A CRISIS WAS AVERTED

Paris, France, July 3—Valuing cabinet posts above positions in their party, the three Poincare ministers called upon by the executive committee of the radical and radical-socialistic groups to resign from the cabinet have refused to obey the party orders and thus have obviated for the moment the danger of a political crisis in France.

ADDRESSES DELIVERED TODAY ON BEHALF OF PROVINCE, CITY AND PROVINCIAL COMMAND G.W.V.A.

Your appointment to the present high position you occupy in our country was most gratifying to those of us who had been members of your command in those great days when the future was often dark and uncertain, and no man knew what the morrow might bring. Then it was in your leadership that we placed our trust and it was then we learned to know of those qualities of resoluteness and courage which no situation could defeat and which adversity and misfortune only served to embellish with a greater lustre.

Now, with the confidence begotten of that experience in the vital days of war, we face the problems that peace has brought, stimulated and inspired by the certain knowledge that those same qualities of leadership we learned to trust are still guiding and directing affairs to the advantage of our country and for the credit of that nation whose greatness means to you and to us all, diverse as our occupations may now be, our own prosperity our own pride and our own patriotism.

Proud as we are to welcome you as our Governor, may we presume you a warmer, closer and more homely welcome? We, who had the honor to serve under you, prefer to think of you as more than the representative of His Majesty, more than the living symbol of a common sovereign throughout our widely sundered provinces. We like better to regard you as a comrade, our most honored comrade, gained in those days of fighting in the common cause of Empire, when the bonds of a comradeship that meant so much were welded so firmly that they can never be rent asunder while any of us live. We wish you to feel the greeting and welcome we offer you to be the welcome of comrades to a comrade. Though it is a far call from Vimy to Ottawa, in the fullness of this comradeship, as we fought and marched with you then you may still depend upon us to carry on and support you in the work you are now doing to your own great credit and to the honor and advantage of our own great country.

To your gracious wife, Her Excellency Lady Byng of Vimy, we also extend our cordial welcome. We trust that for both of you, your stay in our Province may be productive of only the happiest experiences and that you may carry away with you the most pleasant memories.

Your Excellency, as our renowned leader, we salute you; as our well loved comrade, we welcome you.

C. R. HAWKINS,
Vice-President.

MR. HANSON GETS SOME INFORMATION

(From Hansard.)

Mr. Hanson:

1. Was the mail contract held by Francois d'Amours of Trois Pistoles, Quebec, cancelled? If so, why

2. Were tenders called for a continuation of the mail carriage service at Trois Pistoles, Quebec?

3. If so, how many tenders were received by the department, by whom were tenders submitted and what was the amount of each tender?

4. To whom was the contract awarded?

Right Hon. Mr. MacKenzie King,
(for the Postmaster General.)

1. and 2. Representations having been made that a better service could be given at a lower cost if public tenders were invited, steps were taken to invite tenders with a view to ascertain the cost of a new contract for the Trois Pistoles Rural Route, No 1.

3. The following tenders were received: Joseph Theriault, Trois Pistoles, $445; Thomas D'Amours, Trois Pistoles, $450; Joseph Theriault, Trois Pistoles, $550; Chas. Eugene Larocque, Trois Pistoles, $625; Xavier Gagnon, Trois Pistoles, $650; Eli-zee Rioux, Trois Pistoles, $696; Jean Leblond, Trois Pistoles, 700.

4. As the contract held by Mr. Francois D'Amours involved payment at the rate of $665 per annum, the Postmaster General acted upon the provisions contained in the contract authorizing him to annul the agreement on three months' notice to the contractor, whenever, in his opinion, the public interest shall require it, and award ed a new contract to Mr. Joseph Theriault, the lowest tenderer at the rate of $445 per annum.

Mrs. Clarke's Death

Mrs. George J. Clarke, widow of a former Premier of the Province, died suddenly Thursday morning at her summer home at St. Andrews. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs.
Stuart Lane of Vanceboro, and Mrs.
Lewis Jarvis of Montreal who were with her when the end came. The deceased was a daughter of the late Rev.
H. McKeown and a sister of Chief Justice McKeown. She was a leader in social, philanthropic and patriotic activities in St. Stephen, where she has made her home since her marriage.

Even the mean temperature is at its meagrest.

Etna appears to be preparing to take a summer vacation.

NAME SO LONG COURT WEARILY SETS HIM FREE

Chicago, July 3—Try this on your autograph album!

Emil Karipulsernueller of Chicago was arraigned in South Clark st. police court, charged with disorderly conduct. He had been entertaining a crowd on the street with an improvtu song and dance act, inspired by the heat and sundry draughts of hooch.

"What is your name" asked Judge Rooney.

"Emil," told at length.

"Spell it!" commanded the Judge.

Another lengthy and trying session.

"Get a truck and haul your name out of this court," said Judge Rooney.

"We can neither spell it or pronounce it. The weather is too hot for such prodigious effort. A man who has lugged a title like that around is sufficiently punished. Case dismissed.

12 QUEER FIRES IN TWO DAYS

Manchester, N. H., July 3—Fire broke out at 8. 45 in the store of Mc-Questen & Lewis, one of the largest wholesale and retail grocery stores in the city and threatened to destroy the structure. Three alarms were sounded.

The blaze follows a series of 11 fires yesterday, nine of which police and fire officials declare to be of incendiary origin.

Fire department officials declared that the fire was of incendiary origin.
It started in a hay barn and spread to the stable and the store. It is believed the entire establishment will be destroyed.

It is estimated that the loss will be more than $50,000.

VOTE SHOWS POINCARÉ LOSS

Paris, France, July 3—An election in the department of Seine at Oise has resulted in the defeat of the Government candidate. Premier Poincaré's "bloc national" in the last four years lost 35,000 votes, chiefly to the opposition "bloc des gauches" (left bloc.)

Politicians are wondering whether this by-election is significant in connection with the general elections next spring.

Germans are crying for real money; but that isn't the kind they want to pay their debts with.
