COURT WAS VERY LENIENT WITH THIS OFFENDER

Los Angeles, June 27—W. J. Zink, whose nemesis seems to be hard luck, is back trying to make a living on his desert claim.

Zink, hailed into court here on a "dry" charge, told a "hard luck" story that won him almost unprecedented mercy from the court.

Recently Zink moved out into the desert east of Victorville and there, with his wife, took up a homestead—so that his wife might have a chance to regain her health. She was suffering from tubercular trouble.

Wife Begged For Whisky

Whisky seemed to be the only medicine that helped his wife, so Zink came to the coast for a pint. He failed to get a doctor's certificate for the whisky because physicians had not seen his wife. Mrs. Zink was too frail to stand the trip in from the desert so Zink got the liquor from a bootlegger. "Dry" agents found the booze in his machine which he had parked, and seized the car.

Fearing arrest and separation from his wife, Zink abandoned his much-abused flivver and returned to his wife. Soon afterwards friends informed him the federal officers had learned his name and where he could be found through registration of his machine. He then wrote the authorities that he would appear in court as soon as his wife was able to make the trip.

Woman Killed in Accident

Finally Zink, with his wife, started for Los Angeles. Their rickety machine overturned and Mrs. Zink was killed. Zink buried her near the spot of the fatal accident.

Again Zink was ready to start to court, but a neighbor was severely injured in a gasoline explosion and Zink nursed his friend and took care of his claim until he recovered.

At last Zink appeared in federal court before Judge Trippett. He explained the delay and said he was ready to plead guilty and pay the penalty for transporting liquor. The judge ascertained the truth of Zink's story and fined him the minimum prescribed by law—$1. Zink paid the fine in nickels and dimes. The judge also ordered the return of Zink's automobile.

ECZEMA— Hands Were Raw Would Crack and Bleed

Eczema or Salt Rheum, as it is commonly called, is one of the most agonizing of skin diseases. The intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when exposed to heat, are almost unbearable and relief is gladly welcomed.

The pre-eminent success which Burdock Blood Bitters has met with in permanently removing a disease of such severity is due to its wonderful blood cleansing and purifying properties.

Mrs. M. R. Willard, Dudswell Jet., Que., writes: "For about three years I had eczema, in a very bad form, on my hands. They were all raw and would crack and bleed so that I could not do my housework. I tried everything I could think of without any results. At last I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and when I had it about all taken I could see it was helping me; by the time I had taken five bottles my hands were all well again and I have not been bothered since. I cannot praise Burdock Blood Bitters enough."

NOTICE OF MEETING

MUNICIPALITY OF YORK
The Semi-Annual Session of the County Council of the Municipality of York will convene at the Council Chamber, County Court House, Fredericton, on Tuesday, the 3rd day of July, 1923, at 2 p. m.

J. M. SCOTT,
Secretary-Treasurer.

To The Protestant People of New Brunswick

Your Orphans' Home asks that at once you please send in your most generous possible subscription for maintenance to H. C. Rankine, Treasurer, 197 Germain Street, Saint John, N. B. The subscriptions for maintenance received from St. John County are annually considerably more than three-fifths of the total amount so subscribed. The number of inmates at present shows exactly three-fifths from Saint John County and two-fifths from the rest of the Province. From practically every County your Home has inmates. Sixty in all from outside St. John County. Ninety from St. John County and many of these County are directly traced to some other County. Your Home needs generous subscriptions for maintenance very badly at once and is therefore making this appeal; for the reason above given; largely outside of Saint John County.

Yours very truly,
D. C. CLARK,

President.
H. USHER MILLER,
Secretary.

"HOSS" TRADE MUST STAND

Superior, Wis., June 27—Whether a horse, possessed of a kind and loving disposition, but lacking motive power in its hind legs, was worth $180 was the question presented for decision in a unique suit tried in the municipal court here.

The suit resulted from the sale of the horse by one E. L. Maynard, farmer residing near here, to a neighbor S. J. Engstrom. After he had obtained possession of the horse Engstrom, according to Maynard's complaint, refused to pay for the animal.

Engstrom in his reply declared that an agreement had been entered into between himself and Maynard whereby he was not to be compelled to pay for the horse until his qualities had been proven by actual service. He told the court that his test revealed that the horse was "kind-hearted and loving", but also that his hind legs were lame and that for pulling purposes the horse was worthless.
