

SENTENCES IN ASSAULT CASES STIFF

Two Years for Donovan, Three Years for Chase on Two Counts—Remarks by Judge Slipp.

Judge Slipp of the York County Court at noon today imposed sentence upon Robert Donovan who had pleaded guilty to assault on Police Sergt. William Hughes while the latter was discharging his duty and also upon Seymour Chase who was charged with conspiracy to assault John E. Sullivan, formerly of St. John and also with carrying a concealed weapon. His Honor imposed a sentence of two years in penitentiary upon Donovan and one of two years upon Chase for conspiracy another of one year for carrying a concealed weapon, the two sentences not to be concurrent.

Remarks to Donovan.

Imposing sentence upon Donovan Judge Slipp expressed marked sympathy for the accused saying that bad associations evidently were the cause of his present position. He felt that for the protection of police officers he could do nothing else. He also was influenced by the fact that Donovan had not made a full statement of the circumstances when given the opportunity, although counsel had given assurance that he would. The judge stated further that as in the case of another young man he would be pleased at the expiration of one year of the sentence to recommend release if behaviour should be good.

Remarks to Chase.

In regard to Chase the judge said that he regarded him as the mastermind in the incidents which had resulted in the two being before him. He believed that there was little which he could say which would induce the accused to change his mode of living and become a good citizen. He pointed out that on one charge the prisoner was liable to a maximum of seven years and on the other to a maximum of five years.

On August 23rd.

The incidents which resulted in the sentence being imposed today occurred on the night of August 23rd. After some trouble Donovan and Chase attempted to waylay Sullivan with clubs. Police Sergt. Hughes arrested Chase and while taking him to the police station was eluded from behind by Donovan.

In Chambers.

Sentences were imposed in chambers at the Parliament Building and not in the court house. A number of spectators were present and the wife and one of the little children of Chase were present in court.
