KING'S PICKED AS WHIRLWIND BY SYDNEY WRITER

Record Sport Man Predicts
They Will Beat Dal—
Also Favors Mt.
Allison.

Forecasting results in intercollegiate athletics is one of the most uncertain jobs existing but the sport writer of the Sydney Record blithely tackles it. Already he has fixed it up that King's College with a wonderful aggregation of hockey players has Dalhousie beaten already and Mount A. is the favorite in the Western Section although he admits U. N. B. will be strong.

This would seem to put it up to King's and Mt. Allison for both Sumner Trophy and Maritime College title. It might be remembered, however, that the same line of dope was used early in the Rugby football season with other colleges of course named. It proved very, very wrong. Hockey dope before the season has started may prove the same.

This is what the Record has:
"King's College will have one of the greatest hockey teams in the history of that institution, according to word that comes to me. Several new players are attending the Windsor College this winter and they will replace one or two players who were fast enough to figure on last year's sextette, but will not be able to make the grade this winter. King's students declare the team will defeat Dalhousie and figure in the intercollegiate play-off in 1923. Mount A. and U.N.B. are both expected to be strong in the western section of the intercollegiate league, with dope favoring the former."

BELLIVEAU BACK IN GAME AT DORCHESTER

Former Moncton Victoria Player and Canadian Tryout—
Gordon Rainnie Also Playing Again.

According to the Sackville Tribune the amateur governing body will permit Marcell Belliveau who has appeared here in by gone years with Chatham teams to re-enter amateur hockey and he will figure on the Dorchester team. One very old timer who is to be with Sackville at least at the beginning of the series is Gordon Rainnie who has played here in Arctic Rink here many a time and oft.

The Tribune has the following:
(Gordon Rainnie will direct work of the home team and will be seen at his position, with him on the defense will be Jack Amos while Herb Tracey will guard the nets. On the attacking line will be Ernie Fowler at Centre with Charlie McAllister and Tommy Hersler on the wings. The relief players will be selected from a number of boys who have been showing up well at recent work-outs.

Dorchester will appear with about the same line-up as last year, and in addition will have Marcell Belliveau, a forward Moncton Vic, forward man who was given a try-out with the Canadiens in the N.H.L.

At a meeting of the team, Gordon Rainnie was appointed acting manager and Tommy Hersler, Sec-Treas. The electing of a captain was deferred until the return of Edgar Copp, who is playing in New York with the Mt. A. team.

Gordon Rainnie intended to withdraw from the playing end of the game and only consented to play the opening game on account of Copp being away. With his knowledge of the game and players he will be of great assistance to the team on the directing end.

LANDIS FOR RUBE BENTON LATEST YARN

Commissioner is Investigating
World's Series Scandal on Quiet and May Let Player in.

Chicago, Jan. 5—Resurrection by Pres Johnson of the American League of the Rube Benton-Charlie Herzog case reflects on the methods of the old National Commission to such an extent that Commissioner Landis hesitates to act on the wish of certain baseball men to bar Benton from baseball.

Landis insists there is no sufficient justification to banish Rube from the game because he charged Herzog with attempting to bribe him and then could not prove it. To the commissioner this seems ridiculous and he is not considering making any decision in this case.

What Landis is interested in, however is the information that Benton had prior knowledge of the fixing of the 1919 World series in which the Reds and White Sox clashed. Benton, it is alleged had previous information on the games, getting it from a telegram that was sent to certain ball players in New York. This was disclosed in the testimony given at the trial of the White Sox players in Chicago. Benton was also called before the Grand Jury, it being said that he knew something about the crookedness of the series.

Despite all this, the old National Commission, composed of Presidents Johnson and Heydr and Garry Herrmann, permitted Benton to remain with the New York club, stay in the National League for a half season and then continue to play in the American Association for a year and a half.

Now, when Benton plans to return to the majors, an effort is made to keep him out, Pres Johnson saying he cannot come into the American league.

Herrmann, who refused to take action against the pitcher after the 1919 World's series scandal broke, sought to employ him for the Reds, but he has been so severely criticised that he now plans to leave the pitcher in St. Paul.

Commissioner Landis has been quietly investigating Benton's alleged connection with the scandal and it was learned today that the judge will in all probability give Rube a clean bill of health.

MISS ROBINSON GOING FAST

Miss Gladys Robinson, Toronto lady speed skater went the 440 yards at Newburgh in 53.25 seconds. It was an exhibition race only. She was to have taken part in the ladies events, but owing to the postponement of the races from Monday and the departure of the contestants all ladies events were called off.

Miss Robinson skated with Art Staff at the Arctic Rink last winter. There was a furor concerning her eligibility at that time.

ENCOURAGEMENT.

Du Both met a girl who was lovely
And she had him going for fair
He fell for her eyes and her laughter
He fell for the night of her hair.

"I've promised to hug you" he murmured,
"To kiss you I've taken an oath"
Then she lifted her eyes in awed wonder,
Exclaiming, "O Mr. Du Both!"

STACKHOUSE RESTING UP INJURED ANKLE

Wolfville Star Will be Off Amherst Rambler Lineup for Some Weeks—Clashed with Carroll.

Amherst, N. S. Jan. 5—Ted Stackhouse, the Amherst forward player, who was injured by George Carroll in the game with Moncton, is suffering from a splintered ankle. Stackhouse was taken to the hospital and under the X-Ray it was ascertained that a piece of bone had been broken from the ankle. The foot was placed in a plaster cast, and in all probability, Stackhouse will be out of the game for at least two weeks. The big fellow will leave for his home in Wolfville, where he will recuperate from the effects of his injury. In the absence of this man the Ramblers will be using Victor Sillicker on the front line.

"Stackhouse played with Acadia University some years ago, and also was tried out in the N. H. L.)
