Of Interest to the Women

THEY ARE WEARING

Cottons have been more than ever in evidence. Pastel organdies have ruffles of white in vertical clusters at the back of the skirt producing a bustle effect. Fine voiles are combined with heavy insertions of ecru lace, and the bertha is a favored detail of dotted Swiss frocks in which red registers strongly.

At the Military Fashion Show all red evening dresses in various brilliant shades in plain and beaded effects were conspicuous.

A restaurant frock noted recently was in simple lines of black satin the arm bare from shoulder to elbow. From elbow to waist was snapped on a sleeve effect of black satin faced and cuffed with white satin as shown in the sketch.

The navy coat dress which vies with the gray tailor.

Long, fitted sleeves which cover the wrist finished by a lingerie cuff of embroidery, lace-edged net or organdie.

Traveling suits of knitted fabrics Navy and green have been added to the perennially popular tan and gray shades.

Blue as related to the Chinese porcelain shades supplants green as the dominating color.

Interesting embroideries executed in ribbon are seen on many of the Fall frocks. One costume of fir-tree green crepe has the rather low waistline emphasized by a belt made of fold upon fold of satin edged gros-grain ribbon alternating with ribbon which had a gold edge.

The beret or tam is very chic when made of chenille or of narrow strips of ribbon or felt.

MANY BRACELETS WORN.

One bracelet looks awfully lone-some these times. To be correct today there should be five or six bracelets each different in color from the others and all as brightly colored as an African sunset.

PEAR CHIPS.

Core, quarter and then cut in small pieces 8 pounds of pears; add 4 pounds of sugar and 1-4 pound of Canton ginger and let stand over night. In the morning add 4 lemons cut in small pieces, rejecting seeds. Cook slowly 3 hours. Put in stone jar.

SPICED CURRANTS.

Stem this fruit and wash through clear, cold water. Allow 2 pounds of light brown sugar to every 4 pounds of the currants, 1 pint of good cider vinegar, cloves, allspice and pounded nutmeg to taste. Tie spices in a bag and boil them with the vinegar and sugar. When the sugar is dissolved put in fruit and simmer gently for half an hour. Put up in wide mouthed bottles or jars and tie paraffin paper over the top.

CARD OF THANKS

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE PARISH OF DOUGLAS.

Ladies and Gentlemen—

Having enjoyed your confidence for twenty-six years either as Councillor or County official, I take this opportunity of thanking you, for the very generous support you have given me on each and every occasion I appealed to you. And it is very gratifying to me to know after having served you all these years I am leaving municipal life with the good will and confidence of the constituency. As it is shown by the fact that no man rushed to oppose me. As Mr. Bird my successor would only consent to offer after having been urged by myself and many prominent men of the constituency who were supporters of mine. I wish also to thank my colleagues of the County Council for having elected me to the honorable position of Warden of the County, and the co-operation and assistance they gave me in matters I brought before the Council for the improvement of conditions in the County.

I remain,
Your very truly,
ALEXANDER BREWER.
