have faced him as spiritual head of the Tabernacle. He said the social activities of the average New Yorker virtually eliminated the old custom of pastor visitation. Dr. Jefferson said, because they live out of town for many months of the year and many of them spend almost every week-end out of town.

"These things," he asserted, "are utterly demoralizing to church life, and yet it seems there is no practical way of getting around them. The discouragement has been very exhausting to me."

The clergyman had a good word for Broadway. He pictured it as more responsive than many suppose. "Broadway is generally associated with noise, uproar, sordidness and the like," he said, "but as I look back, I can see that my work here has been rewarding in importance."

Declar's He Has Liberty

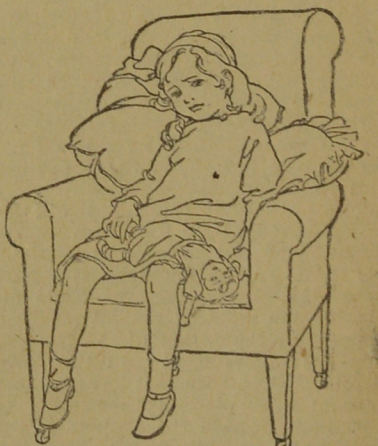

Dr. Jefferson made inferential comment upon the Dr. Grant-Bishop Manning controversy by announcing that "ministers can be as free as anyone."

"I have unshackled liberty of expression in my sermons," he continues, "and I don't find it necessary for me or to be cowed or brow beaten. I am an internationalist, a firm believer in the league of nations and an inveterate hater of war. I've denounced the twelve-hour day from this pulpit and I've denounced the seven day week. The Ku Klux Klan has always been held by me to be un-American and un-Christian. I have always attacked wrong as I saw it. This is the part of my sermon which will sound best fifty years hence."

Dr. Jefferson's sermon was followed by a service in the evening at which addresses were made by the Rev. Nehemiah Boynton and Dr. John H. Finley. Other meetings in honor of Dr. Jefferson will be held throughout the week.

"California Fig Syrup" is Child's Best Laxative

If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, a teaspoonful will never fail to open the bowels.
