HOW THE GIRL WHO CAN KNIT MAY MAKE SUMMER SWEATER.

It's sweater time the year around but just now the prospective Summer girl is planning for lighter weight and silk sweaters to wear with her white skirts in the warmer months. If she is a knitter and there are few modern girls who cannot knit all around their grandmothers she will enjoy making herself sweaters in the next few months. The directions given here are clear and make sweater knitting simple.

You will need five spools of one color sweater silk, of 12 spools of syltex sweater yarn, for a knitted silk Tuxedo Coat-Sweater. Also two number three bone or amber knitting needles. If you knit stitches to an inch (and most of us do) cast on 124 stitches for size 34. (Cast on eight stitches more for each size larger and eight stitches less for each size smaller. * (Knit 1 st, purl 1 st). Repeat parentheses all the way across. Turn. Knit own row plain. Repeat from * for five inches, ending with a row of knitting. This gives the sweater a deep plain sort of band at the lower edge. The rest of it is worked in a square pattern as follows:

First Row—(Knit 4 stitches, purl 4 stitches.) Repeat parentheses all the way across. Turn.

Second Row—(Purl 1 st, k 4 sts) Repeat parentheses all the way across. Turn. Repeat first and second rows two times more * knit two rows. Repeat first and second rows three times. Repeat from * until work measures 8 inches (it must be one inch longer for each size smaller.) This is the block pattern in which the whole body of the sweater is now worked.

Continue this block pattern, casting on eight sts. at end of every row until 92 stitches have been added on each end for the sleeves. (Cast on 4 sts. more for each size larger and 4 sts. less for each size smaller.) Work pattern for four and one half inches. Neck—Work pattern over 136 stitches (work over 8 sts. more for each size larger and 8 sts. less for each size smaller.) Slip these sts. off on a safety pin, bind off 36 sts. Work pattern on remaining sts. for one inch. Continue to work pattern on remaining sts., casting on one st. at neck edge of every other row until 30 sts. have been added.

When edge of sleeve measures nine inches, bind off sleeve sts. 8 at a time. Work pattern until underarm of back, working a five-inch plain band at lower edge as you did in back. Make other side in same manner. Overcast underarms.

The cuffs are made plain (knit 1 purl 1) and as deep as desired. The collar matches them and is simply a long strip, three inches broad turned back going up one side of front, around the neck and down the other side. Wear a leather belt with this sweater.

To make steamed apple dumplings pare, quarter and core a dozen good sized apples and place in a buttered pudding dish. Make a biscuit crust roll three-fourths of an inch thick put on the top of the apples place in a steamer over a kettle of hot water and steam an hour and a half. Serve with a spice liquid sauce.

MOTHER! MOVE CHILD'S BOWELS

"California Fig Syrup" is Child's Best Laxative

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, a teaspoonful will never fail to open the bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works, all the constipation, poison, sour bile and waste from the tender, little bowels and gives you a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

YANKS ARE OUTFLAPPED BY BURMESE

Restless feet, which in the last few years have taken Jack J. McGrath, globe-trotter, all through the mysterious reaches of the somnolent east, have at last brought him to his old home in Buffalo. He is still fancy free as to women, but admits that what he has learned from the yellow and brown helps him a lot with the white. On St. Patrick's day he will face the typhoons and rough weather of March and start back to Dangoon, India, where women salaam to white men, and where life is as free as one wishes to have it.

This young cosmopolite of many wide and strange highways and byways, has touched at Luxor, Egypt, and trekked across the desert to the Valley of Kings, the resting place of old King Tut. On one finger is a great ruby of Burma, scarlet, like the blood of scores who have died to possess it. The poppy lure is in his veins. "East of Suez" is in his bones.

Long's for East's Lures

"Take me somewhere east of Suez," he quoted, "where there ain't no 10 commandments, and the best is like the worst."

To Jack, sleep in an old-fashioned bed is uncomfortable, after the straw mats of Burma. The air is lazy with sleep. All is tranquil. Love beckons. Whisky and soda are on the table. Life is a beautiful dream.

"Oh, yes," he said, "women." I had forgotten all about women. I'll tell you straight that American flappers do not even touch me sentimentally. They are all right if you like that hard-boiled stuff, but they do not appeal to any one who has had the salaams of the Burmese girls. I am entirely through with America, prohibition, gold diggers and flappers."

McGrath is connected with an oil company which has contracted for his services for the next 10 years in foreign countries. McGrath declared last night that he will be glad to spend the rest of his life in foreign parts.

NOVA SCOTIA WILL CHANGE RULE OF ROAD

Halifax, March 16—There was considerable difference of opinion expressed in the House of Assembly yesterday regarding the date the change of the rule of the road from the left to the right drive, should become effective, the discussion dealing principally with Halifax. The bill which had been reported back from the Committee on Law Amendments, to the House was before the Committee of the Whole, with certain amendments attached, especially one to fix the date of the change at April 15th instead of April 2nd as embodied in the original draft. Mr. H. G. Bauld moved an amendment for an extension of time to May 1st for Halifax City in order to give the Halifax Tramway Company time to have their cars altered. There was opposition to this particularly by the Minister of Highways, Hon. William Chisholm who said that he had a suspicion that the amendment was an attempt on the part of the Tramway company largely with the purpose of delay and procrastination. "If you go to the first of May, the Tram Company might find it necessary to have until the first of June."

Mr. McKenzie leader of the Opposition, who is strongly in favor of the change at an early date as possible, said that he understood certain difficulties with which the Tram Company had to contend. He would like to see the whole Province come under the change on one date, whether it was the 15th of April or the 1st of May.

PRIZE CATTLE ARE HOUSED WITH ARTISTS

Paris March 16—It is an open question whether French versatility or Gallic humor was in the ascendancy when decision was made to house a great agricultural and cattle show under the roof of the Grand Palais at the same time that the Salon des Independents was in full sway.

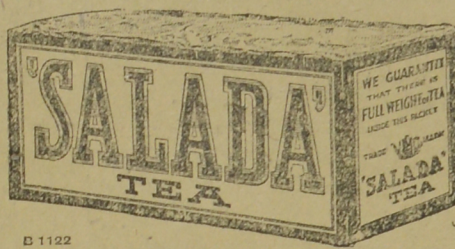

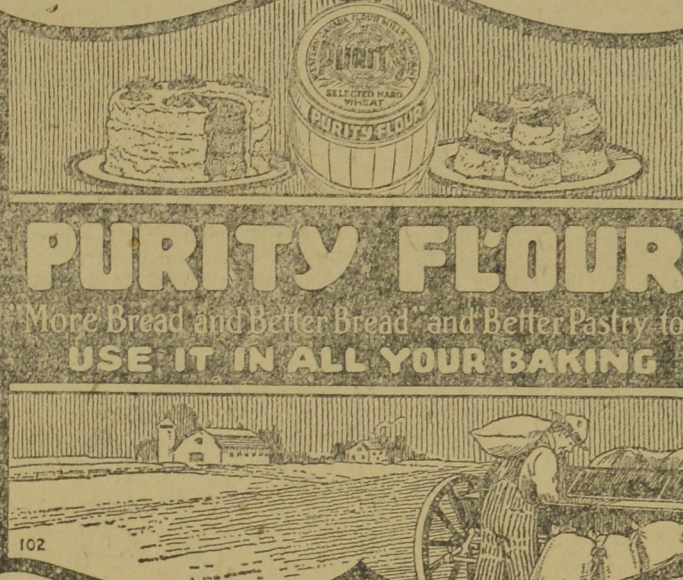

However the fact remains that cows moo in one part of the building while art devotees rhapsodize in another. On Sundays when the crowd visiting the Grand Palais is particularly great it often happens that the searcher after food for his soul gets sidetracked and finds himself contemplating prize-winning cattle.

Luck is always against the man who depends upon it.
