To The Protestant People of New Brunswick

Your Orphans' Home asks that at once you please send in your most generous possible subscription for maintenance to H. C. Rankine, Treasurer, 197 Germain Street, Saint John, N. B. The subscriptions for maintenance received from St. John County are annually considerably more than three-fifths of the total amount so subscribed. The number of inmates at present shows exactly three-fifths from Saint John County and two-fifths from the rest of the Province. From practically every County your Home has inmates. Sixty in all from outside St. John County. Ninety from St. John County and many of these could be directly traced to some other County.

Your Home needs generous subscriptions for maintenance very badly at once and is therefore making this appeal; for the reason above given; largely outside of Saint John County.

Yours very truly,
D. C. CLARK,

President.
H. USHER MILLER,
Secretary.

Acadians to Visit Grand Pre

Grand Pre Memorial Chapel and, inset, the Statue of Evangeline.

THE "Land of Evangeline" will become the scene of another celebration on August 9th. At a meeting of the Grand Pre Memorial Committee recently held at Moncton, arrangements were made for an excursion to Grand Pre on that day. Special trains will carry people from all points in Nova Scotia to the little town from whence the long suffering Acadians were deported by the English in 1755, and it is anticipated that people will join the excursionists from all parts of the Dominion and the United States.

One of the features of the day's programme will be the unveiling, in the Memorial Chapel, of a statue of the Madonna, which will be erected in recognition of the noble work accomplished by the Acadian National Societe L'Assomption, the Madonna being the patron saint of this society. The statue, which is 7½ feet high rests on a six foot base, has great beauty of design, and is claimed to be the finest of its kind on the American Continent.

As conditions are not as bright as they might be financially in Acadia the interior of the Memorial Chapel will not be completed this year but a committee has been formed to collect Acadian relics and souvenirs, and to obtain, if possible, further works of art that the interior of this institution be in keeping with the statue. While the exterior of the chapel is plain it is the intention of the Committee to have the interior as elaborate as possible. It will not be used for church purposes but as a museum and white and tinted marble with mosaic flooring will be used with artistic effect. Many will visit Grand Pre, not so much for their interest in Acadians, as because it is the setting of Long-fellow's story of the deportation. Evangeline is honored in immortal stone and large numbers have journeyed, particularly from America, to lay their tributes on the statue which is a monument not only to the heroic Acadian maid, but to the great poet whose writings she once inspired.

A day, an hour of virtuous liberty is worth a whole eternity in bondage. When liberty is gone life grows insipid and has lost its relish.
