Public Schools Closed This Morning For the Christmas Holidays, Many Present

Presentation of Certificates a Feature—Christmas Entertainments in Some Departments—School Work Reviewed in Others — Illness Prevented Arranging of Programs in Some Cases.

The closing of the public schools for the Christmas holidays took place this morning. The meeting of the York and Sunbury Teachers Institute Thursday and Friday brought the closing slightly earlier than usual. Illness in some of the departments made it impossible to prepare the customary Christmas exercises but in others there were elaborate entertainments.

The seasonable features were prominent in all exercises with Christmas and Santa Claus the main theme.

The presentation of certificates was a great feature in all schools the various members of the School Board attending and making the presentations.

The attendance of parents and others interested in the schools as usual was large although the weather was not the most favorable.

Smythe Street School.
At the Smythe street School the ordinary work of the term was carried on except in Grades I, II and III each of which had its own entertainment. Miss McCann's department consisting of Grade III had a Christmas exercise entitled "A Visit from Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus."

PIONEER EDITOR DEAD IN THE WEST

Winnipeg, Dec. 17.—James Hooper, one of the pioneer newspaper men of Manitoba, died at his home here today after some years of failing health. Mr. Hooper was born in Devonshire in 1855.

He came to Canada in 1884 and for ten years he was employed on papers in London. He launched the Herald at Maurice, Man., in 1880, this being one of the earliest newspapers in the province. He gathered news for the first issue of the Winnipeg Tribune.

AN ENDURANCE TEST.

Every day since they had started housekeeping his bride had given him the same kind of breakfast food and finally he mustered up courage to make a gentle inquiry.

"How does it happen that we have this every morning?" he asked.

"Oh George!" she exclaimed. They give blue coupons with each package and for 100 coupons you can get the loveliest rocking chair you have only to eat 90 more packages."
