The Cape Breton Miners' Vote to Keep up Fight Until Leaders Are Freed

Glace Bay, N. S., July 8—Five thousand miners assembled at a mass meeting in Alexandra Rink Saturday evening declared by adoption of a resolution to continue on strike until President Dan Livingstone and Secretary J. B. McLachlan of U. M. W. District 26 have been liberated from jail and cleared of the charges now preferred against them by Attorney-General W. J. O'Hearn of Nova Scotia.

The resolution, which called upon the miners to resist the attacks being made on our union and to maintain the solidarity of the ranks" was adopted unanimously. Jack McLeod, of Caledonia local, submitted the resolution to the meeting and Chairman Angus Kenny McDonald in calling for the vote declared: I intend to have those in favor of this resolution which means briefly, that we continue on strike until Livingstone and McLachlan are released, raise their right hands. Those who approve of the resolution are thus taking a vow and a pledge that they will not return to work until our leaders are with us once more.

There was a great outburst of cheering as every miner in the audience raised his right hand.

Following the adoption of this resolution the meeting unanimously endorsed another emanating from Caledonia Local, that the railway men of Canada be requested to refuse to carry any further troop trains into the strike area of Cape Breton.

The New Waterford miners in declaring their intention of supporting Livingstone and McLachlan, urged the selection of Colonel G. S. Harrington, former Overseas Deputy Minister of Militia as their counsel.

There were numerous speeches at Saturday's meeting, the slogan adopted being—Maintain the solidarity of the ranks—do not quit the strike. Every speaker stressed the point of presenting a united front to the enemy in this fight.

The coal operators, Governments and provincial police were severely denounced. John L. Lewis International U. M. W. president was censured by speakers and miners in the audience, as well.

Says Telegram Not Received.

Tom Bell, editor of the Maritime Labor Herald, who was the last speaker at the meeting declared that the John L. Lewis telegram which appeared in the press on Saturday ordering the Cape Breton miners to return to work had not been received at the U. M. W. headquarters, Glace Bay. He charged that the telegram had been sent to the British Empire Steel Corporation and copies had been given to the press by officials of the corporation.

During the course of the meeting, Vice-president McIntyre counselled the miners to make no demonstration against the presence of troops in the colliery districts, but added that the miners should be firm in their determination to keep their man-power from the pits. Just before the meeting closed Chairman McDonald declared: Any man who goes back to work after taking this vow by adopting this resolution this evening his principles sink to the soles of his boots. Comrades I don't ask you to kill any man who goes back to work. I want you to kick him to death.

Western Miners May Strike.

Calgary, Alta., July 8—The situation is serious and anything may happen, declared William Sherman president of District 18, United Mine Workers, discussing the attitude of his organization toward the development in the Nova Scotia coal and steel strike. Asked if a sympathetic strike was possible he replied: It certainly is; anything is possible.

A general conference of all labor organizations in the west will be held when the situation will be discussed. The conference will be held either in Calgary or Winnipeg as early as possible, it is said.
