

GOOD REASONS FOR BUYING A DELAVAL SEPARATOR

GREATER CAPACITY: New capacities have been increased 10 p. c. without increase of speed or effort required in operation.

SKIMS CLOSER: The improved bowl design, together with the patented milk distributor, gives greater skimming efficiency.

EASIER TO WASH: Simpler bowl construction and discs caulked only on the upper side make the bowl easier to wash.

EASIER TO TURN: The low speed of the DeLaval bowl, the short crank, its unusually large capacity for the size and weight of the bowl and its automatic oiling throughout, make it the easiest to turn and least tiring to the operator.

THE MAJORITY CHOICE: More DeLaval are sold every year than all other makes of separators combined. More than 2,500,000 are in daily use—thousands of them for 15 or 20 yrs.

TIME TESTED: The DeLaval was the first Cream Separator. It has stood the test of time and maintained its original success and leadership for 40 years the world over.

CANADIANS ARE OPPOSED TO TITLES

Ottawa, March 19—The House of Commons tonight reaffirmed its stand of 1919 against the granting of titles in Canada. By a vote of 121 to 14—the heavy majority against of 107—the House defeated a motion by L. J. Ladner, Conservative member for Vancouver South, which would have permitted the granting of decorations (save those carrying titles) for "distinguished service or high attainments in education, literature, art and science."

To the motion, A. W. Neill, Independent of Comox-Alberni, B. C., had an amendment which by deleting the limiting clauses would have permitted the granting of all decorations. The amendment was declared defeated without a recorded vote and the main motion was lost on the vote indicated.

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen leader of the Opposition voted for the Ladner motion. Supporting it were eleven Conservatives, one Independent—Mr. Neill of Comox-Alberni—and two Liberals—Messrs. Fortier of Labelle and Martell, of Hants. Premier King and all other Liberals, present with all Progressives, voted against the motion. Three Conservatives—George Black of Yukon, W. F. MacLean and T. L. Church of North Toronto—also voted in the negative.

BIG SNAKE WAS CAPTAIN'S PET

Boston, March 19—The American steamer West Saginaw which tied up at Campbell's Wharf Chelsea yesterday had on board a menagerie. An eight-foot python shared the chart-room with the captain and became so tame that it would follow him around the rooms.

The jungle animals brought by the steamer from the West Coast of Africa will eventually go to one of the New York zoos.

Capt. T. J. Sammon of the freighter had the python for a constant companion during the passage to Boston. Fearing that the serpent would succumb to the rigid weather in the North Atlantic the captain had a warm spot reserved in his cabin for the reptile.

For a month the python has not partaken of food subsisting entirely on water. It is fastidious in its taste and will eat nothing but chicken or fowl birds. Capt. Sammon secured the python while at Sierra Leone. It is less than a year old. When it reaches its full growth it will be over 20 feet long.

A full-grown leopard, two leopard cubs, two baboons three monkeys and an assortment of parrots and birds of bright plumage were also on board the steamer.

The leopard cubs are about the size of a cat and are very playful. The baboons have been trained so that they march like soldiers and "present arms" to the ship's steward.

FINDS HOTEL IS CHEAPER THAN A JAIL

Lancaster, Pa., March 20—The report of County Controller Mowrer filed this week for 1923 shows that is costs as much to keep a prisoner at the county jail as it would to house him at the Hotel Brunswick.

The amount expended in keeping one prisoner would send the same man to college for a year. It would keep a laboring man and his family fifty-two weeks, except at wage-flood time. Imagine forty prisoners as the average number per day per year and it costs nearly $30,000 to keep them in food and that must be about all, unless the clothing they wear exacts a large sum.

These prisoners are the usual kind there are no Thaws among them. None of them use silk handkerchiefs. Citizens will vote to sell the jail to the School Board and a high school will be erected on the site.

The jail at the time of its construction was the finest in the United States, but that was when Uncle Sam was in knee pants.

AN IMMIGRANT GIRL MADE GOOD

San Francisco March 20—Mrs. M. Rantz Schwab, who thirty years ago visualized America as "the promised land" upon her arrival here from Russia as an immigrant has been sworn in as the first woman to serve in the city attorney's office.

From newsgirl, salesgirl, factory worker and stenographer to lawyer is the road which has led Mrs. Schwab to the assistant city attorney ship.

A Plea for Amity and Closer Relations Between Ontario and Quebec

Toronto, March 19—A sunshine of radiant smiles from Quebec and a breeze of genial good-fellowship from Ontario were the beneficent influences that combined on St. Patrick's Day to dissipate any strained relations that may have existed in days gone by between the two provinces, and to chase away the clouds that at times have threatened to darken the national life of the Dominion. From now on Ontario and Quebec are but Christian names—the family name is Canada. The meetings held in Toronto on Saturday, which had as their object the furthering of amity and closer relations between the two sister provinces, assume world significance when it is taken into consideration that representatives and descendants of two races, which have stood in the vanguard of civilization, culture and progress throughout the ages, pledged each other to work in future for the welfare of one country and for the upbuilding of one nation—Canada.

Canadian Club Banquet

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Premier Drury and Prof. F. Roy of Laval University were the speakers at the Canadian Club banquet held in the Crystal Room of the King Edward Hotel on Saturday night. As Premier Taschereau, Justice Brodeur, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Premier Drury and Prof. Roy took their seats at the head table, with Lieutenant-Governor Cockshutt and Chairman S. B. Gundy, they were given an enthusiastic ovation. When Premier Drury rose for his address, the Frenchmen broke out with that old song which recognizes their strongest friends, "Il a Gagne Ses Epauettes." The pronouncement of the Premier that he did not wish to see Ontario become the Ireland of North America, with a clash of racial prejudice and religious bigotry, and a country torn by the most ignoble passions, was greeted with an outburst of applause. "It would be treason to the whole country. No foreign menace can touch us if we remain true to ourselves," Premier Drury said.

Plea for Friendship

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux reached the pinnacle of eloquence in his plea for friendship between Ontario and Quebec. He regretted that in days gone by he had been a partisan and that he had influenced many of his fellow countrymen to vote against "the old firebrand, Sir John A. Macdonald."

"Since the days when I was campaigning as a budding young lawyer, I have read the life of Sir John, and I have grown a little older. One sentence of his speech during the big debate of 1890 touched me deeply: 'God forbid that in this Canada of ours there be one law for the majority and one law for the minority.'"

He continued by stating that fathers of Confederation had been inspired by one idea—to see a healthy and patriotic rivalry between the two provinces, in treating the respective minorities with the greatest generosity. "The treatment of minorities is an object of concern to all the statesmen of Europe. It is the same in Poland and in Slovakia, in Bulgaria and also in France with the re-annexation of Alsace-Lorraine.

Our Crucial Period

"Wherever a minority is to be found there, I think, the golden rule should be applied. For is this not a sign of a higher civilization and should it not be applied by us in our dealings with minorities in the provinces?" he asked.

"Confederation is just now passing through its crucial test. Do you and do we realize that the great war has left scars on the shield of Canada? We have an appalling large national debt and our population is dwindling little by little. Buffalo and other cities in the United States are practically Canadian and many of the towns and villages in the New England States are predominantly French. We still have with us the high cost of living and the great railway problem. It is not my part to speak controversially on these matters, but I mention them because I believe Confederation is passing through its crucial test. If we want to face the future with the expectation to survive we must take inspiration from the men whom we fondly called the fathers of Confederation, and we must take their abiding faith and hope in Canada and borrow their courage to face with patriotism the realities of the day."

London Comment

London, March 19—The Times referring to the fraternization in Toronto on Saturday of representative men from Quebec and Ontario under the auspices of the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, Hon. Harry Cockshutt say the new movement toward amity will be welcomed by all who know and love Canada. The newspaper suggests that if there is need for a closer alliance between the two great provinces of eastern Canada there is still a greater need for union between eastern and western Canada.

The East and West

Events of the last week have struck a note of promise, the newspaper continues, referring to emigration matters, and the gulf between the west and east in Canada can be bridged only by the settlement of new communities on the thousand of empty acres lying between.

"For this reason," The Times says "the increased activity of the Canadian Government in its efforts to secure new settlers is particularly satisfactory."

BABE RUTH WILL RETURN NEXT MONTH

New York, March 20—It is likely that Babe Ruth, who is being sued for $50,000 by Delores Dixon who names him as the father of her unborn child, will face his fair accuser late in April. He will return from spring training with the Yankees on April 14, and his answer to the girl's complaint is due April 20.

The complaint made by the girl is today on file in the office of the county clerk. It gave no details of the alleged attacks of Ruth upon the libellant. It was stated by Miss Dixon's lawyer that "Babe" made violent leve to his client in July last, and that their relations persisted into the following month.

ESCAPED FROM A SNOW GRAVE

Winnipeg, March, 20—After being struck on the head with a Mills bomb buried in a snowbank as a "dead one" and his pocketbook stolen, Stanley Wimble made a hurried exit from his snow "grave" and notified the police.

Yesterday Christopher E. Fritze 22, was held by the police on a charge of attempted murder and Wimble is recovering from minor injuries. Wimble after being hit on the head with the bomb which was loaded with nails, shammed unconsciousness and his assailant covered him up in a snow pile. Robbery was believed by police to be the motive for the alleged attack, the injured man's wallet being found in Fritze's home. It contained no money.

CANUCKS RULE CUBAN BANKING

Concord, N. H., March 19—United States Senator Medill McCormick and W. P. G. Harding Governor of the Federal Bank, Boston were the principal speakers at the annual banquet of the New Hampshire Bankers' Association at the Eagle Hotel here tonight. A brief address was given by former ex-Gov Albert O. Brown of Manchester. Judge Leslie P. Snow of Rochester the retiring president of the association, presided.

Gov. Harding spoke of conditions in Cuba social, political, financial and business his impression drawn from the recent stay in the island on a mission from the Federal Government. He said Canadian bankers are gaining control of the finances of Cuba although having the least business interests otherwise of any outside country and declared there is a big opportunity for New England manufacturers, particularly in cotton goods to do a larger business there. The following officers were elected by the association: President, Earnest P. Roberts, Concord; vice president, Harry E. Boynton, Portsmouth; Edmund Little, Laconia, secretary-treasurer, Perley A. Johnson, Newport; executive committee, George E. Harris, Nashua; Clifford L. Sturtvant, Keene; Edward B. Stearns, Manchester.

SUSSEX BEAT CHARLOTTETOWN IN GOOD STYLE

Sussex, March 19—Sussex decisively defeated Charlottetown here tonight by a score of four to one before 2,000 spectators. The game was fast and furious from start to finish in spite of the mild weather. The Abbies were outclassed by the Sussex boys in all departments of the game. There was no outshining star on the Abbies team, all working hard but to no avail. Finnegan was a regular stone wall in the goal. Some of his stops were phenomenal and on one occasion he rushed from the goal to break up a combination play and dashed into his net just in time to save a wicked shot. The old combination, Harold Radcliffe and Leclair were the outstanding players for Sussex, all goals being scored by their play.

The line-up:—

Sussex	Charlottetown
	Goal
Finnegan	Morgan
	Defence
Hay	Kelly
P. Radcliffe	Moore
	Centre
J. Leclair	McEachern
	Wings
H. Radcliffe	Gordon
W. Friars	Rodd
	Subs
Friars	E. Prowse
Lamb	R. Prowse

WORD CHANGED IN A HYMN

London, March 19—The House of Bishops of the Anglican Church has decided to eliminate the word "hell" from the forty-seventh psalm of the Psalter and to substitute therefor the word "grave."

The revised version is:—"What man is he that liveth and shall not see death and shall he deliver his soul from the power of the grave?"
